

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. F. T. Wright is engaged in special services at Woodstock. He is being assisted by Lic. Hollis Kimball, of Fort Fairfield, and Evangelist L. C. Good, of Monticello, Me. Five were at the altar Sunday night, April 4th.

As a result of the special meetings in Hartland, Rev. E. W. Lester baptized seven and received eleven into church membership. More than 20 were at the altar as seekers.

Rev. Leslie Sears has resigned at Calais. Lic. Ray Hagerman has accepted a call to become their pastor.

Rev. L. T. Sabine has received a call to become pastor of the Millville group of churches.

Rev. P. J. Trafton was in Calais assisting Rev. Leslie Sears Thursday and Friday nights, April 1st and 2nd. A good interest was manifest.

Lic. Percy H. Green has been at Norton for a few weeks. He reports an increasing interest in the work.

Rev. H. C. Archer was on the sick list for two weeks. He was not able to take his work for the 21st and 28th of March. He is now able to go about again.

Rev. H. C. Mullen is holding special services at Two Islands, being assisted by Lic. Stillman Mullen. They are seeing some victory, the meetings are increasing in interest.

Rev. W. W. Howe was not able to go to Moncton for Sunday, April 11th. Let us pray earnestly for his speedy and thorough recovery.

The Church at Beals has given Lic. F. A. Watson a unanimous call to continue as pastor for the coming year.

Lic. Percy Green was in Saint John on Monday and Tuesday, April 12th and 13th on his way home for a short time.

PERSONALS

Mrs. R. L. Allingham, who has been spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. C. King, Saint John, returned to her home in Woodstock, Thursday, April 15.

Mrs. Walter Morrell, of Fredericton, who has been quite seriously ill, has now recovered.

M. S. Trafton arrived in St. John Friday, April 2nd, direct from Los Angeles, Calif.

Mrs. S. H. Shaw, of Hartland, is seriously ill. She says to tell the saints she is nearing the crossing, trusting in Jesus, happy in his love.

Arnold Brown, of Lower Brighton, has gone to Hartland, Conn.

The flu is quite general throughout the Maritimes. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ingersoll and son, Mrs. F. D. Foley, Mrs. Springer Cosman, of St. John, have been on the sick list.

Mrs. Fred Griffin, of Saint John, who underwent a serious operation at the General Public Hospital, is making a rapid recovery.

Percy Minue, of Saint John, spent Easter Sunday and Monday with his mother and sister in Fredericton.

W. R. Carson was at Springhill, N. S., Good Friday, returning home Saturday.

Harold Ingersoll spent the Easter season with friends in Grand Manan and Campbellton. His wife, who has been spending a month at her home, returned to St. John the 12th.

Mr. and Mrs. Abner Hooper, of Moncton, were in Saint John Friday, April 9th. They returned Saturday.

A BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION.

A very pleasant time was spent at the Reformed Baptist parsonage last evening, where about fifty of the church members and friends met to celebrate the birthday of Rev. I. F. Keirstead and his son Karl. Owing to sickness and weather conditions, many were prevented from attending, but sent regrets, and best wishes for many happy returns of the day. The chairman L. A. Morrell, spoke of the many happy occasions they had spent at the parsonage in the past and appreciated this unique occasion of celebrating a double birthday. He made reference to the happy day in Mr. Keirstead's life seventeen years ago when he was presented with a son, born in Africa, and with best wishes for many more happy birthdays from those present and others, he presented Mr. Keirstead with a purse containing over $45 and Karl Keirstead with a beautiful gold pencil, and two pretty birthday cakes. They were taken completely by surprise, and expressed their thanks and appreciation. After an excellent programme, refreshments were served.—Gleaner.

The above speaks for itself. We are very grateful to all the dear ones who helped to make this the happiest birthday of our lives.

MARRIED.

Milley-McNally

At the home of the bride's father, Harry McNally, 300 Union street, Saint John, N. B., Monday evening, at 7 o'clock, Rev. P. J. Trafton united in marriage Gordon Milley and Miss Amy Rose McNally. A few friends of the contracting parties were present. After the ceremony a dainty lunch was served. The happy couple will reside in Saint John.

Beal-Alley

On Feb. 27th at Beals, Maine, Miss Clara A. Beal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Beal, was united in marriage to Clifford R. Alley, of Beals, Maine. The ceremony was performed at the home of Daniel Beal, uncle of the bride, by Lic. F. A. Watson in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

Gould-Alley

The Reformed Baptist Church at Beals, Maine, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on March 20th, when Blanche, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gould, was united in marriage to Jas. Noyes Alley.

The double ring ceremony was used, Lic. F. A. Watson officiating. The bridal party entered the church to the strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. Vinton Beal, piano, and Mr. Avery Beal, violin. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Vernard Gould. Mrs. Avery has lived since infancy in the home of her uncle, Mr. Eli Beal.

WESLEY'S PRAYER FOR LOVE.

Give me the faith that can remove
And sink the mountain to a plain;
Give me the child-like praying love,
Which longs to build Thy house again;
Thy love let it my heart o'erpower,
And all my yearning soul devour.

I would the precious time redeem,
And longer live for this alone,
To spend and to be spent for them
Who have not yet my Saviour known;
And turn them to a pardoning God,
And quench the brands in Jesus' blood.

My talents, gifts and graces, Lord
Into Thy blessed hands receive;
And let me live to preach Thy Word;
And let me to Thy glory live;
My every sacred moment spend
In publishing the sinner's Friend.

Enlarge, inflame, and fill my heart
With boundless charity Divine!
So shall I all my strength exert,
And love them with a zeal like Thine;
And lead them to Thy open side,
The sheep for whom their shepherd died.
