

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Lic. Hollis Kimball, of Fort Fairfield, has gone to Nova Scotia to assist Rev. H. E. Mullen in special services on the Sandford circuit.

Rev. H. E. Mullen will hold special meetings at Port Maitland, N. S., during the month of February. He will be assisted by Lic. Percy Green, of Wood Island.

The readers of the Highway sympathize with Rev. and Mrs. S. H. Clark in their affliction. Brother Clark is now only able to sit up a few minutes each day, and their son, John, has been sick with flu for four weeks, which seems now to have settled in his foot. Let us remember to pray for those in affliction.

Mrs. I. F. Kierstead preached on the Millville circuit Sunday, Jan. 10th, at Maple Ridge in the morning, Hawkins in the afternoon and Millville in the evening.

Rev. H. S. Dow reports the services at Marysville as full of encouragement and real spiritual blessing.

Rev. H. C. Mullen is now engaged in special meetings at Seal Cove. Rev. W. E. Smith, of West Somerville, Mass., is the evangelist.

Rev. H. C. Archer will begin services at North Head, Grand Manan, N. B. Rev. E. H. Post, of Fort Fairfield, N. Y., will be the special worker. The meetings begin Jan. 21st, continuing to Feb. 7th.

Rev. J. B. McBride, of Pasadena, is to be the evangelist at Beulah this summer. Let us begin to pray for the meeting now.

It would be fine if the quarterly meetings were held on different dates. The next meeting of district No. 2 will be in St. John (D. V.) March 4-7. The editor would like if possible to attend the others.

A gentleman called at Rev. E. W. Lester's not long since and left fifty dollars to be devoted to missions. He would not give his name, but God knows. The Highway says "Thank you!" Come again.

STUDENTS' FUND.

As we enter the new year which lies before us let us remember our students who are working their way through school. Every little helps.

NOTES.

A good New Year's resolution: Renew your subscription to the Highway.

We thank you for your hearty co-operation, and would be highly gratified if those in arrears would send in your amounts at once.

In your prosperity do not forget your obligations to God. Our denominational funds need replenishing. Bring in all the tithes and see what God will do.

MARRIED.

Steeves-Mitton

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Mitton, of Lewisville, N. B., was the scene of a happy event on Saturday evening, Dec. 26th, 1925, when their eldest daughter, Gertrude Emma, was united in marriage to Charles Steeves, of Coverdale, Albert Co., N. B., in the presence of 50 guests. The bride was given away by her father, and her sister, Lola, was bridesmaid, while the groom was supported by Ivan Day. The wedding march was played by Miss Lucy Blakney and Miss Freda Mitton, sister of the bride, rendered a solo. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. W. Howe, pastor of the Reformed Baptist Church of Moncton, after which a nice luncheon was served. The bride received many useful and valuable gifts. After a short wedding trip the happy couple will reside in Coverdale.

A LOVING MESSAGE.

Love has a hem of its garment
That touches the very dust;
It can reach the stains in the streets
and lanes,
And because it can it must.
It dares not rest on the mountains,
It is bound to come to the vale;
For it cannot find its fulness of mind
Till it falls on the lives that fail.

Maugerville, N. B.

I wish to acknowledge with grateful thanks many tokens of good-will from the sisters of the Fredericton church at the Christmas season, for myself and family which we appreciate more than we have words to express. And pray that the Lord will richly bless them in return for all their kindness.

MRS. DOLPH NIXON.

The best way to have peace on earth is for each individual to be at peace with God.
