

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

Rev. I. F. Kierstead supplied at Moncton Sunday, Sept. 19th. He returned home the 21st.

Rev. E. W. Lester attended the quarterly meeting at New Tusket, N. S., Sept. 24th to 26th. On his way home he visited his father at Lower Millstream.

Eugene M. Keirstead supplied at Fredericton in the absence of his mother on Sunday, the 12th. He also supplied for Lic. Stillman Mullen at Marysville Sunday evening, the 19th.

Lic. Stillman Mullen is holding special services at Penniac, N. B. His sister, Hazel Mullen, is assisting him.

Rev. C. S. Hilyard baptized four persons Sunday, the 19th. He has received three into church membership lately.

Lic. Hollis Kimball is open for calls to assist any church or pastor in the work.

Eugene M. Kierstead has received a call to supply the Moncton Church for the balance of the year. He also will attend Mount Allison College.

Rev. F. T. Wright supplied for Rev. E. W. Lester at Woodstock, Sunday, Sept. 26th.

Rev. H. S. Mullen reports the work as encouraging on the Royalton circuit, good congregations, several have been at the altar of late and others stood for prayers.

A special offering was taken in the Reformed Baptist Church, Saint John, Sunday evening, Sept. 26th, for the Protestant Orphans' Home.

MARITIME SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION (Eighth Annual)

Convention Church—United Baptist. Pastor, Rev. P. R. Hayden.

Entertainment—Harvard Plan (bed and breakfast provided free). Other meals specially provided at fifty cents each.

Transportation—Special rates—fare and two fifths return. Buy a single ticket and secure a Standard Certificate with each ticket bought.

Visiting Speakers—Mr. Robt. Davids, International Council of Religious Education, Chicago, Ill., Dr. J. C. Robertson, Religious Education Council of Canada, Toronto.

Specialization—There will be something of special value for every worker. Children's Work—Miss Annie E. Harris.

Teen Age Boys'—Rev. Waldo C. Machum.

Teen Age Girls'—Miss Marjorie Trotter.

Young People'—Rev. F. M. Milligan.

Administration—Mr. Robt. Davids.

Registration—All delegates should send their names not later than October 15th to Rev. A. D. MacKinnon, Bridgetown, N. S.

Registration fee $1.00, payable on arrival at convention.

GENERAL MISSIONARY FUND.

Gray's Mills Missionary Society.....	$20.00
Avery E. Beals	100.00
Mrs. D. F. Alexander	100.00
John Baker	2.00
Mrs. Minnie Morgan	1.50

I. F. KEIRSTEAD.
233 Aberdeen St., Fredericton, N. B.

PERSONALS

Mrs. S. H. Shaw, of Hartland, was at the quarterly meeting at Millville part of the time. Mrs. Robert Barr, Mrs. Mary Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Hanford McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Peterson and family and Thomas Loft, of Fredericton, were at the quarterly meeting at Millville.

Mrs. Mary Nixon, of Woodstock, was in St. John the week end, Sept. 18th. She was the guest of Rev. and Mrs. G. B. Trafton. Her daughter, Clara, who is a nurse in training in the Saint John Public Hospital, underwent an operation on the 23rd.

Mr. Orison Estey, who was so badly injured when his automobile was struck by the train, is slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Ingersoll, accompanied by Percy Minue, of Saint John, spent the week end, Sept. 18th, at Marysville, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mitchell.

Wm. K. Trafton spent the week end, Sept. 18th, at Marysville.

Misses Helen and Harriett Grant of Saint John, spent the week at their home in Penniac, York Co., Sept. 18th. Miss Ruth, who had been spending a few weeks with her sisters, returned home. Miss Harriett will spend her vacation at her home.

Alfred H. Trafton, son of Rev. P. J. and Mrs. Trafton, is now in Minneapolis, Minn.

Howard P. Cogswell and family will soon move into a house that is now being built near the Canadian Pacific Railway Station there by the Aroostook Moulding Company, for which concern Mr. Cogswell will work in the future. Our people are sorry to have Mr. Cogswell and family move from our midst.—Fort Fairfield Review.

Albert H. Kinney, who had visited several weeks in Amesbury, Mass., also at Pittsfield, with his uncles, George W. and Harry E. Kinney, arrived home some days ago.—F. F. Review.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Kimball, Mrs. Annile Higgins accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Otis Ames in their car to the quarterly meeting at Millville.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Ingersoll and son went to Grand Manan on Friday, Sept. 24th, returning on Monday. They visited Mr. Ingersoll home.

T. W. Prince and daughter, of Saint John, took a two weeks' trip to Toronto and Windsor, Ont., recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Kimball will spend the winter in Florida with their daughter, Mrs. Roy Kinney.

The church at Fort Fairfield will put a new foundation under their building soon.

A. L. Bubar spent Sunday, Sept. 19th, at Beulah Camp.

CARD OF THANKS!

We, the husband, father and mother, brothers and sisters, wish hereby to express our sincere thankfulness for the many kindnesses shown us during the illness and recent death of our beloved one, Odalie.

JESSE RANDALL, MR. AND MRS.
LORNE WILSON & FAMILY

MARRIED

Moran-Peters

A very pretty wedding took place at the parsonage, Crystal, Me., on the 13th inst., when Mr. Allie G. Moran, of East Hersey, and Miss Clara M. Peters, of Island Falls, Me., were united in marriage by the Rev. S. H. Clark in the presence of a few immediate friends. Mr. Lloyd Wallace supported the groom and Miss Ruth Hosford attended the bride.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Peters, of Island Falls, Maine, in the evening and the large company of friends and many useful presents attested to the popularity of the young couple. All left at an early hour wishing Mr. and Mrs. Moran a happy trip through life.

THE PROCESS OF INTIMATE FRIENDSHIP WITH GOD.

(Continued from Page 5)

taneously any where. What you want is an accomplishment, not a crisis. It is not something that God could give you right off, it is something that requires time and effort and cultivation."

By way of illustration, we said to him, "If you should meet a man out here today you two could not become intimate friends in an instant. You would not go up to this man as soon as you were introduced to and ask him over to dinner tonight, out for a fishing party next week, and to stay all night with you next Saturday evening. You might with your very introduction feel a certain interest in this man and you might feel at once a desire to have him for a friend. But your own heart, as well as his, will require time and tests and association to form a lasting friendship. But you make friends by your very effort to do so. Your regard and your understanding will grow and ripen with time, and after a while you will know and understand your friend so well that you will know just about what he would do under certain circumstances, you will appreciate and trust him more and more and you will find in him the friendship that will satisfy. And it is like this in our lives with God. The joys of conversion and of entire sanctification are introductory and preparatory. But just as Edgar Guest said, 'It takes a lot of living to make a house a home,' so it takes a lot of living to bring on that understanding and sweetness of communion with God that you desire. But you keep on desiring it and praying every day, many times a day for it. You may not see much change in a day, in a week or in a month. But as time passes you will see a change and you will establish a friendship and a fellowship with God that, while never reaching a full climax in this world, will be sweet and blessed and satisfying to a degree that you do not even anticipate. And the fact that on and on even until your dying day you can sing, 'Each day He grows still sweeter than He was the day before' will but add to the satisfaction and blessedness of your wonderful friendship and fellowship with Him." —Herald of Holiness.