

CORRESPONDENCE

Gordonsville, N. B.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Enclosed you will find renewal for the Highway.

Brother Lester preaches for us every two weeks we appreciate his coming out very much.

The Saviour is still precious to my soul.

MRS. KENNETH CHOUDY.

Millville, N. B.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Please find enclosed postal note for renewal to the Highway. I enjoy reading it and would not want to be without it in the home.

Your sister in Christ,

MRS. JOHN BLANEY.

Eastern Nazarene College,

Wollaston, Mass.

Dear Highway:

We wish to acknowledge the sum of six dollars which we received from the Students' Fund. We thank all who had a part in the help we have received this year.

Yours in His service,

SEWELL G. HILYARD,

C. RAY HAGERMAN,

G. A. ROGERS.

Maple Ridge, N. B.

Rev. P. J. Trafton,

181 Paradise Row,

St. John, N. B.

Dear Mr. Trafton:

I enclose a Postal Note for which please renew my subscription to the Highway.

Truly, it is a splendid paper. It is so helpful along spiritual lines to all lovers of Holiness. I am glad to count myself among the number.

Sincerely yours,

MRS. R. ALEXANDER BLANEY.

Upper Maugerville, N. B.

Dear Brother Trafton:

You will please find enclosed my renewal for the Highway. I would feel that I was almost entirely cut off from my robbers and sisters if I should be without it. It is about the only medium I have of keeping in touch with the different churches and our ministers. I am not privileged to get to the quarterly meetings or camp meetings, prayer meetings or Sunday school. But this cannot be compared to the soul who has neglected God and his wonderful salvation, who steps out into a never-ending eternity, where he is not shut in from enjoying some of God's extra blessings, but shut out from the presence of God and all his blessings, no prayers are heard there. Oh, the darkness and despair, where there is weeping and gnashing of teeth. The harvest is past. While we may be shut in, let us so live and pray that when we depart this life we will be shut in with God. My only thought is to live for God and gain heaven at last.

Yours in His service,

MRS. RUTH E. NIXON.

Westchester Station

Dear Highway:

It has been some time since you have heard from us down here.

Well we have nothing but good news to report. We are enjoying the blessing of the Lord and trusting for victory. We have no regular minister here but the Lord is good to us. We have visiting servants from time to time for which we praise the Lord. Brother Dunlop feeling it was the Lord's will responded to a call from the church here to visit us, arrived here on April 2nd, beginning services that evening, continuing over two Sundays delivering in all seventeen messages from the word of God. Seventeen heart searching messages which were a great blessing to the people of God. One soul was reclaimed and one seeker at the altar and we believe the seed sown will take root and grow in hearts here.

He faithfully endeavored to show the awfulness of sin and the judgment to come. Brothers and sisters, let us praise God that he has servants that will unsheath the sword of the spirit which is the word of God and proclaim from the house-tops the unsearchable riches of Christ and have never furled the banner of holiness. Let us all unite in prayer for these servants of God that they may be kept here and their labors may bring forth an hundred-fold.

The Lord helps us as a people to stand unmoveable as the rock of Gibraltar for God and for righteousness. May the name of Jesus shine as a beacon light in a dark and benighted world. Praise the Lord.

Your brother in Christ,

CHARLES W. MOORE.

Detroit, Mich.

334 Continental Ave.

Mr. P. J. Trafton:

Dear Friend: I am sending my renewal for the Highway. I am always glad to get it. It keeps me in touch with the dear Christian people. I would not want to do without it. It is the only way I have of knowing what the people that I love are doing. How I would love to meet you all at Beulah, but I don't suppose I will ever be there again. I surely miss the testimonies of the Reformed Baptist people. I surely need the prayers of God's people and I want you and the people to pray for my boys that I will yet see them saved. I realize I am living on borrowed time, but I am trusting the Lord. I have no other one to go to. I surely miss my home friends. I do hope the Lord will save many this year at Beulah. How I would love to meet you all there again. I will think of you and pray that here will be many saved and that through your prayers my family will get saved. We have a nice Sunday School. My class is a class of women, some older than myself and part younger. I like our preacher and his wife.

Yours sincerely,

JANE MAXON.

Eastern Nazarene College,

Wollaston, Mass.

Dear Highway:

I feel led to write a few lines from part of the vineyard. Another school year has nearly passed beyond recall. Time is fleeting so rapidly that one has to spur himself on, if he expects to reach the goal that is set before him.

About a year ago I was preparing for graduation from High School. During the summer I supplied at Brother Clark's Churches.

The way to school did not seem to open until about two weeks before registration day. The Lord seemed to lead me along step by step. In answer to prayer the Lord has helped me at the opportune time and way, for which I thank Him.

I praise Him for the privilege of attending the college this year and for the fellowship I have had with Brothers Hagerman and Rogers. We have fought the same battles in the classroom and I trust we shall fight some battles in the field.

Brother Hagerman is leaving us this year after five years at E. N. C. He will be remembered by the student body of this year by the expression, "I am saturated with the love of God." I believe he will be a great blessing to the church, which has called him for its pastor. I trust that we shall have a goodly number of students from our people next year. A new dormitory is going up this summer to accommodate one hundred girls. The whole gospel is taught in the class-room and from the pulpit. If you come, come expecting a battle with the enemy, and praise His name expecting a year of victory.

As far as I know the will of the Lord, I shall remain in Wollaston this summer. I can cut down expenses and thus be more assured of school this fall.

Twenty-eight busy days and we ask your prayers that God may visit us with victory.

Yours for the Kingdom,

SEWELL G. HILYARD.

St. John, N. B.

Dear Highway:

I thought a few lines from this little corner might be of interest to some of your readers.

As a church we have been going through of late some very severe testings of our faith, occasionally by unsound teaching, and resulting in a divided membership, and finally a loss of some. But we thank the Lord that the little church has stood the testing process and is coming out of this trial bright and shining for Jesus. Brother P. J. Trafton, our pastor, has shown a very kindly spirit to these dear misguided ones, and has endeavored, so far as permitted, to show them their error.

One thing is noteworthy, and that is this: Those who have remained true to the church and true to their covenant, have displayed a strength of faith in God and love for His cause as was not thought possible. So we are glad to inform all the holiness family that we are still living and enjoying the beautiful land of Canaan, having all the rich pomegranates and luscious grapes and ripe figs, and all the milk and wine and oil of the blessed old gospel of full salvation, praise the Lord. The Apostle Paul says: "Tongues shall cease," and they do; but the fruit of Canaan, "faith, hope and love," these three abide. God's trinity of grace—"but the greatest of these is love." He also says—"The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace," etc. These are the graces that build up the Christian character and make it strong to bear burdens for Jesus' sake.

(Continued on Page Seven)