

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

We are glad to learn that the revival spirit in the Fredericton Church continues, and souls are seeking the Lord. Brother P. J. Trafton, the pastor, baptized four souls Sunday, the 16th, and three more on Sunday, the 23rd inst., and received five into church fellowship, while some knelt at the altar and others requested prayer. May the good work continue.

We are pleased to learn of the good work at Perth as also at Millville as referred to in correspondence on another page.

Also the blessing of the Lord at Beals. May all the churches be abundantly blessed.

Beloved, time is rapidly passing and soon the camp meeting season will be here. Are we prepared for it? Are we making these services a matter of earnest prayer? We ought to begin now and continue to earnestly pray that the blessing of the Lord would attend them. We cannot expect success unless we prepare for it. It is only through humble, sincere and earnest petition to Him who alone can send blessings that are worth while, that rich heavenly blessings may be on the Camp Meetings. It is not too early to begin to talk to God about them.

Let all the saints pray. Do not forget it, beloved.

STUDENTS' FUND.

We hope that those who have not yet redeemed their pledges given at Riverside toward this fund may find it convenient to do so in the near future. Amounts from those who have not pledged will also be gratefully received.

We will never have much more faith than we have, unless we stop talking doubt and unbelief; for if we talk doubt we will have doubt; if we talk unbelief it will grow on our hands; but if we cultivate faith, if we will encourage faith, we will have plenty of it. Faith is not only the gift of God, but 'faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God,' and we ought to have fulness of faith in Jesus Christ. We ought to be believing for larger things. We ought, with our faith, to look out beyond the most forbidding things that threaten us; for "all things are possible with God, and "to him that believeth."

PERSONALS

We received an excellent letter from Sister Mrs. Mary H. Frizzle, of Truro, N.S. She is now confined to her bed much of the time, but her soul is enjoying the triumphs of "Joy unspeakable and full of glory." She is much in love with our missionary work in Africa and supports Samuel as her native worker. There is a really happy company of people "whose joys are immortal" scattered about, who have well grounded hope, who by diligence are making their "calling and election sure." They are most beautiful people to know, and are very highly esteemed by all "those of like precious faith." Sister Frizzle is one of this blessed company.—S. A. B.

We are always glad to hear from old friends and especially those who were among the early believers in the doctrine of entire sanctification. We are very glad to learn of the faith of those who have experienced the wondrous grace of full salvation in the early days of the holiness movement and who are yet enjoying the blessings. Among those is our aged friend and brother, G. G. Gray, of Hartland, N. B. We are sorry to learn that his health is poor, but much pleased that his trust is in God and that the precious blood of Jesus is all his plea and is his ground of hope for the future. Praise the Lord!

Mrs. S. A. Baker has been confined to her home through weakness of body. She is gradually regaining strength and we trust she will soon be able to be about as usual.

TO THE READERS OF THE HIGHWAY:

Greeting:

On the 24th of April, Rev. S. A. Baker will celebrate his 71st birthday. For many years he has been a self sacrificing, hard working servant of the Lord. All who know him appreciate that fact. He served as editor and business manager of the Highway for eighteen (18) years with small remuneration. He has also been active in connection with the general missionary society in the position of treasurer for many years. His interest has never waned in seeking for the success and development of our camp grounds at Beulah, N. B., and Riverside, Me. We are sure our brother has made many friends during these years of faithful service. We now suggest that you show to him your appreciation by sending a birthday greeting enclosing an offering. Let us give him the flowers while he can enjoy their fragrance. What do you say? I hear a multitude say, Amen! His address is Moncton, N. B.

NOTICE.

We wish to sincerely thank those of our subscribers who have sent in their renewals to the Highway. But will others kindly examine the label on their Highway and find out what they owe? The subscriptions are supposed to be paid in advance.

"The Bible is just as clearly an advocate of holiness as it ever was. St. Paul says, 'Follow peace with all men, and holiness without which no man shall see the Lord.' St. John in concluding his writings said, 'He that is unjust, let him be unjust still; and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still; he that is righteous let him be righteous still; and he that is holy, let him be holy still.'"

According to the above-mentioned passages, our condition in eternity will depend much upon our condition here. According to the New Testament teaching, heaven is not a place of purification, but a place where the purified shall abide forever.

John Wesley said to his ministers, "If others grow weary in proclaiming holiness, do you supply that lack. Preach it explicitly. Preach it persistently."

As holiness is the grand object of the whole Christian system, can we clear our skirts before God if we do not endeavor to lift the standard where the scriptures place it?"—Sel.
