BIRTHDAY SURPRISE.

The members of the church and congregation and friends gave Rev. P. J. and Mrs. Trafton, of Fredericton, a grand surprise at the parsonage on Thursday night, April 23rd, the occasion being the 55th birthday of Mr. Trafton. They came and took possession and it was a delightful evening spent in Christian fellowship. A programme of instrumental and vocal music interspersed with readings, closing with a speech by Mr. C. N. Goodspeed, who presented the pastor with an envelope containing a dollar for each year of his age. Mrs. Bangs presented Mrs. Trafton with a bouquet of carnations and some money as well. The pastor and wife tried to express their appreciation in short speeches, but words fail to express the degree of thankfulness to these kind and noble friends. Refreshments were served by the ladies, then the birthday cake was presented after which all joined in singing and the pastor offered prayer, then the friends departed wishing us many happy returns of the day. Another pleasant surprise of the evening was the presence of Sisters Mrs. L. A. Morrell and Mrs. Robert Barr, who have been confined to their homes for some months through illness.

HIGHWAY SUPPLEMENTARY FUND.

We are thankful to the brothers and sisters for their response in support of this fund. We trust that all who pledged will send in the amounts as soon as possible, and that others will also respond as we would like this fund to reach one thousand dollars this year. Help us do it. Thanks.

BIRTHDAY GATHERING

A very pleasant surprise was given Mrs. H. C. Archer at North Head on the evening of April 14th, it being her birthday, when the members of the Ruth Class came to the parsonage and after spending the time very pleasantly together, Mrs. Thomas Nores, teacher of the class, read to Mrs. Archer a poem which had been composed especially for the occasion, by one of the members, and also presented her with a beautiful silk scarf and other gifts. Mrs. Archer although taken completely by surprise, in a few well chosen words expressed her thanks for their kind remembrance.

A slender acquaintance with the world must convince every man that actions, not words, are the true criterion of the attachment of friends; and that the most liberal professions of good will are very far from being the surest marks of it.— George Washington.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Island Falls, Maine.

Dear Highway: Since my last writing I have had the privilege of holding evangelistic services with Brothers Archer and Mullen on Grand Manan Island. It was my first time with those brethren and I must say we had a good time. I enjoyed working with them both. I found them real brethren indeed. I shall look forward to the time when I shall be with them again. The Lord was with us in both meetings. I felt that we had good meetings. There were a goodly number forward at both places. We are now at Crystal, Maine, assisting Brother Clark began here last Sunday, the 19th. Several have been forward thus far and we are looking to God to give us many more. We expect to be here over the first Sunday in May. From here we go to Belvedere, another church on this same field. Pray for us, dear readers.

Yours for souls, H. S. MULLEN.
