

CORRESPONDENCE.

Centreville, N. B.

Dear Highway:

Just a few lines from this corner of the vineyard. Jesus is very precious to us these days but our prayer is, "O for a closer walk with God." We are pressing the battle for God and holiness to the very best of our ability. We have just closed a two weeks campaign with Brother DeLong of Massachusetts as evangelist. We did not see as great results as we would have liked. However, we feel that we had a very good meeting. The weather was quite inclement all through and the roads here in the country almost impassable. There was a faithful few that came, mud or no mud, and we thank God for them. Surely it is the willing and the obedient that shall eat the fat of the land. There were sixteen forward either to be saved, sanctified or reclaimed. Brother DeLong sure did his part. He fasted and prayed and did some great preaching under the inspiration of the Spirit. We felt sure that his soul was free from the blood of all men about here. After we got through here we went over to Knoxford for an all-day meeting on Thanksgiving and also went over again for meeting on Tuesday night. God wondrously blessed over there and eight more souls were forward. We are looking forward for a still greater time of blessing on this field. We trust this is but a forerunner of that which is to follow. We all enjoyed Sister Bertha DeLong's singing. It is great to see young girls devoting their talents and time to the service of the Lord.

We covet the prayers of all God's people for the work here. God bless you all at home and abroad. Amen!

Dear Brother:

Enclosed you will find a money order for my renewal to the Highway.

I enjoy reading the paper very much.

I can truly say the Blood of Jesus cleanses me from all sin, and I want to keep clean, and ready for the Master's use.

Yours truly,
MRS. ANNIE L. SIMMONS.

Dear Highway:

We feel very grateful to God when we think of His goodness in sparing our life. I am now at home after spending five weeks in the hospital, and am slowly regaining strength and expect to take up the work again before long.

We wish to thank the many friends who so kindly gave of their means to pay our expenses, their kindness is past expressing.

And again we wish to thank our Heavenly Father for His wonderful love, and expect by His help and grace to work harder for His cause and kingdom.

Yours in the Master's service,
PERLEY BRIGGS.

Dear Brother Trafton:

I am enclosing my renewal for the Highway. I have been a reader of it for twenty years and can say it helps one along the Christian journey. It gives one new courage. I praise God for what he has done for me and is able to do if we walk close to his side and are willing to trust. I wish you and the Highway every success.

Your brother in Christ,

W. M. SMITH.

North Devon, N. B.

Dear Brother:

Enclosed find my renewal to the Highway. I would not want to do without it. I always get blessed spiritually from reading its clean pages. My testimony is, I am still in the Lord and enjoying the fulness of the blessing, although I am not enjoying good physical health. I am feeling well in my soul. I trust his richest blessing will be upon you in your work.

Your sister in holiness,

MRS. H. J. COOK.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Please find enclosure for my renewal to the Highway. We thank our Heavenly Father for the degree of health and strength we enjoy, but more for salvation which lightens the burdens of life, and gives rest and peace to the soul. Our services are good. We have been meeting around at the homes for prayer that we might have gracious outpouring of God's spirit. He can take the weak things and confound the mighty. The devil is doing his best to stop everything that is for the saving of precious souls, and the upbuilding of the cause of God. We purpose by the help of God to fight sin and worldliness, and keep victory in our own souls. May the Lord bless you as you send out the Highway far and near. It surely has been a help and comfort to many. I have taken it from the first issue. I would not want to do without it now.

Yours saved and kept,

ANNIE E. MOORES.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Please find enclosed money order for the Highway Fund. Wife and I are proving the promises of God these days along the tithing lines. We keep strict account of all income and pay (not give) God his tenth, or the part that belongeth to him, and I know 90 cents will go further than 100 after God has had what is in reality his. Yes, and $9.00 will go further than $10.00 towards the household needs after God has been paid his rightful part.

Some folks will say what they give and what they sacrifice towards the church and preacher, etc., but listen, my brother, sister, you or I do not give anything, not a miserable little red cent, until first we pay what we owe to God. Ten cents out of every dollar belongs to God, whether potatoes are 70 cents or $7.00 per barrel; whether we are earning 50 cents or $5.00 per day; whether times are hard or easy, unless we pay God what belongs to him, we are robbers. To rob God of his tenth is just as evil as though we robbed a bank, the mail, or a gods establishment. Mal. 3:8-10. Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings. Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation. Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of Hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

Yours for practical religion,

S. A. MULLEN.

Dear Brother:

I am here with my youngest daughter who came to Boston for me. I love the visits of your church paper. I love to read the letters from the mission fields and the friends from the home land. Praise the Lord for all his loving care since my precious husband died. Christian greetings to all the dear ones.

Yours in Jesus' name,

MRS. A. HARTT.

EFFECTS OF FAITH

Faith brings just those blessings in kind and quantity which are made its specific object. If it is pardon, it brings the peace of reconciliation. If it is change of heart it brings regeneration. If it is a perfect cure, it brings, under proper conditions, full redemption, a pure heart, entire sanctification. "Have faith in God." It will cancel your guilt, disburden your soul, put a new song in your mouth and give you "beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness."

"Have faith in God." It will bring the cleansing blood and the quickening spirit into contact with thy heart. It will deliver you from sin and all that frets and wastes and burns and rankles and festers and ulcerates within. It will put your soul at rest in God—a rest that no storms can break. "Though the earth be removed and the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea, and the waters roar and be troubled, and the mountains shake with the swelling thereof." Yet within is a river, "the streams whereof make glad the city of God."

"Have faith in God." It will graft you into Jesus and send back His life-currents into all the avenues, channels and capacities of your being.

"Have faith in God," and it will give you to be rooted and grounded in love, and energize the forces of your nature with invisible stability.

Have faith in God, and it will lift you above the world, above its tumult and strife, above its sordid pursuits and dissipations, above its sins, sorrows and debasements; and, finally, it will send you "sweeping through the gates, washed in the blood of the Lamb." And there it will leave you to singing on and on forever, "unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood. . . . to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever."

—(From Possibilities of Grace).

"Our yesterdays follow us; they constitute our life, and they give character and force and meaning to our present deeds."
