Dear Friends: Aug. 20th, 1925

We, with you, mourn the loss of our Brother Baker. He was among those who said, as they bid us good-bye in St. John Church just before we sailed from home the first time for this dark land.

"We will hold the ropes as you go down." So many of those dear friends have loosened their hold, as their hands have clasped those of others in Heaven. But Jesus remains. "Lo I am with you always, etc., is so true and blessed. He cannot fail.

Brother Baker was to me like a father. Our acquaintance began when, in my girlhood, Sister Pierce and I helped him on Grand Manan, among his churches and how much I learned then from him!

He has been so staunch and true a friend of our foreign work that I can never tell you just quite all it has meant to us during these last nearly twenty-four years. His was a faithful life and I am reminded of a voice that said: "Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life." That crown is his, praise the Lord!

Since last I wrote to you that headman at Bucuș has given himself up to the Lord as a seeker and seems so in earnest. Please pray for him. It means so much for a man in his position to leave all and follow Jesus. He has five wives, twelve children, all of whom he is anxious to have taught the "way of life."

Tren we learn this section has a chance for expansion. There are many heathen villages that can be reached from there. Heathen never seemed to care so much to have people come and pray with them as now, nor so interested about their souls. Truly God is working all over the land and we are striving to meet the need as best we can.

Please continue to pray much for my second visit across Pongola which I hope to commence in about a week from now. Yours in Jesus, MRS. H. C. SANDERS.
