MARRIED

Kimball-Mullen

A very quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Mullen, on Monday, June 6th, when Hollis M. Kimball, of Fort Fairfield, Maine, was united in marriage to Stella Mae Mullen, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Mullen, Havelock, N. S. The bridal party entered the parlor, which was decorated with apple blossoms for the occasion, to the strains of a wedding march rendered by Miss Glenna Briggs, of Meductic, N. B. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. J. Sears, assisted by Rev. P. W. Briggs and F. A. Dunlop, in the presence of a few immediate friends and relatives.

A reception was held in the evening at the home of the bride's parents, about 150 guests being present. Among them were Rev. P. J. Trafton, of St. John, N. B., and Rev. H. E. Mullen, of Port Maitland, N. S.

The gifts to the bride were numerous and beautiful, consisting of an Overland Whippet Six from the groom and a fifty dollar check from her father. There were also smaller checks, silver, cut glass and linen.

Immediately after the reception the party left for a weeks' honeymoon trip to Halifax and other points of interest in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Maine.

Mrs. Kimball was organist and a teacher of a class of boys in the R. B. Church and will be greatly missed. The best wishes of friends accompanied them.—

Bradley-Hayes

A very pretty wedding, and one of much interest to a large circle of friends, took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Henry Hayes, Head of Millstream, Kings Co., N. B., when their daughter, Ida Marion, became the wife of James Hamlin Bradley, of Grey's Mills, Kings Co., N. B., Wednesday, June 22nd. Promptly at 4 o'clock p. m., to the strains of a wedding march played by Mrs. Leslie Hayes, the bridal party marched from the house to the lawn, the bride leaning upon the arm of her father, where they took their place under an arch of ferns and roses. The bride wore a pretty gown of Crepe de Chine and veil and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. J. Trafton, of Saint John, in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends. A sumptuous supper was served, after which the happy couple, amid showers of rice and confetti, left by auto for Moncton. The presents were numerous and beautiful, showing the high esteem in which they were held. They will reside at Grey's Mills.

OUR CHURCH ACTIVITIES

At the closing days of our Denominational year, we can look back with grateful hearts, for the blessing of the Lord that has been upon upon us. He has manifested His wonder working power in the salvation of some souls, and the sanctification of others while some wandering ones have been reclaimed. Praise the Lord.

Then we have young people who are ready to sing or speak or pray, whom we appreciate greatly as well as the older members.

We have members of our congregation who belong to other churches, they worship with us and we enjoy their fellowship.

Our S. School has never been so large I think as this year. Seven classes taught by consecrated teachers who have the work at heart.

The monthly Missionary meetings are very interesting. Sister Faith Sanders has been with us several times, her messages were always inspiring and of great blessing. Many were inspired to give more largely than they would have otherwise—hence we have gone over the top in our gifts for Foreign Missions.

The Praying Band meetings are seasons of blessing as well as the Wednesday night prayer meetings and the Friday night Young People's meetings.

Surely we have much to praise the Lord for, yet we regret exceedingly that we have been unable to accomplish more, when we know that all around us are souls as destitute of eternal life as the heathen are, not because they do not know the Way of Life (but because of their indifference or unwillingness to humble themselves at the foot of the cross.

We shall endeavour by HIS GRACE to work harder, pray more and believe for greater things in the coming year.

LET ALL THE SAINTS BE MUCH IN PRAYER FOR THE ALLIANCE AND CAMP MEETINGS.

We are looking for and expecting victory.

I. M. K.
