Humility, the place of entire dependence on God, is, from the very nature of things, the first duty and the highest virtue of the creature, and the root of every virtue. And so pride, or the loss of this humility, is the root of every sin and evil.—Andrew Murray.

DONATIONS AT PORT MAITLAND.

On Friday evening, Oct. 22nd, we were taken by surprise when a number of the friends from Sanford and Port Maitland came to spend the evening with us at the parsonage. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all. We also had the pleasure of having Sister Faith Sanders present on this occasion.

The evening was spent in conversation, singing and prayer. Refreshments also were served by the ladies. We were enriched in temporal blessings by a generous donation of groceries, preserves, pickles and farm produce, also an offering in money of more than twenty dollars.

We are very grateful to our Heavenly Father for all His blessings and the kindness of the people here. To God be all the glory.

REMINDED OF GOD.

Once my path was darkness
When I was down in sin;
But nature in its greatness
Said, "Take a look at Him."

One look at the broad ocean,
A view of the golden grain,
Then I knew it more than notion
The cause of soft, soft rain.

I travelled near the brook
Which flowed in yonder wood,
I stopped in every nook
To scan whate'er seemed good.

A journey to the mountain
To soothe my aching heart,
I drank at the Living Fountain
Which never should depart.

I think of the small flower,
The home of the busy bee,
But God is the Creative Power;
Now what am I to be?

This world with all its beauty
Is not my resting place,
And if I do my duty
I shall meet him face to face.

Hillman-Williams

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Cronk, Grey's Mills, Kings Co., N. The bridal couple entered the parlor to the strains of a wedding march played by Miss Lois Goodspeed, of Fredericton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. O. H. The happy couple left on a trip to different cities and towns in the Maritimes, after which they will take up their residence in Woodstock, N. B.

The gifts were very many and beautiful, bespeaking the high esteem in which this young couple was held.

The best wishes of a host of friends follow them.

CORRESPONDENCE

North Head, Grand Manan, N. B.

Dear Brother Trafton:

I wish through the Highway to thank the friends who have recently placed a memorial tablet at Mr. Baker's grave in the cemetery of Caribou, Me.

I appreciate more deeply than I can express in words this tribute to his memory. I understand this is from personal friends, many of whom are not connected with our churches at the present time, but with whom Mr. Baker had been associated in former years.

The tablet is of polished marble and on one side is inscribed Mr. Baker's and my name and age and this verse: Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, said the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them. Rev. 14-13.

On the other side: Presented in memory of Rev. S. A. Baker by loving friends of his ministry.

We especially wish to thank the one to whom the thought first came and those who helped to carry it into effect.

This expression of esteem for Mr. Baker will serve to bind our hearts more closely to the people with whom we have been connected in Christian work for so many years.

MRS. S. A. BAKER.
