NEW DORMITORY

It is imperative that we build a new dormitory at Beulah to accommodate the increasing number attending. A call was made for pledges during camp meeting, and some $2340 was pledged. It will cost about $5,000 to finish. Let us hear from you all in a hearty response to the same. Amounts will be acknowledged in the Highway. Begin at once. You can send your amount to the editor, P. J. Trafton, or the treasurer, Rev. H. S. Dow.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Fredericton, N. B.

Dear Highway:

We are glad to report victory during the United Holiness Praying Band Convention held at Fredericton June 28th, 29th and 30th. Delegates from Marysville, Knoxford, Hartland, Fort Fairfield, Maine, and other places were present. The speakers were as follows:

Friday evening—Brother Chester Cochran, Marysville.

Saturday afternoon — Brother Guy Bartly, Knoxford.

Saturday evening—Brother Basil Kimball, Fort Fairfield, Me.

Sunday morning—Love Feast, Brother Geo. DeLong, Fredericton.

Sunday 11 a. m.—Rev. P. J. Trafton, St. John.

Sunday 3 p. m.—Rev. I. F. Kierstead, Fredericton.

Sunday 7 p. m.—Evangelist L. C. Good, Monticella, Me.

The services were all well attended and seasons of great refreshing. Sunday morning several raised their hands for prayer. A number responded to the altar call at the evening service and we trust they all prayed through to victory.

Yours in Christ,
CHRISTIAN CRAWFORD,
Secretary.
