MARRIED

Carr-Lester

The Reformed Baptist parsonage at Woodstock, N. B., was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding on Monday, Oct. 25th, at 2 o'clock, when Helen S. Lester, daughter of Rev. E. W. Lester, and H. Ross Carr, of Hartland, son of Mr. Herbert L. Carr, of Canterbury, N. B., were united in marriage, the ceremony being performed by the bride's father. The bride, wearing a pretty gown of white Georgette over pink satin and carrying a bouquet of ophelia roses, entered the parlor on the arm of Rev. A. P. Gouthey, D.D., B.D., who gave her in marriage and who also offered the nuptial prayer. The wedding march was played by Miss Cora Carr, of Saint John, sister of the groom. Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were guests. After a buffet luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. Carr left by motor for a trip to various points of N. B. and Nova Scotia. They will reside in Hartland, where the groom is a member of the C. P. R. staff. The large number of beautiful gifts received attest the esteem in which the young couple are held.

Haywood-Saunders

At the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Woodstock, N. B., Nov. 3rd, by Rev. E. W. Lester, Miss Edith Saunders and Mr. Leonard Haywood, both of Victoria, N.B.

Hughes-Nickerson

On Nov. 4th, 1926, at the parsonage, Crystal, Maine, Mr. Harry M. Hughes and Miss Gladys H. Nickerson, of Mapleton, were united in marriage by Rev. S. H. Clark. They will reside in Mapleton, Me.

Crawford-Owens

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Owens was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when their daughter, Mary Grace, was united in marriage to Clair William Crawford, both of Royalton, N. B.

The bride was charmingly attired with coral silk crepe-de-chene trimmed in white marabou. She wore a bridal veil, and carried a bouquet of carnations and ferns.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. Harry Owens, sister-in-law of the bride. The bride was given away by her father. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. S. Mullin in the presence of about sixty-five guests. After the ceremony congratulations were given and a sumptuous repast was served.

The many presents exhibited showed the high esteem in which this young couple was held.

The young couple, midst showers of rice, left by auto on their wedding trip. On their return they will reside at Royalton, N. B. Their many friends wish them a long and happy life together.

Dunlop-Buxton

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Free Baptist Church, Madison, Me., Wednesday evening, Oct. 20th, at 8 o'clock when Miss Verna Dunlop became the bride of Harry Buxton, of Anson, Me. The double ring service was used. Rev. P. C. Clark officiating. The bride was very charming in white silk crepe and wore a wedding veil and wreath, carrying a bouquet of bridal roses, entered the church to the strains of a wedding march leaning on the arm of her father. Mr. Henry Dunlop, who gave her away in marriage. Miss Edna Hilton acted as bridesmaid, while the groom was supported by George Jacobs. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dunlop, Madison, Me. The presents were many and beautiful. The out-of-town guests were: Mrs. S. C. Dunlop and Rev. Fraser Dunlop, of Perth, N. B., and Mrs. Perley Briggs, of Meductic, N. B.
