

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. I. F. Keirstead, during the late winter and spring, has held meetings at Knowlesville, Juniper, East Knowlesville, Gordonsville, Upper Wicklow and Beachwood; at Upper Wicklow and Beachwood he was assisted by Brother Earl Forman.

Rev. E. W. Lester began special meetings at Lower Brighton on Sunday, May 10th, to continue indefinitely. He is being assisted by Brother Frank Watson, of Woodstock.

Rev. L. J. Alley is continuing the special meetings at Woodstock. Rev. C. S. Hilyard went home on May 2nd. Since that time Licentiate Fraser Dunlap, of E. N. C., has been the preacher. Souls have been helped and they are trusting for larger victories.

Rev. H. S. Mullen finished his work with Rev. H. S. Clark at Crystal. He was home from May 5th to 9th. He began special meetings with Rev. H. S. Clark at Belvedere on the 10th to continue indefinitely.

Rev. Perley Briggs had baptism at Greenbush, Sunday, May 3rd.

Rev. I. F. Keirstead baptized seven happy converts at Upper Wicklow on Sunday, the 26th of April, the result of special meetings held by himself and Brother Earl Forman.

ROOMS AT BEULAH.

Anyone wishing to secure rooms for Camp Meeting of 1925, July 3-12, can communicate with the following brethren who are the members of the committee: Riverside Dormitory, Rev. H. C. Mullen, Beals, Me.; Cedardale Dormitory, Lic. Leslie Sears, 192 North St., Milltown, Me.; New Hotel, Rev. Perley Briggs, Meductic N. B.

QUARTERLY MEETING.

The quarterly meeting for District No. 1 will meet with the church at Belvedere, Maine. This church has kindly invited us to bring the quarterly meeting there, and there should be a large number of delegates plan to attend. Belvedere is situated near Island Falls, which is some 20 miles south of Houlton on the Bangor and Aroostook railroad. Delegates going by train will notify Rev. S. H. Clark, whose address is Island Falls, Maine, and he will meet them at the train there. The date of the meeting is May 28-31. The date is somewhat earlier on account of those who have to be away to get Beulah in readiness for the Camp Meeting and Alliance.

B. M. COLPITTS, Secretary.

"If one can grow spiritually without daily prayer, one can grow physically without daily food."

"So far as we recall, no text refers to the resurrection without connecting it with Christ's coming again."

Mrs. H. S. Dow	5.00
Annie Cronkhite	5.00

NOTE.

The next issue will be camp meeting number. I would like the names of those in our churches who attended the first camp meeting at Beulah. Please send me your names and address.

We need your help at this time. Send in your renewal.

Do not forget the denominational funds. The year will soon be closed, respond at once.

We trust that you are all planning for Alliance and Camp Meeting at Beulah. The churches should see that delegates are present at the Alliance, each church is entitled to send two delegates, mission societies one delegate.

A PANTRY SHOWER.

We want to acknowledge the kindness of the people of Marysville again in supplying our temporal needs. One evening recently fully sixty members of the church and congregation assembled at the parsonage and surprised and delighted us by giving us what they called "A pantry shower." Well, that was a very refreshing shower indeed for included in it were most all kinds of good things to eat for which we were very grateful to these kind hearted people. The evening was spent in singing gospel hymns and in social conversation. Refreshments were also served by the sisters and prayer was offered by the pastor before the company left for their homes.

Signed—REV. and MRS. H. S. DOW.
