A season of prayer was then held, followed by singing, "Anywhere with Jesus."

After dues and collection the following programme was given:

Reading, "The Mills of the Gods"—Mrs. W. B. McLeod.

Duet, Your Own—Louise Mutch and Eula Lester.

Reading, Thanksgiving Ann—Mrs. O. R. Estey.

Chorus, Forward the Call—Members of C. G. I. T.

Reading, Mrs. Morgan's Quarter—Mrs. F. C. Brown.

Duet, the Church in the Wildwood—Avis Reynolds and Muriel Lester.

After some closing remarks and plans for next months meeting, by the President, the meeting was closed with prayer and benediction by the pastor, Rev. E. W. Lester.

We have been holding our monthly meetings regularly this fall and winter, and although our numbers are small, the interest is good. Sister Faith Sanders, although not happening to be with us on our regular meeting night, has spoken to us at the regular Sunday services two or three times, and on other occasions. Her coming was a time of blessing to all who had the privilege of listening to her or conversing with her.

Her inspiring addresses gave us all a spiritual uplift and a greater zeal for the missionary cause. She certainly shines for Jesus wherever she goes. We hope to have another visit from her before Beulah.

Yours in the Word,

MRS. ORISON R. ESTEY.

OBITUARY

Mr. Lewis Churchill

Mr. Lewis Churchill, a highly esteemed member of the Sanford Reformed Baptist Church, was called to his eternal reward on Jan. 23rd.

He leaves to mourn his departure a widow, one son and two daughters; also three brothers and two sisters, and a host of relatives and friends, by which he will be greatly missed.

In the departing of Brother Churchill the community and church have met with a great loss. His hope was firm and his last days were spent in praising God.

The funeral service was held at his home on Thursday afternoon, Jan. 27th. The remains were laid to rest in Cheggo-gin cemetery.

To the sorrowing ones we extend our heartfelt sympathy. The funeral services were conducted by the writer.

HARTLEY E. MULLEN.

Mrs. Stephen Butler

Mrs. Stephen Butler, of Fort Fairfield, Me., departed this life at her home on January 24th. She was 72 years of age. She leaves to mourn their loss, her husband, two daughters, Mrs. Charles Butler, of Millinocket, and Mrs. Joe Hitchcock, of Limestone. Also three sons, William and Ira, of Fort Fairfield, and Sydney, of Limestone. The service was held at the home, and the remains were placed in the vault until spring time.

Teach me, my God and King,

In all things thee to see,

And what I do in anything,

To do it as for thee.

—George Herbert.
