

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

Mrs. Rev. I. M. Kierstead supplied at Gray's Mills Sunday, July 25th, remaining over till the 28th.

Miss Faith Sanders gave the morning address in the Tabernacle at Beulah Camp Ground Sunday, July 25th, to a large congregation. They voiced their appreciation in a generous thank offering.

Rev. H. S. Dow is moving his family to Fredericton as three of his children are attending the High School there.

Rev. H. S. Dow began his ministry on the Hartland circuit Sunday, July 18th.

Rev. E. W. Lester began his ministry in the Woodstock Church Sunday, July 18th.

Lie. Stillman Mullen has received a call from Marysville to become pastor of the Reformed Baptist Church.

Rev. L. T. Sabine will move his family to Millville at once.

Mrs. I. F. Kierstead preached once on Sunday at Kingston, July 25th, two stood for prayers.

HIGHWAY SUPPLEMENTARY FUND.

This fund is being kept open and it is a worthy one, so send along your contributions to the Editor. Some who pledged last year have not redeemed their pledges. Please do so at once. Thanks!

P. J. TRAFTON.

NOTES.

Let there be special prayer for the camp meeting at Riverside. Make it your special business to wait on God for his special blessing at this time.

You who did not have the privilege of renewing your subscription at the Camp Meeting, do it now. Thanks!

We hope that all our people and everyone else will avail themselves of the privilege of hearing Miss Faith Sanders, our returned missionary from South Africa, at Riverside. She will give an address Sunday afternoon, Aug. 15th.

It is holiness and heaven, unbelief and perdition, which will you choose?

P. J. T.

EXTRACTS.

Walk as a royal race,

Princes of royal blood,
Walk as children of the Light,
The sons and heirs of God.

Look on our trials here,

As he beholds them now.

Look on this world as it will seem,

When glory crowns our brow.

We only live this life but once, how serious that life should be.

Life is eternal; it will be what we are now making it.

The religion of Christ is an every day religion. Luke 9-23.

Our conversation should be that which does good and not harm. Eph. 4-29.

Then they that feared the Lord spoke often one to another, etc. Mal. 3-16, 17.

Hope is the line without a doubt,

By virtue of the blood,

Then nothing can destroy the life,

That's hid with Christ in God.

Hallelujah!

—R. P. PRINCE

PERSONALS

Mrs. S. A. Baker is occupying her cottage for the summer. Mrs. I. M. Kierstead has been with her during the month of July. Miss Faith Sanders will be with her part of August. Sister Baker is improved in health.

Mrs. Robert Barr has gone to the Mouth of Jemseg to spend a week.

Rev. E. W. Lester came to Beulah for his family on July 22nd, returning with them to Woodstock the 23rd.

Rev. S. H. Clark and son, John, returned to Crystal, Me., July 20th. They expect to return to Beulah in the course of a few weeks.

Rev. P. J. Trafton and family continued their stay at Beulah till the close of July.

Sidney Gibbs and daughter, Vera, accompanied by her two girl friends, Miss Laura Kelley and Miss Pearl Godwin, spent the week, July 19th to 24th, at Beulah Camp Ground.

Carl I. Parlee, who has been home on a vacation, left on Thursday, the 22nd, for Fort Wayne, Ind. He was accompanied by his father, Arthur Parlee, as far as Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. Alvin Perry and her children, Edward and Dorothy, who were in attendance at Beulah Camp meeting and since staying with her sister, Mrs. F. D. Foley, in her cottage, returned to their home in Port Maitland, Friday, July 23rd.

Stanley Hayes, Head of Millstream, is now working in St. John.

Emery Cosman, of Saint John, went to Head of Millstream, July 18th. He also went again by auto on the 25th. He assisted in special singing in meetings being held there. He was accompanied the latter date by Joseph Nickerson.

H. G. Currie, who spends his winters in Ashville, North Carolina, has returned to Saint John for the summer.

H. K. Ingersoll, wife and son, accompanied by Kenneth Northrup and wife, motored to Beulah Camp July 24th, to spend the week end.

