THE WAY TO OVERCOME TEMPTATION IS NOT TO PARLEY.

"Those who would not fall into the river should beware how they approach its banks. He that crushes the egg need not fear the bird. He who would not drink the wine of wrath let him not touch the cup of pleasure. A person who carries gunpowder can never stand too far from the fire. Ill thoughts are as little thieves which open the door to greater. Thoughts are seeds of action. Keep as far as possible from the edge of the precipice near which you must drive."—Selected.

PERSONALS

W. K. Trafton, of Saint John, went by auto to Riverside Camp Meeting, Saturday, Aug. 7th. He was accompanied by his parents and Misses Marion Trafton and Hazel Mullen.

Edgar Landers, of Sandford, N. S., is in very poor health at present.

Deacon Charles Mutch, of Woodstock, was taken suddenly ill on Friday, the 6th, and for several hours was critically ill. He is somewhat improved.

Rev. P. J. and Mrs. Trafton attended the funeral of Mrs. L. A. Morrell at Fredericton Saturday, Aug. 7th, through the kindness of Deacon Harold Ingersoll and wife, who took them in their car.

Miss Lois Goodspeed and Miss Mary Minue, of Fredericton, are spending the week, Aug. 11-19, at Beulah Camp Ground with Mrs. W. B. Wiggins.

NOTES FROM RIVERSIDE CAMP MEETING.

The following ministers have been present: Rev. Perley W. Briggs, President; Revs. G. B. Trafton, C. S. Hilyard, H. S. Dow, E. W. Lester, I. F. Kierstead, L. T. Sabine, H. E. Mullen, Leslie Sears, Ray Hagerman, Frank Watson, Fraser Dunlop, F. T. Wright, P. J. Trafton, Lic. S. A. Mullen, Ernest R. Bradly, Rev. Mark Turner.

The electric lights have been installed and are a vast improvement over the old system.

Rev. E. E. Curtis, the evangelist, is a strong preacher and worker. He is hewing to the line. His wife who accompanies him, is a fine Christian woman.

The most of the cottages are occupied and it looks like a record attendance before the close.

Sunday, Aug. 8th, was a grand day, good crowd, good services, good order, good offering. Praise the Lord.

No side issues are being indulged in, the old fashioned second blessing, sin killing, Holy Ghost filling gospel is being preached.

Brother J. F. Bullock is again at his old place as organist and has the musical part of the camp meeting on his heart.

The Misses Marion Trafton and Hazel Mullen are delighting us with their special songs. Miss Gayla Smith is pianist.

Rev. E. W. Lester is leading in the singing.

The hotel committee is doing fine.

Mrs. L. Sanders and Mrs. J. Stevens, of Perth, are doing the cooking.

THE WORLD AND THE CHURCH.

With but a single hope

The world is in a lurch;

That one and only hope,

Is in a Christ-like Church.

—Robert L. Selle.

The story is told of a father who prayed for the poor. His son said, "Father, I wish I had your corn." The father asked, "Why, my son, what would you do with it?" The boy said, "I would answer your prayers."—The Free Methodist.

"The love of money is the root of all evil." (I. Tim. 6:10).

OBITUARY

Mrs. L. A. Morrell

The many friends of Mrs. Emma Morrell were shocked to hear of her sudden death early Thursday morning, August 5th, at Woodstock, where she was visiting friends for a short time.

Although Sister Morrell had been a sufferer for years, she was able to be around most of the time. She was awakened by severe pain and passed away in about half an hour of hemorrhage. She was 59 years of age.

She leaves to mourn, besides her husband, one son, Walter, and a daughter, Winnifred June, who was with her when she died. There are three brothers, Eugene Harmon, of Mars Hill, Me., Scott Harmon, of Cranbrook, B. C., and Frank Harmon in England, and two sisters, Mrs. Altie Davies, of Vancouver, B. C., and Mrs. C. F. King, of Portland, Me., besides a host of relatives and friends, who deeply regret the loss of one so beloved.

Mrs. Morrell was a member of the Reformed Baptist Church, Fredericton, and until she became too ill, was always active in church work. She dearly loved to meet with the saints and as she testified to the saving and keeping power of God, it was an inspiration to others. Many were led to envy her for her natural gift in subjects concerning spiritual things.

We can truly say Mrs. Morrell was a woman of prayer, always seeking for the deeper experiences, and as we visited her many times, her chief conversation was of salvation. Jesus was very precious to her. Then we had sweet seasons of prayer which were times of refreshing and blessing. We shall surely miss this beautiful fellowship, but we know that our loss is her eternal gain.

The funeral, which took place from her late home, was largely attended, friends from Saint John, Woodstock and various places to pay the last tribute of respect. The service was conducted by Rev. I. F. Kierstead, assisted by Rev. P. J. Trafton, Evangelist F. W. Foster and Major Hiscock, of the Salvation Army. Members of the choir of the R. B. Church sang several favorite hymns, "Rock of Ages," "Abide with Me," and "Nearer My God to Thee." The floral tributes were numerous and most beautiful.

We wish to extend to the bereaved family our deepest sympathy and assure them of our prayers in this sad hour.

I. M. K.

The journey of life is not always through grassy lawns and flowery gardens, but often over burning, shifting, deserts, rocky steeps, fetid swamps, and dark and tangled jungles, as the Lord leads the soul in the way it has not known; and at such times self interest may cry out against the sacrifice. But if the consecration is perfect, and grounded in love, there will be no turning back, no plunge into seductive and easy by-paths, but a steady march forward if needs be, to Gethsemane's lonely agony. Pilate's judgment hall of shame, and Golgotha's dark and awful hour. But, bless the Lord, it will not be alone, for He says, "My presence shall go with thee."—Sel.
