

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

Miss Faith Sanders visited Woodstock and delivered an inspiring address on Friday and Sunday evenings, Nov. 26th and 28th.

Rev. Mrs. I. M. Kierstead and Miss Faith Sanders expect to visit Moncton for a missionary meeting on Wednesday evening, Dec. 1st. They will also be present during the Quarterly Meeting beginning the following evening.

Rev. F. T. Wright, of Fort Fairfield, supplied for Rev. Fraser Dunlop at Perth in the evening, Nov. 14th and 21st.

Brother Eugene Kierstead is encouraged with the outlook at Moncton.

Rev. P. J. Trafton held a service at Gray's Mills on Thursday night, Nov. 18th. He also held service at Apohaqui on Thursday night, Nov. 25th, and at Norton on Friday night following.

Elder Joseph Richardson, of Oxford, N. S., supplied a Sunday recently at Westchester, N. S.

PLEASE NOTE.

That the King's Highway would make a nice Christmas Gift. Send it to your friends for a year.

Only two more issues before the new year. We should have several hundred renewals before that time.

We should have one hundred new subscribers right away. Give the Highway a boost.—The Editor.

PRAYING BAND CONVENTION

Hartland, Knoxford, Fort Fairfield and Fredericton Praying Bands held a convention at Waterville, Carleton Co., in DeWare's hall, beginning Saturday night, Nov. 6th, and continuing over Sunday. It was a grand time from the very first meeting. Sunday was a good day and people came for miles around to hear the old-fashioned gospel. Saturday night Brother Guy Bartlett, president of the Knoxford Band, spoke from the 2nd chapter of Acts and two souls found the Lord at the close of this meeting. Love Feast Sunday morning at 9.30, led by Brother George Wheeler from Knoxford; preaching at 11 o'clock by Brother Burrell Kimball, of Fort Fairfield; 2.30 p. m., preaching by Brother George Delong, president of the Fredericton Band, and again at 7.30 preaching by Brother Eugene Kimball, president of the Fort Fairfield Band. Two souls found the Lord at this meeting, making four in all, which is worth four worlds. This meeting closed at 11 p. m. We believe this convention was a great help to all who attended. It was decided to hold the next one at Fort Fairfield in June, 1927, which we trust will be the best one of all. Begin to plan on attending and enjoy this spiritual feast. GORDON YORK.

PERSONALS

Miss Alice Tedlie, of Lower Brighton, who was visiting in Saint John, the guest of Rev. and Mrs. G. B. Trafton, has returned home.

Douglas Hayes, of Mercer Settlement, visited recently with Rev. and Mrs. G. B. Trafton.

Miss Emma Trafton, of Fredericton, spent part of Friday and Saturday, Nov. 19th and 20th with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. P. J. Trafton.

Miss Marion Allingham, of Campobello, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ingersoll, Saint John.

Brother Irvine Benson, of Seal Cove, was a great inspiration to the service on Tuesday night, Nov. 23rd, in the Saint John Church.

Thomas Purvis, formerly of Millville, N. B., but lately of Southampton, N. S., is spending the winter in Saint John.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all the kind friends for their help and sympathy during the recent illness and death and burial of our darling baby boy.

MR. AND MRS. HARRY GRAY
Seal Cove, N. B.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

On Monday evening, Nov. 1, fifty Fredericton friends gathered at the Reformed Baptist parsonage to celebrate the birthday of their little missionary. The evening was spent very pleasantly in conversation, singing and prayer. Rev. Mrs. Keirstead, after a little speech in which she recalled the happy years they spent together in Africa, presented her, in behalf of these friends, with a handsome leather handbag, a gift the more welcome because it was a need.

This little missionary hereby wishes to express her appreciation of their love and kindness.

FAITH SANDERS.

THE BEST.

Thing to Know is, that you are saved from all sin here and now, and that the Holy Spirit is your abiding guest and teacher.

Thing to Do is, to seek to spread the news of this wonderful Saviour and his power to deliver. Ye shall be witnesses unto me, said Jesus.

Thing to Be is, to be holy, for without holiness no man shall see the Lord.

QUARTERLY MEETINGS

The Quarterly Meeting of District No. 1 will convene with the church at Hartland, N. B., on Thursday evening, Dec. 2nd, at 7.30, and continue over the following Sunday. Let all the churches send letters as well as delegates.

The Quarterly Meeting of District No. 2 will meet with the church at Moncton, N. B., Thursday evening, Dec. 2nd, and continue over the following Sunday. Let all the churches on the district send delegates, and the clerks report by letter also.

MARRIED

A very pretty wedding took place at the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Royalton, N. B., Nov. 13th, at 9.30 p. m., when Edith Mae Thomas, in the presence of a few immediate friends was united in marriage by Rev. H. S. Mullen to Willie LeRoy Harris, both of Knoxford, N. B. We wish them a long and happy life together.

SPECIAL MEETINGS

We have just closed three weeks of special meetings at Knoxford. Rev. L. E. Mann, evangelist. We found him a faithful worker, a real co-labourer. He preached the gospel in its fulness. He stuck to the essentials of the Word which he said were Justification, Sanctification, Heaven and Hell. I say the same. Such preaching resulted in souls getting saved, backsliders reclaimed and believers sanctified. About thirty were forward. Praise the Lord. Pray for us.

Yours for souls,

H. S. MULLEN.

WHOLEHEARTED DEVOTIONS

Have I given myself up to say that there must be nothing whatever, to share my heart with God and His will? Is a heart perfect with the Lord my God, the object of my desire, my prayer, my faith, my hope?

Whether it has been so or not, let it be so today. Make the promise of God's Word your own: "The God of peace Himself perfect you." The God who is of power to do above all we ask or think, will open up to you the blessed prospect of life of which He shall say: His heart was perfect with the Lord his God.—Murray.

A SACRED HERITAGE.

Dishonoring his body dishonors alike the creature and the Creator. We distinctly read, "Your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost" (1 Cor. 6:16). Shall a man destroy, dishonor, pollute the temple of the Holy Ghost? The man who by intemperance in eating or drinking unfits his body for discharging its normal functions, degrades himself and dishonors the Almighty.

Intemperance even in lawful indulgence is to be rebuked as a degrading sin against the most wonderful mechanism known to man and as a defiant crime against God. Indulgence, laziness and selfishness and sins against health, happiness and the Creator. No man has a right to overwork, to overeat or to practice undue indulgence in rest or in rightful enjoyment. The man who sins against the simple economy of health has taken the crown from the brow of manhood and has at the same time defied the laws of the Almighty.—R. S. McArthur.
