EDITORIAL.

Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run that ye may obtain.

And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we are incorruptible. I. Cor. 9-24, 25.

We are having this week in the City of Saint John, at Lily Lake, racing to determine the ice skating championship of the world. Much time, energy and money have been spent to make the meet a success. Thousands of people watch the contestants, and will sit or stand in the cold for hours to cheer on their favorites. Now they are interested that they obtain the coveted honor and prize. The contestants come from different parts of this world at great expense; they have put in strenuous hours in exercise in training, willing to deprive themselves and take the way of self-denial. What for? To obtain honor among men, and a few paltry dollars that will perish with the using. These contestants are putting their best into it, so that they shall not be a disappointment to their friends. How about we that are in the Christian race? Have we laid aside every weight and the sin that does so easily beset us? Do we run with patience? Are we temperate and determined as we should be, to obtain the incorruptible crown? There is an innumerable company interested, and shall we bring forth their applaudits or shall we be a disappointment to angels, men and devils? It is the privilege of each of us to obtain the prize. How anxious our heavenly father is to be able to place the crown on our brow. Are we willing to go the way of the cross, complete abandonment to the will of God, shunning the very appearance of evil, praying in the Holy Ghost, keeping ourselves in the love of God so that when he appears or we reach the end of the way we shall not be ashamed?

Dear Brother Trafton:

Please find our renewal for the Highway and an amount for the Highway Fund. We love to have the Highway come to our home. We praise the Lord that our hearts are made to rejoice as we hear of the good work going on in other places. We do need some one of our own ministers at Norton. I pray the Lord may open the way.

We are praying the dear Lord will make you strong for his service.

Yours in His love,

D. H. AND MRS. HAYES

West Jonesport, Me.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Please find enclosed renewal for the Highway. I enjoy reading of the brothers and sisters and to hear from them in Africa.

Have been sorry to hear of the passing away of the older ones. Surely the younger ones need to walk carefully to fill their places and carry on the work they have started.

I praise the Lord for keeping me day by day under the precious blood.

Your sister in Jesus,

MRS. ALICE NEWBURY.

Centreville, R. F. D. 3 N. B.

Dear Highway:

Sister Hazel Mullen preached at Wicklow, N. B., the 11th and 12th inst. with good results. She also preached at Royalton Sunday night, the 17th. Her preaching and singing have been greatly appreciated on the Royalton circuit, both by pastor and people. She has some open dates and those who are in need of a special singer and worker in revival services will do well to engage her for same. Don't think about the financial end of it for I'm sure she'll pay her way and at the end of your series of services you will feel that you made no mistake. Those wishing her assistance, please write her at once to above address, care Rev. H. S. Mullen.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Dear Brother Trafton: Apohaqui, N. B.

Enclosed find my renewal for the Highway. I am glad tonight that the Lord still saves me and helps me. I am glad that I ever gave my heart to Jesus and I am thankful that I ever heard this holiness doctrine.

God says in his word in 2 Thess. 2-11, 12, 13: "And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they shall believe a lie.

That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

But we are bound to give thanks always to God for you brethren, beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the spirit and belief of the truth."

Hoping you are well as this leaves us,

Yours in His service,

WM. O. McNAIR.

Whittier, California.

Your friend and brother,

E. M. SMITH.

Dear Highway:

Enclosed please find my renewal for the Highway. How I do love its clean precious pages, and how my heart rejoices and responds as I read the inspired articles and letters from the precious saints in South Africa and away back home in New Brunswick, especially dear old Waterville, my childhood home.

I am enjoying the blessing of the Lord in my soul away out here in sunny Southern California and I am saved and sanctified up to date.

May God richly bless you and keep you on the firing line.

Your sister in Christ,

MRS. JESSIE TRACEY SMITH.

"GO ON WID DAT PRAYER."

A negro who had been a slave came to a lady missionary among the freedmen. and asked to be taught to pray.

She began to teach him the Lord's Prayer, sentence by sentence, explaining it to his entire satisfaction until she came to the one on forgiveness.

"What dat mean?" said he. "That you must forgive everybody or God will not forgive you." "Stop, teacher, can't do dat;" and he went away.

After a time he appeared again. "Now go on wid de prayer. I dun forgive him. Ole massa once gib me fifty lashes and hit me wid a crowbar, an' trow me out for dead, and I met him on de street and wouldn't speak to him; but today I met him an' said, How'd'ee? Now go on wid dat prayer."—Sel.
