

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

Rev. S. H. Clark is very sick at his home.

Rev. H. S. Dow will supply the Millville Circuit on Sunday, Dec. 20th.

Rev. H. C. Mullen will begin special services early in the new year. He has engaged Rev. W. E. Smith, of West Somerville, Mass., as evangelist. He reports the general outlook of the work as encouraging.

The Church building at Marysville has been neatly refinished on the interior.

The church building at Seal Cove has been papered and painted on the inside recently.

The work in the Church at Wood Island is going on well. Lic. Percy Green, of that place, will be open for a call after the 15th of January, 1926.

Rev. Mrs. I. M. Kierstead supplied in St. John Sunday, Dec 6th, in the absence of the pastor.

Rev P. J. Trafton, of St. John, N. B., and Lic Hollis Kimball, of Fort Fairfield, Me., were associated with Rev. W. W. Howe, pastor of the Moncton Church in the quarterly meeting, Dec. 3-6.

The ministers attending the quarterly meeting at Marysville to assist the pastor, Rev. H. S. Dow, were Rev. I F. Kierstead, Fredericton; Rev. E W Lester, Hartland; and Rev F. T. Wright, Woodstock.

Rev. H. S. Mullen reports the work as going good. He preaches at Royalton, Knoxford and Wicklow. He expects to hold special meetings at Summerfield in the near future. One soul professed to be sanctified on Sunday, Nov. 29th.

Four souls prayed through to victory on Sunday night, Nov. 29th, in the St. John Church.

A FAREWELL.

On the evening of December 2nd a number of members of the Reformed Baptist Church and Sunday School, Lower Brighton, met at the home of Mrs. George Nixon. A pleasant time was enjoyed in conversation and music. Refreshments were served, after which, on behalf of those present, Mrs. B. W. Brown in a few well-chosen words expressing appreciation of the faithfulness and help, and regret of their leaving, presented Mrs. Nixon and her daughter, Miss Edith, with a purse of money as a small token of regard and good wishes.

Mrs. Nixon, though taken by surprise, feelingly replied, and with prayer the meeting closed.

Mrs. Nixon and Miss Edith left on Dec. 3rd, and for a time will make their home with her daughter, Mrs. Guy Downey, at Woodstock.

QUARTERLY MEETING

Report of Churches:

North Head—We can report our services going on without a break. Our pastor, Rev. H. C. Archer, is faithful in his preaching, and does not fail in giving us the truth. The Sunday School is held regularly, and the missionary interest is maintained. Through the efforts in the different branches we pray that some will be led to accept the Saviour.

Calais—The Lord is pouring His blessing upon us as a church. Since last quarterly meeting there have been three at the altar, one seeking pardon and two reclaimed. Our meetings are good and deep conviction is on the people. Our pastor, Rev. L. J. Sears, has been holding special meetings at Charlotte at which there were 23 converted and 7 baptized. The work there is very encouraging. ew are trusting the Lord for still greater victory.

Wood Island—We have nothing special to report since our last quarterly meeting, but are still looking to the Lord for victory. Our meetings are not very well attended, but the Lord meets with us. The interest in the Sunday School is good, and one soul came back to the Lord last Sunday evening.

Seal Cove—Verbal report.

The work going on fairly well. Sunday School good with about 90 in attendance. The interest in the missionary work not what it should be. Our pastor is giving us the truth, and preaching the gospel in its fulness. The prayer meetings are not as well attended as we would like to see them, but we believe and trust God to pour out this Spirit upon us in a gracious revival.

Beals—Verbal report.

The work is in a flourishing condition, the interest is very good and the prayer meetings are seasons of blessing. The work at Alleys Bay is going on good.

Jonesport—Verbal report.

The work going on as usual. Brother S. A. Mullin, pastor, preached at Jonesport four afternoons and four people gave their hearts to the Lord, but being unable to attend any more services there, the work is not going on now.

Pembroke—No report.

We regret that Brother T. W. Moses was unable to attend this quarterly meeting on account of ill-health, but it is our prayer that the dear Lord may richly bless him in his declining days.

Moved and seconded that the Quarterly Meeting extend to Rev. T. W. Moses their sympathy in his late bereavement.

The next Quarterly Meeting was invited to meet with the church at Wood Island, to be held in March.

Moved and seconded the Quarterly Meeting accept the invitation of the Wood Island Church.

Moved and seconded: We accept the invitation of the United Baptist Church, and send in a preacher to supply Sunday evening.

Moved and seconded: We extend a vote of thanks to the Seal Cove Church for their entertainment.

Preaching Saturday evening by Rev. H. C. Archer, his text being found in Acts, 2nd Chapter, verse 38.

Sunday morning a love feast at 9.30 was led by Rue N. Ingalls, who read as a Scripture lesson, 1st Thessalonians, 5th Chapter, after which there was a goodly number of testimonies given.

Preaching service Sunday morning at 10.30. Rev. Leslie Sears being the speaker. His text was found in Zech. 14th chapter, verse 20.

Sabbath School held at 2 p. m. Preaching service held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, preaching by Lic. F. A. Watson, his text being found in the 17th Chapter of Acts, verses 32, 33, 34.

The last meeting of the Quarterly Meeting was held Sunday evening, beginning at 7 o'clock. This service was led by Lic. Stillman Mullin, who preached from the 16th Chapter of St. John, verses 7, 8, 9, 10, 11. This service closed with prayers and testimony, and it surely was a great blessing to all.

The meetings all through were seasons of blessing, and the sermons were all inspiring and helpful, but our hearts were saddened by the shooting accident, which caused the death of Lic. Percy Green's son, which occurred Saturday evening, Dec. 5th. We extend to the bereaved parents and family our sincere sympathy in the loss of their loved one, and pray that the God of all Comfort may be their stay in the hours of sorrow.

SECY. MRS. RUE N. INGALLS.
