Make your plans now to attend, and work to that end. The Camp Meeting at Beulah begins July 2nd. Let us begin now to make it a wonderful time. We should begin now to definitely pray in faith for a great time of victory. Rev. J. B. McBride, of Pasadena, Calif., is the evangelist. Mrs. McBride will accompany her husband. A PRAYING CHURCH.

A prosperous church is a church which prays. It is written: "My house shall be called a house of prayer." We must never lose faith in prayer. We must never abandon prayer. We must never lose the spirit of prayer. A church can get along for a considerable time without singing, and can go on indefinitely without singing. A church may do well with poor preaching, and even without preaching of any kind. But a church without prayer is no church at all. We might as well expect a man to live without breathing as to expect a church to live without praying.

Pray for the minister. Pray for the sick and the afflicted. Pray for the children. Pray for the lost. Pray for the community. Pray for one another. "Pray ye the Lord of the harvest that He send forth laborers into His harvest." "Pray without ceasing." Pray everywhere. Let the church be characterized by prayer, filled with the atmosphere of prayer, and crowded with the trophies of prayer.—Selected.

Teachers in the public schools of Tennessee who fail to read at least ten verses of the Bible at the opening of each school day are in danger of losing their positions. The Board of Education of that State, on June 9th, adopted a resolution which approves the inclusion of the Bible being employed to instruct the 2,200 students who have elected to make it a part of their daily school task.—Heart and Life.