William K. Trafton, Rev. G. B. and Mrs. Trafton went to Beulah Camp by auto, the 24th. They returned to Saint John the 27th.

Mrs. Bessie Friers and daughter, Luetta who have been at Beulah Camp, returned to Moncton, July 23rd.

Otty Keith, who underwent a serious major operation in the Saint John City Hospital July 20th, is recovering rapidly.

Mrs. M. J. Fenwick is having serious trouble with her eyes. She is at the home of her sister, Mrs. Robertson, 137 Broad St., Saint John. Pray for her.

Ward Burpee, who has been living in Vancouver for the past 16 years, came to Jacksonville last week to visit his father, Judson Burpee.

Mrs. Fleetwood Jones and two daughters, Helen and Irma, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Campbell and little daughter of Hartland, spent a few days in town, the guests of their mother, Mrs. E. M. Campbell, Woodstock.

Holiness of heart fully meets this need. The purging of the spirit and the death of all carnal propensities makes possible the incoming of the fulness of God. Every believer becomes complete in Christ with the reception of the experience of entire sanctification.—Free Methodist.

SOME OF THOSE ATTENDING BEULAH CAMP—(Continued)

Seal Cove.—Rev. H. C. Mullen and wife, Helen and Wilbur, Mr and Mrs Albert Cook and family, Henry Benson, Calvin Benson, Irvine Benson, Moody Benson, Jack Wilson, Hartley Wilson, Beverly Wilson, Clinton Wilson, Mrs. Allen Wilson, Fred Wilson, wife and two children, Mrs. Fred Gordon, Mrs. Hamilton Gordon and daughter, Robert Green, Coleman Green, Wallace Green, Mrs. Emery Forsythe and Hattie Russell.

Wood Island—Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Wilcox and family, Mrs. Lawson Wilcox, Gladys Wilcox, Mrs. Eugene Wilcox, Annie Wilcox, Benjamin Lorimer and wife, Mrs. Alton Green and son, Mrs. Chester Green and two children, Percy Green and Lila Shepherd.

Whittier, Calif.—E. W. Smith, Galya Smith.

Norwalk, Calif.—Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Storey and daughter.

Pasadena, Calif.—Marion and Herbert Trafton.

Fort Wayne, Ind.—Carl I. Parlee.

Fort Fairfield, Me.—Rev. and Mrs. C. S. Hilyard and daughters, Lie. Hollis Kimball.

Jonesport, Me.—Lie. Stillman A. Mullen.

NEW DORMITORY

You will be interested to know that we need more accommodation for the crowds coming to Beulah Camp Ground to attend the Annual Camp Meeting. We have started a fund to build a new dormitory, which will cost probably $5,000 to finish and furnish. $2335 was subscribed at Beulah. We trust that all of our people will show their interest in subscribing to this worthy object.

P. J. TRAFTON

MARRIED

Myers-Murphy

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murphy, Norton, Kings Co., N. B., July 14th, 1926, when their eldest daughter, Ethel May, was united in marriage to Ralph Hatfield Myers, of Allenton, R. I., the ceremony being performed by Rev. G. B. Trafton, of Saint John, N. B. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents. After a short trip through the Maritimes, they will reside in Allenton, R. I.

At the residence of Charles Watt, Castalia, Grand Manan, N. B., on July 17th, 1926, his eldest daughter, Reba Grace, was united in marriage to Allen V. Bustin, of Latimore Lake, N. B., Rev. H. C. Archer officiating. They will reside at Latimore Lake, where the groom is a prosperous farmer.

At Easton, Digby Co., N. S., on Wednesday, July 12, Mr. Herman Gavel and Miss Susie Gavel were united in marriage at the home of her father, Jacob Gavel. Rev. L. T. Sabine, of Havelock, officiated. Only immediate friends were present. The young couple will make their home in Hillsdale.