Dear King's Highway:

I have joined my Canada cousins sure. A long way from my dear friends in Maine and New Washburn; blessed memories flood my soul, of my year as his neighbor. I am delighted to get your beautiful paper. Love to hear from the missions in South Africa. We are in a tremendous revival; mighty outpouring of the spirit in this vast city of 250,000 scattered over these hills, bays, rivers, for many miles. Called to his help by my own son, H. B. Taylor, last December. The past twelve months has seen the old time power of Pentecost. The year of jubilee has come. Glory to God. Meetings of 10,000 people inside arena, rink, and as many more waiting to get in. March 8th big tent opened and 1600 packed in and hundreds awakened; seekers by the scores at the altar. God bless your noble work.

B. S. TAYLOR, Evangelist.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Enclosed find money for the Highway of the Church to state the marriage. The Lord is my refuge and strength. He blesses and keeps me each day. In him I trust.

MRS. ALICE L. WEADE.

Dear Brother:

Enclosed please find renewal for Highway. I surely enjoy reading it and my testimony this morning is the Blood has never lost its power and that the nearer we keep to God in prayer and supplication the more he reveals himself to us. May God bless us all and keep us faithful. His promise, be thou faithful until death and I will give thee the crown of life.

Your sister in Christ,

MRS. W. L. PURVIS.

P. S.—Brother C. R. Hagerman wishes to acknowledge twelve ($12.00) dollars, which he received Christmas time.—B.J.

Dear Brother Trafton:

It has been some time since I reported through the Highway of the work here in this part of the field.

We have had revival meetings in both Wood Island and Seal Cove Churches.

Brother Percy Green assisted me at Wood Island and did part of the preaching. God honored the Word and about fifteen claimed victory. Brother Greene is a preacher with a passion for souls. We bespeak for him a fruitful ministry in the days to come. These meetings closed at Wood Island, March 5th. Then we began meetings at Seal Cove on Mar. 8th and continued until April 5th, with Evangelist H. S. Mullen. This was another hard battle. Brother Mullen was faithful in the presentation of the truth and as a result about thirty claimed victory during these services. Brother Mullen's messages were helpful to saint and sinner. The crowds were large that attended. Some times the house was filled to overflowing. Mrs. H. S. Mullen also assisted in singing and preaching. God honored her messages too. After seven and a half weeks of special meetings we feel encouraged to press the battle against sin.

Our prayer meetings are well attended and we thank God for the privilege of preaching to a good large audience every Sunday evening.

We are looking forward to the Beulah Camp Meetings and hope to meet a number of the Highway readers there. May God's blessing be upon you and your work.

Yours in the Master's service,

HARTLEY E. MULLEN.

Rev. S. A. Baker,

North Head, N. B.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Westchester Church held a public missionary service on Friday evening, April 3rd. Although the weather was not favorable, the service was well attended.

The meeting was opened by singing, scripture reading and prayer. The reading of minutes was followed by a missionary service of readings and singing. A spiritual freedom prevailed and the Holy Spirit honored the service throughout.

An offering of $10.32 was received for foreign missions, and I enclose P. O. Order for this amount. We are pleased to see that God is blessing the work of our missionaries by a revival in Africa.

Yours in His service,

MRS. BERTHA FLEMMING,

Treasurer.

OBITUARY.

Henry Lewis

At the advanced age of 83 years, Henry Lewis, of Danvers, passed away after a lingering illness, on April 4th. Mr. Lewis leaves a family of nine children to mourn their loss. Mrs. Lewis passed on merely a year ago. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. L. T. Sabine on Tuesday following. Interment was made in Southville in the family lot.

Arthur Caldwell

The community was indeed saddened when it was learned that Arthur, the only living son of Mr. and Mrs. Manzer Caldwell, of Bristol, N. B., had passed away after an illness of only one week's duration at the age of 15 years and ten months, March 14th, 1925. He was kindly and cheerful in his disposition which won for him a host of friends. Besides his parents he is survived by one sister, Alberta. His only brother died on Christmas Day, 1918.

A memorial service was held in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday, April 12, at 2.30 p. m. A very large congregation assembled to show their respect for this promising boy departed, and sympathy with the sorrowing ones. The choir sang some beautiful selections and Rev. E. W. Lester, of Hartland, N. B., preached an appropriate sermon. To the bereaved ones we extend our heartfelt sympathy.—P.J.T.

THE "FOREIGN FIELD" IN OUR MIDST.

Is it not possible that some missionary societies are so much occupied in sewing or raising money for "Foreign Fields" as to lose sight of the fact that the "Foreign Field" is frequently right in our midst? That just around the corner is a Christian Church, the members of which are citizens of the very land for which they are working, that is struggling against obstacles, and is in need of their help right here? Are we helping the missionaries sent abroad if we neglect the natives of the lands they are sent to, who are here amongst us? Do not many people lose sight of the fact that today there are, living next door to them, people who fifty or even twenty-five years ago were separated from them by continents and oceans?

Valuable missionary work may be done in one's own home by opening the door and giving friendship to the women from distant lands who are eager to learn the best of the strange new country to which they have come, and to whom friendship is both a pleasure and a privilege.—The Missionary Review of the World.

THE WORLD AND THE CHURCH.

With but a single hope

The world is in a lurch;

That one and only hope,

Is in a Christ-like Church.
