

CORRESPONDENCE.

I know that we worked her too hard. A meeting in Jonesport Sunday morning. Preaching service in the evening, the missionary rally Monday evening, Young People's service Tuesday afternoon, and then special services Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evening. But Sister Sanders was willing and God was in it, for He gave us fifteen precious young people. Praise His Name. And we believe the end is not yet. We are trying to help a little over at Jonesport, and covet your prayers for us that God will bless us while we do our best for the salvation of lost men.

Yours in the Holy War,

F. A. WATSON,

Dear Brother Trafton:

Enclosed find renewal for the Highway, which I prize very highly. I could not do without it, as it helps me very much in my daily life. I am glad to say that He saves me and my trust is in him. Praise His name. May the blessing of the Lord be upon you in your work.

Yours sincerely,

MRS. MARY DOANE.

Dear Highway:

We want to report through your columns the blessings of the Lord upon us during these past few weeks.

On Thursday, March the 14th we were privileged to have Sister Faith Sanders with us. She spoke to us in a very stirring manner of our responsibility and stewardship to God and our fellowmen.

Again on Easter Sunday she spoke to us in the evening. She spoke on the Resurrection of our Lord and Redeemer. How our hearts did burn within us as she brought the message with the blessing of God upon her soul. One precious soul came forward seeking the blessing of a clean heart. Another raised her hand for prayer.

Then on the following Sunday, the 24th, I had my first baptism. Ten young men and women followed their Lord and Master in this blessed ordinance. Such a beautiful sight to behold! Ten young people surrendering themselves to Jesus.

There should have been as many more. But they were not ready yet. We expect to have another baptism by Alliance time. Again that evening the Lord crowned our feeble, unworthy efforts with four seekers. One was a mother and this was her first start.

The following Sunday nine or ten were baptised, united with the Church.

We as a church are continuing to hold on to God for greater victories in the future. Why not? The past has been victorious! The present is glorious! The future by faith in Him and His word is rich with promises which are full and free!

May the 24th I expect D. V. to begin a campaign with Brother H. S. Mullen at Royalton. Pray for us that the Lord might bless us and make us a blessing to the people there in that place.

Yours for God and Holiness,

S. A. MULLEN.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Please find enclosed postal note for renewal for the King's Highway for another year. I enjoy reading it very much especially the letters from Africa.

Yours truly,

Seal Cove, N. B.

Dear Brother Trafton:

I wish to add a further report of our meetings at Seal Cove. As a result of the special meetings I baptized eight young men and women on Easter Sunday, after the morning service. It was a beautiful morning and everything right for the baptism, which was witnessed by a large crowd. In the evening I received six into church fellowship. Those who started in the meetings have taken hold well in the prayer meetings and are making good progress, for which we thank God. The Church was blessed and edified and a good number were definitely baptized.

To God be all the glory.

H. C. MULLEN.

The Quarterly Meeting of Districts Nos. 2 and 4 will convene with Church at Sanford, Nova Scotia, June 2nd to 5th inclusive.

Dear Highway:

We have recently closed a series of evangelistic meetings here. Evangelist Levi Ecker was with us and laboured faithfully, giving us good sermons. He proved himself to be a man of God. A number during the campaign were forward to the altar and received definite help. We trust much unseen good was accomplished. We heartily recommend Brother Ecker to any of our churches needing an evangelist next fall.

Our congregations are good. Sunday School on the increase in attendance. Prayer services seasons of refreshing and we are looking to God for victory in the future. We have received and accepted a call from the Fredericton Church for another year.

The Lord gives us personal victory over the world, flesh and the devil.

Yours in the word,

I. F. KEIRSTEAD.

Dear Brother Trafton:

I will enclose three dollars for two years renewal of the Highway.

I am sorry I have got behind in this matter, but I have been quite busy of late building a home for myself, and being near my eighty-first year, I can't work so fast as I used to. But I thank the dear Lord for health so good as I have. He is real good to me, and I praise Him as best I know how. I love to obey the Lord. I find it so much easier to always be right. It makes one feel so free and without fear, when we are with God.

Brother Trafton pray for me. I am quite alone since God took my dear wife home to rest, and I get quite lonely sometimes and God will bless you as He has oft in the past. I know you love Him and I wish all men did.

Yours truly,

J. H. BROWN

THE POWER OF TRUE LOVE.

A Christian writes as follows: "Not far from my home in Indiana, just across the line in Ohio, there lived an old woman who was the terror of all who knew her. She was finally arrested for a wicked deed, and sent to the penitentiary. She broke the laws of the institution, and they tried different kinds of punishment on her. Many times they put her in the dungeon, and for weeks at a time she lived on bread and water.

"Finally an old Quaker woman, from the same part of the State, asked permission to see her. She was taken into her presence with chains on her hands. She sat with downcast eyes before the messenger of Christ. The old Quaker lady said:

"My sister."

"The old woman cursed her and then she said: 'I love you.'

"With another oath she said:

"No one loves me."

"The lady came nearer, and, taking the sin-stained face in both hands, said:

"I love you and Jesus Christ loves you."

"She kissed her face upon one cheek and then upon the other. She broke the woman's heart. Her tears began to flow like rain. She rose to her feet. They took the chains off, and they were never put on again, and she was changed to be an angel of mercy going up and down the corridors of the prison, ministering to the wants of others. The Quaker lady won her heart by the mighty transforming love of Jesus Christ."—Selected.
