

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

The Church at Fort Fairfield, Me., will begin special services on Sunday, Nov. 2nd. The pastor, Rev. C. S. Hilyard, will be assisted by Evangelist Rev. H. S. Mullen, of Perth, N. B. The meetings will continue over three Sundays.

Rev. W. E. Smith preached Sunday, Oct. 19th, at Norton in the morning, Mercer in the afternoon and Head of Millstream in the evening. He reports good interest in the work.

One member was received into church fellowship at Westchester, N. S., by Rev. A. H. Trafton on Sunday, Oct. 12th.

Rev. Mrs. I. F. Keirstead supplied for the Moncton Church three Sundays, Oct. 12th, 19th and 26th. She also assisted Sister Baker in caring for Brother S. A. Baker during his recent illness.

We are glad to report that Rev. S. A. Baker has so far recovered from his recent illness that he is able to sit up and expects as soon as he is able to go with Mrs. Baker to North Head, Grand Manan.

The boys returning report a great time at the convention of the Praying Bands at Hartland. Five seekers were at the altar Sunday night. We hope for a fuller report later.

We trust the brethren and sisters will remember the anniversary meeting at Woodstock on Nov. 3rd. Let us pray for a great time in the Lord.

HIGHWAY SUPPLEMENTARY FUND.

Dear brothers and sisters of the holiness cause, we are grateful to you for the assistance you have rendered in the past to keep The King's Highway the clean preacher of holiness that it is. We are looking to you to keep this important branch of the work on your hearts, this fund should be increased. Please let us hear from you. Everyone should give a little. Send your offering by money order or postal note to the Editor.

Mrs. Wallace Mitchell .....$5.00
P. J. TRAFTON.
233 Aberdeen St., Fredericton, N. B.

We wonder sometimes if some people ever will learn that they can and do grieve the Spirit with mere self-started, self-propelled human commotion, until a meeting becomes dry, convictionless, and fruitless—almost a sounding brass and a tinkling cymbal.

PERSONALS

NOTE.

We want all the news items you can send us in connection with the work in the different churches. We want our own brethren and sisters to send their testimonies and to write articles and sermons for the Highway. Write plainly and on one side of the paper only. Let us hear from you.—Editor.

OBITUARY

W. J. Richardson.

The death of Capt. W. J. Richardson occurred at Eastport, Me., on Thursday, Oct. 16th, following a lingering illness. Mr. Richardson was a native of Grand Manan but for a number of years had resided in the U. S. A. He was twice married. His first wife was Miss Jane Daltzell, and his last wife, who survives him, was formerly Miss Kate Ellingwood. He leaves to mourn their loss, besides his widow, three brothers, J. S. Richardson and Chesley Richardson, of Castalia, and Austin Richardson, of Beals, Me. He was a member of the United Baptist Church. His remains were brought to his old home where a largely attended service was held from his brother's residence at Castalia on Sunday afternoon conducted by Rev. H. C. Archer.

Dorion W. Gray

At his home in Lowell, Mass., very suddenly, Oct. 7th, Dorion W. Gray, aged sixty-two years. He leaves to mourn other than his wife, one daughter, Kathleen, at home; his father, G. G. Gray, of Hartland, N. B., one sister, Mrs. Rempel, of Vancouver, B. C., a niece, Miss Eugenie Taylor, of Brookline, Mass., and a nephew, Carleton McLaughlin, of Vancouver, B. C. He visited his father and friends at Hartland on the 23rd of September and was in excellent health. He was well and favourably known in his native country.

The funeral service was held from his home conducted by Rev. Mr. Malcolm. Interment was in Fairvale cemetery.

Our minds were stirred to remembrance that death is to be the last enemy to be overcome, when on Monday morning, Oct. 20th, we were made acquainted with the fact that one of our members, Mrs. William Morrison, had died. She had been a sufferer for a number of years from asthma. It was during one of these attacks on Sunday that a physician was called, and an anaesthetic administered, to relieve her suffering. A deep sleep followed from which she never roused, passing away at 1.30 p. m.

Our sister was an earnest, energetic worker in the church. Her life from a small girl has been a consistent one. Just a week before she died she left her testimony that her all was on the altar. On the following Wednesday evening she told us again of God's saving and keeping power. She was well known by her many friends and neighbors as a Godly woman. Her home ties and care of her children in no way hindered her in her attendance at the services and worship of her Lord. The deceased was 34 years of age and leaves to mourn their loss, besides her husband, four children, Lloyd, Everett Philip and Leslie the youngest but three months old; her parents Mr. and Mrs. Lyman McMillan of Calais; three brothers, Earl, Walter and Harold, of Calais; and a host of friends as was evidenced by the large attendance at the funeral and the floral offerings. We will miss her but our loss is her gain. The funeral service was conducted by the writer at the home. We extend our sympathy to the sorrowing ones.

L. J. SEARS.
