

CORRESPONDENCE.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Just a line or two to the Highway readers. First of all I want to tell you that I am enjoying the blessing of full salvation. Jesus sweetly saves me and his precious blood sanctifies me wholly. Praise His dear name.

Just now I am spending a few days at Meductic, resting a bit before I go to my next meeting. I find it is harder to keep idle than it is to be in the battle when one's whole soul is in the work. I do love the work that I feel God has so definitely called me to and the fact that I have been kept so busy during the winter assures me that I am in His divine will.

I often wonder why so many of our young people shrink from letting God have his way in their lives. If they only knew the blessedness of being in his will I am sure more would be willing to pay the price.

My heart's desire these days is for a closer walk with God. We are living in a day when God's people are being tried as never before, and how close we must live to God. We have a subtle foe to battle against and unless we keep on our guard we will also be carried away in the awful whirlpool of worldliness and indifference. I am looking forward to Beulah with great anticipation, and I mean to help make it one of the greatest years the Camp has ever seen.

The revival flame is burning in my soul. I love the good old fashioned way, and long to be used of God in helping others to find the way. I covet your prayers that God might make of me a winner of precious souls.

Yours in Jesus,

HAZEL MULLEN.

Dear Highway:

On April 4th the Reformed Baptist Sunday School held its Easter exercises in the main auditorium of the church at the close of the regular lesson. The superintendent, Mr. Moses Somers, presided. An excellent programme had been prepared under the direction of Miss Lucy Blakney, who also presided at the piano.

Singing by Mrs. Charles McCallum's class; recitation by Grant McCallum; exercise by four girls; singing by three girls; exercise by two boys and two girls; recitation by Alexander Kently; exercise by four girls; motion song by Mrs. Somers' class; recitation by Andrew Mitton; exercise by eight girls, assisted by the choir. At the conclusion of the program, Brother J. H. Thompson, on behalf of those present, moved that a hearty vote of thanks be tendered to Miss Blakney for the efficiency shown in the training of those participating, and selection of the material; also to those taking the different parts, that had made the whole a grand success. This was seconded by Brother Fillmore and carried unanimously. Miss Blakney in replying said that it was her chiefest delight to work for the help and salvation of the children, so that the future of their lives might be for the blessing of humanity, in their service to the Master. She also thanked the school for the confidence reposed in her.

Brother Somers expressed his pleasure in having a share in such a great work. He said that he attributed his success in the Christian life largely to the prayers and faithful instruction of a godly mother.

It was the regret of all that the pastor, Rev. W. W. Howe, was not able to be present. The meeting closed with prayer by Archie MacCallum.

Dear Highway:

It was my pleasure to attend the quarterly meeting at Wood Island. We stopped over night with Brother Archer on our way. We had a great time and the meeting of old friends and listening to the testimonies of so many of those who were converted in the revival we had while pastor, these gave us a new inspiration, Amen! We spoke twice at the quarterly meeting and twice at Seal Cove. We came away feeling like going at it with new vigor. Our services since coming home have been wonderful times of refreshing. Sunday night, April 11th, will be looked back to as our banner meeting. The glory struck us at the first hymn and went on with a shout. No time to preach; a wonderful altar service followed, when some were wonderfully baptized with the Holy Ghost. Amen! Some have been at the altar since. The Church held their business meeting lately and tendered me a call, but I am undecided to to whether I shall remain with them or not. Am planning an all day meeting some time in May, probably the 18th. Pray for us.

Yours,

C. S. HILYARD.

Dear Friends:

Please find enclosed renewal for my Highway. I am always glad to get it and keep in touch with all the Highway family. Have not been able of late to get as regularly to Church as I would wish, but am keeping steadily on the pilgrim way, saved and kept by the precious blood.

Trusting you are all well, I am as ever
Your sister in Jesus,

MRS. EDWIN J. JENNINGS.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Enclosed find renewal for Highway. I look forward to its coming. The letters and testimonies from God's people, many of them are those I have known many years, and as I read, my soul gets wonderfully blessed. I am in the King's Highway and find it a glorious way. The blood covers, His power keeps. I love Him tonight with my whole heart. His way is best.

Yours for Jesus,

MILDRED HOYT CONLEY.

Dear Readers:

Some one has suggested that we call for a day of prayer for our coming Camp Meeting. That is surely good, and why not—and then set aside a special time each day for real earnest prayer from every lover of holiness.

We are passing through a crisis, the battle presses hard, for Satan is contending for every advanced foot of ground. The armies of darkness are arrayed against us, and we must have on "the whole armour of God" to withstand the devices of the evil one. But praise the Lord, the captain of our salvation has never lost a battle for He is Almighty, and will conquer Satan, and his hosts will be defeated. But He must have our co-operation and loyalty. We want to see the greatest year of victory we have ever known at our Camp Meetings, and in order to see this, we must pray without ceasing, yes and prevailingly for a grand outpouring of the Holy Spirit's power, and it must be believing prayer. Let us help the editor to advertise and spread abroad the glad time anticipated at Beulah and Riverside. We expect several issues of the Highway will soon be giving us the dates and the importance of every one of our churches being well represented.

Let us all come up to the help of the Lord by our prayers and attendance, get prayed up, ready to pitch in, to push the battle against sin, and for the salvation of souls and the sanctification of believers. We are looking for Sister Faith Sanders to be a real inspiration to the people.

In His service,

I. M. K.
