

CORRESPONDENCE

Fredericton, N. B.

Dear Highway Friends:

We wish to report victory in our work. Our young men have been winning souls for Jesus in their meetings at Minto, while the home base has been encouraged and blessed in seeing several saved and some wholly sanctified. Praise the Lord. We have greatly enjoyed having Sister Faith with us again. At the missionary meetings here and at Marysville we had large attendances, and we feel sure that her inspiring messages will bear fruit in the coming days.

Surely we were all made to feel our responsibilities, and are determined to double our diligence in both the home and foreign work in all its different phases. So we are not forgetting the practical work.

The sisters of our Church are making quilts for the proposed new dormitory at Beulah. One is finished; another will be ready to fold away this week, and still another in the making. We expect to be real busy this winter, want to meet about every two weeks to work, and aspire to have at least ten to present by spring.

We would like "to stir up pure minds by way of remembrance" in other churches to do likewise. Come now; let's see which of our churches will have the most to their credit. We believe this is the Lord's work, and know he blesses each effort we put forth for His sake. Our prayer and praise service Thanksgiving Day was a season of great blessing to each who attended and we expect to keep on having Thanksgiving Days all the year in our hearts. This is our privilege. "Bless the Lord, oh my soul, and all that is within me, bless and praise His Holy Name." I. M. K.

Dear Highway: Millville, N. B.

We thank you for your kindly regular visits to our home and number them among the many for which we give thanks to our Heavenly Father at this season. The Highway brings a partial visit from so many—even from Africa and all over the continent and occasionally from the British Isles. We humbly trust that all your readers have shared a day of "Thanksgiving" to the Giver of all good.

Since last writing, the kind friends of Millville, including many of the United Baptist Church, met at our home on the evening of October 22nd and after a pleasant time together, presented us with $82.50 in cash, and later on others contributed a few dollars more. Refreshments were enjoyed and a pleasant time in song and prayer. To them all we wish to express our appreciation and thankfulness. Our expenses are quite heavy, but are being nicely met. We thank you.

On Thursday, Oct. 28th, we began special services at Upper Hainesville. Brother H. Kimball joining us on Friday. Some are getting help, one has professed salvation, others to be reclaimed. Brother Kimball went home yesterday but we continue the services till next Sunday anyway.

We are also now enjoying the visit of Sister Faith Sanders, who came on Thursday last and leaves tomorrow for Hartland. Her short stay is proving a blessing to all she meets. She speaks here tonight.

We think the work on the field is looking better as time passes. Help us in prayer for a real refreshing from the Lord.

Yours for Holiness,

L. T. AND MRS. SABINE.

P. S.—We sympathize with the family of Edgar Landers and church at Sandford in their great loss. Yet may we comfort ourselves in Christ.—L. T. S.

Dear Brother:

While reading the report of the quarterly meeting at New Tusket and also the article written by W. E. Smith on the greater works, in the King's Highway, my heart was so stirred I could not help but praise the dear Lord for his goodness to me and for what he has done for me, and that I can say with David in the 40th Psalm 2-3 verses: He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings. And he hath put a new song in my mouth even praise unto our God. I am glad I can sing with the poet:

Jesus comes, he fills my soul,

Perfected in him I am;

I am every whit made whole,

Glory, glory to the Lamb.

I do love to read the King's Highway. I read every word in it, especially the reports from our missionaries in South Africa. They are spiritual food to my soul. I had the privilege of visiting a dear sick sister in Everett the 5th. Her physician says he has done all he can for her, but her faith and hope is strong in the Lord. She is one of the dear saints of God. It does me good to visit such ones. I told her when I was coming away I was going to continue to pray for her that God would touch her body and heal her. I have heard it said somewhere, man's extremity is God's opportunity. There is nothing too hard for our God to do. He says by the mouth of Paul, that he is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us. Eph. 3:20. We read again in I. John 5:14-15. And this is the confidence that we have in him, that if we ask anything according to his will he heareth us; and if we know that he hear us whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him. I ask the Lord every day that he would inspire me to a greater faith and energy in him. Jesus is the same that he was when he walked this old world and went about healing all manner of diseases. Praise his precious name.

Yours in Jesus,

J. C. BENT.

Dear Brother Trafton:

The Lord bless you in your good work. We have an adversary that is after us, but we also have a great God to protect us; he will surely take us through. He is sweet to my soul these days. I am so glad that I know him. I do not have to look back to past experiences, but am having new experiences, so that Jesus is working in me to will and do of his good pleasure, working in me that which is well pleasing in his sight. Glory! The way is not always strewn with roses, but Jesus knows what is best for us and so draws us nearer to himself.

Cayley, Alta.

Dear Brother Trafton:

It has been some time since I wrote you from Bar River, Ont., where Mrs. Brown and I at that time were enjoying fair health, and the presence of the Holy Spirit in our souls, but He thought it best to call my dear wife home to the heavenly rest on the 27th of March. It seemed hard to be reconciled to his will that I should finish the journey alone, but it was not long before I heard that "still small voice" saying, My grace is sufficient for thee, O glory to His name, he is always precious in time of need. I thought it best to return to Cayley, Alta., where I would be near my son and his family. The Lord is keeping me in good health. Praise His name.

Yours truly,

J. H. BROWN

The ladies of the Reformed Baptist Missionary Society held a public meeting in the Church Oct. 22nd. Mrs. Robert Cumming, Vice President, had charge. Meeting opened by singing, I love to tell the story. Scripture reading Ps. 2-8. Rom. 10-13:15. Matt. 28-18:20. Prayer by Chester Cumming and Mrs. Robert Cumming. Seven sisters answered the roll call by scripture verses. A program for the evening was as follows: Recitation by Vera Webb. Song by Gordon, Frank and Jean Doyle. Recitation by Helen Langille; exercise by five girls. Song by several Sunday school children; recitation by Lena Metatall; recitation by Oswald Doyle; singing by eight girls; recitation by Edna Rushton; reading by Mrs. Chester Cumming; recitation by Hilda Doyle; song by four girls; reading by Mrs. Robert Cumming; recitation by Lexina McLean. Meeting closed by singing We'll work till Jesus comes, and prayer by G. C. Doyle. Receipts of the evening, $10.50 for home missions. Special mention might be made of Helen and Jean Doyle in training the children to take such an active part.
