

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

Rev. Perley Briggs, who was assisting Rev. H. S. Dow at Marysville, returned home on Saturday, May 8th. The services were well attended and several were definitely blessed. Brother Dow expects to have baptism in the near future.

Rev. H. S. Mullen will begin special services at Knoxford in the "Band Church," beginning May 16th. He will be assisted by Evangelist J. W. Cooper, of New York, as preacher, and Miss Hazel Mullen as song evangelist. The services will continue over May 30th. In the R. B. Church at Royalton, they will have special services, with the same workers, beginning June 1st and continuing to the 13th. Let us pray for a gracious time.

Rev. H. S. Mullen will remain as pastor for the coming year, with the Royalton group of Churches

Rev. E. W. Lester has accepted a call to become pastor of the Church at Woodstock.

Rev. C. S. Hilyard, of Fort Fairfield, visited Riverside Camp Ground recently and found things in rather bad condition. The snow had broken down part of the roof of the new hotel and side verandah. All the cottages had been broken into.

Rev. C. S. Hilyard spent one week in Blaine, Me., assisting in evangelistic services recently

NOTES.

Only a short time before Alliance. Let us do our best to swell all the denominational funds.

A FAREWELL SURPRISE.

On Friday evening, May 7th, a few of the members of the church, with a number of friends, gathered at the parsonage and gave us a farewell surprise. Their coming was profitable, not so much from the financial end but from the social line we were greatly benefited. We have wondered for the past two years why the people of the church have not visited us more to spend a social evening now and again. It seems that times like this bind us closer together in the work of the Lord. However, everyone knows his own business best. I feel we are lacking these days along this line, for the most of us find that a handshake, a social evening, a word of appreciation or a God bless you is not amiss. (Not throw bouquets.)

We wish to take this opportunity to thank the donors of this gathering and any that have tried to make our stay in Calais a pleasant one.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mooers, of Woodstock, who spent the winter in Boston and vicinity, have returned home.

Mrs. Ella Sipperelle and son of Hartland, are visiting in Marysville, the guests of Rev. H. S. and Mrs. Dow.

Nason Steeves, son of Mr and Mrs. John Steeves, of Marysville, who has been in Boston for the last few years, is now at home, having returned a few weeks ago.

Mrs. Otis Ames, of Fort Fairfield, has been suffering some time with heart trouble.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kimball, of Fort Fairfield, has returned from Springfield, Mass., where she has been spending the winter with her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones, of Robinson, Me., have taken up residence for the summer in their cottage at Riverside Camp Grounds.

Mrs. Charles Crewdson, of Fredericton, is laid aside again. Let us remember these afflicted ones in our prayers.

Mrs. C. P. Phillips, of Woodstock, N. B., left last week for Minneapolis, Minn., to visit her mother and brothers.

J. F. Bullock was confined to his home for several days recently with a heavy cold. He is around again as usual and planning for Beulah.

Our aged sister, Mrs. Joseph Bullock, has enjoyed good health during the winter.

Wood Island, N. B.

BIRTHDAY.

A number of the Church members of Belvidere sprang a surprise on Sister Fogg (better known as Grandma Fogg), on the afternoon of May 8th, the occasion being her 80th birthday, and after a social chat ice cream and cake and the exchanging of greetings and many tangible proofs of affection and good will.

With prayer by the Pastor, S. H. Clark, the company left in a cold downpour of rain, but with warm hearts, for it is more blessed to give than receive.

Remember your renewals—let us have them as early as possible. Thanks!
