

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. E. W. Lester is holding regular services at Gordonsville on Monday night every two weeks.

Rev. L. J. Alley, who has not been able to get to the work on account of sickness in the family, is now free to take up work again as a supply or evangelist. Write him at Beals, Maine.

Lie. George A. Rogers and Albert Smith, of E. N. C., spent Sunday, Feb. 21st, at Wareham, Mass., holding three services. A number of seekers were at the altar as a result.

In spite of the heavy storms this winter Rev. H. S. Mullen has only missed three services. He reports the work going good. He is improved some in health.

Lie. C. Ray Hagerman, who has been in school for the past five years at E. N. C., Wollaston, Mass., will be ready to take up work at the end of this school year.

Rev. L. T. Sabine will not remain on the New Tuskett, N. S., circuit another year.

Rev. Perley Briggs and wife and children, of Meductic, and Miss Mary Phillips, Green Bush, visited Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Phillips last week on their way to Perth, N. B., to attend the quarterly meeting of the Reformed Baptist Church.

Charles E. Grant conducted the service Sunday morning, March 7th, in the Reformed Baptist Church, and Captain Hiscott, of the Salvation Army, in the evening during the absence of Rev. F. T. Wright, who was attending the quarterly meeting at Perth.

Rev. H. S. Dow and Miss Hazel Mullen are assisting Rev. P. J. Trafton in special meetings.

Rev. W. W. Howe was able to attend several of the services during the quarterly meeting.

The Church at Woodstock has given Rev. F. T. Wright a call to become their pastor for the ensuing year.

Mrs. S. H. Clark has been taken from the hospital in Houlton to her home. She is improving rapidly.

WILL YOU BE FASHIONED?

Piece of clay, are you willing for me to remove you from your natural element, carry you to the pottery, wet, soften, heat, shape, dry and finally, polish you that you may become a useful container?

Sinner, are you willing for Christ to take you from the mire of sin, put you through the melting process, shape, polish and stamp you that you may be a vessel sanctified for the Master's use.

G. A. ROGERS.

Wollaston, Mass.

NOTICE

We will need the usual number of young ladies to act as waitresses at Beulah Hotel during Alliance and Camp Meeting, June 30-July 11. We kindly request that all acting in this capacity shall be modestly attired, reasonably opaque dress material, the sleeves extending down to the elbow at least and the neck of waists reasonably high. We believe this meets your approval as well. Thank you!

None other than those willing to comply with these mild requests need apply.

Address communication to Dev. L. T. Sabine, Havelock, Digby Co., N. S.

BY ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

MARRIED

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cogswell, Fort Fairfield, Maine, Feb. 20, at nine o'clock a. m., was the scene of a happy event when Miss Melvine Mae Cogswell, of this town, and Mr. Miles Willis Hardy, of Island Falls, Me., were united in the bonds of holy matrimony. The happy young couple will reside here for a time. Many pleasant wishes follow them.

PRESENTATION

On Thursday evening, Feb. 25th, a number of the members of the Reformed Baptist Church and congregation met at the home of Rev. P. J. and Mrs. Trafton, 291 1/2 Rockland Road, Saint John, N. B., to bid farewell to their daughter, Miss Emma, who was leaving March 1st to enter the Fraser Memorial Hospital, Fredericton, N. B., as a nurse in training. A very pleasant evening was spent in the singing of hymns, instrumental music and readings. Deacon Harold K. Ingersoll read the following address and presented Miss Trafton with a silk umbrella and purse of money. Miss Trafton was taken somewhat by surprise and in a few words thanked the friends for their kindness shown. Dainty refreshments were served after which the company sang a hymn and retired to their homes.

Saint John, N. B.

Miss Emma Trafton:

Dear Friend: It has come to our knowledge that you are soon to enter into the study of a professional nurse, and as our short acquaintance with you, as a Christian, has endeared you to a great many of us, we thought it fitting and consider it a privilege to gather at your home before you leave, and in some humble way show to you our appreciation of the acquaintance and esteem in which you are highly held by us all. In doing so we wish you to know not all of your friends in the city are here, only just a few.

But the purpose of our coming here is to give you a little expression of our Christian love for you, as a follower of Jesus. We therefore desire to present to you, on behalf of your friends that are here, and those that would like to be here, this little gift.

We trust that many years of usefulness may be added to your young life and that you may be blessed in blessing others.

Signed in behalf of your friends.

HAROLD K. INGERSOLL.

In regeneration, sin does not reign; in sanctification, it does not exist.

In regeneration, sin is suspended; in sanctification, it is destroyed.

In regeneration, irregular desires—anger, pride, unbelief, envy, etc.—are subdued; in sanctification, they are removed.

Regeneration is salvation from the voluntary commission of sin; sanctification is salvation from the being of sin.

Regeneration is the old man bound; sanctification is the old man cast out and spoiled of his goods.

Regeneration is sanctification begun; entire sanctification is the work completed.—Rev. Wm. McDonald.
