

and red ochre they have a dark rich red tone very becoming, and their men think a great deal of their wives' top-knots. Thus, when they become Christians and wash their head, demolishing this dome and sacrificing their "crown of glory," it is really a serious step in the eyes of all, and perhaps never taken without the husband's consent. So the false news in her letter certainly will give poor Sikumba a great shock.

Pray much and often for these poor people who all their life-time are subject to bondage through fear of death.

Yours for Africa and for souls,
FAITH SANDERS.

OBITUARY.

Rev. W. W. Howe

Rev. Willmott W. Howe was born at Norton, Kings Co., July 2nd, 1870, where he lived for twenty-one years, removing to Saint John thirty-five years ago. On Nov. 9th, 1887, he was united in marriage to Angeline Colpitts, of Parleeville, Kings Co. To this union five children were born, all of whom survive. He was converted in a revival held at Mercer Settlement, when 17 years of age and one year later was sanctified wholly under the labors of the late Rev. A. Hartt. He was a charter member of the Reformed Baptist Church in Saint John. He felt the call to preach soon after his sanctification, but did not enter upon the work definitely till fifteen years ago. He was ordained at Beulah Camp Ground at the session of the Alliance in June, 1913, and since that time his has been an active ministry. Many will rise up in the last day to call him blessed. He was a success both as a pastor and evangelist. His sympathetic nature drew to him a host of friends. He was fearless in his denunciation of sin and a strong exponent of the two works of grace—Justification and Sanctification. He had been in failing health for some months past, but did not consult a physician till early in this year, when it was found he had high blood pressure and other ailments. He took a short rest, but could not content himself out of the active work. He has been pastor of the Church at Moncton the past year and was held in very high esteem, as testified by the large number from that church attending the funeral. His death took place at the Head of Millstream, where he was in attendance at the Quarterly Meeting. He was in the Friday night service, May 28th, and offered prayer at the opening and gave his testimony at the close. Little did we think that it would be the last testimony we would ever hear him give, it rang clear and definite to the cleansing and keping power of Jesus Christ. He was stricken that night about midnight and passed away the next day at 11.10 a. m. The remains were brought to his home in Saint John accompanied by Kenneth Northrup, that evening. The funeral service was held at the home Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the writer officiating, assisted by Rev. G. B. Trafton, of Saint John, and Rev. H. S. Dow, of Marysville. A very large number of friends were in attendance, some coming from long distance. The floral tributes were numerous and spoke in mute language of his worth. He leaves to mourn their loss his widow, two sons, Willmott T. and Samuel L.; three daughters, Effie M., Mrs. Willa E. Parks and Eva R., all of Saint John; two brothers, James L., of Saint John, and Charles W., of Norton. A large family of the saints deeply mourn the passing of our brother. He had a host of friends. To the sorrowing widow and children we extend our deepest sympathy.

Servant of God, well done!

Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last.

P. J. TRAFTON.

Mrs. Edgar Bartley

"It is appointed unto man once to die," and we are again reminded of the same. About noon June 1, Mrs. Edgar Bartley departed this life. She was sixty-five years and seven months old. She had been ill for quite a while and suffered quite a lot but she bore it all very patiently and was fully reconciled to the will of God.

She leaves to mourn their loss, a husband, Mr. Edgar Bartley, of Knoxford, two sons, Rollie and Gaius, of Knoxford, and one son of Upper Wicklow, several grandchildren, besides a host of relatives and friends. The funeral service was held this afternoon, June 2nd, at the Upper Knoxford Baptist Church. Rev. H. S. Mullen officiated, assisted by Rev. Mr. Williams, U. B., and Rev. Mr. Cooper, W. M. The contributions of flowers were beautiful. The remains were laid to rest in the Upper Knoxford cemetery, where they await the trumpet to sound when the dead in Christ shall rise first to meet the Lord in the air. To the bereaved ones we extend our heartfelt sympathy and prayers. God bless them.

Sophronia Mullen

On May 6th at the home of her parents, the Reformed Baptist Church at New Tusket lost a much esteemed member in the person of Sophronia Mullen, age 19.

Sister Mullen had been poorly for a number of years, yet was always cheerful and bore the suffering with much patience, never complaining, and leaves a testimony by her life and exhortation that young people may find satisfying enjoyment in the things of God.

Those feeling the loss of a loved one, yet comforted by her faith in Christ are her parents, Charles and Mrs. Mullen, two brothers, Lloyd and Earl, two sisters, Mrs. Harold Mullen and Violetta, all of Easton, and a brother, Elwood, of Boston, also a large number of friends and relatives.

The funeral service was held on Sunday following, conducted by Rev. L. T. Sabine.

As Christians we feel that the successful life is not one of fame in anything of this world, but in finding Christ Jesus as our Saviour, serving him here, and safely gaining the port called Heaven.

Mrs. George Burke

Mrs. George Burke was a resident of Knoxford 49 years, a devoted mother and kind and obliging neighbor and friend to all who knew her, and her Christian character and influence endeared her to all in the Church as well as the community. For years she was a teacher in the S. S. School.
