BOARD

$5.00 per week; $1.00 per day.

Dinner 50c.

Breakfast and Supper, 35c.

There is a stove in the laundry for cooking, if any one wishes to board themselves.

MUSIC

Carl I. Parlee, who has been a student at the Bible Training School, Fort Wayne, Ind., will be song leader and musical director. He plays the trombone.

NOTES

Leave everything behind that would distract from the meetings; your worries, excess baggage, cats, dogs and gramophones.

Come prayed up with the glory on our souls. We will need to spend much time in secret prayer with fasting, to be in this condition.

REV. J. B. McBRIDE, Pasadena, Calif.

NOTES

Let us lay ourselves out before God to make this the best camp meeting ever.

We stand for all essentials in God's great plan for mankind.

Beulah Camp Ground can be reached by train, boat or auto. Twenty miles above the city of Saint John on the Saint John River. All river steamers stop at the wharf. The Valley Railway stops at Grand View forty rods back of the grounds. Buy return ticket for convenience.

Fare by steamer D. J. Purdy from Fredericton, $1.50 return, from June 29th to July 14th.
