NOTES

Anyone wanting to rent a nice cottage for the season at Beulah Camp Ground, write the Editor, or it can be bought.

Remember the different funds of the denomination; they are all in accord with the spirit of holiness.

Renew your subscription at once and we will be very much obliged I am sure.

Let us all pull together and get the new dormitory paid for when it is finished.

OBITUARY

W. Ewart McKeen

A sad drowning accident occurred at South Devon on April 23rd, when W. Ewart, youngest son of Orington and Tephi McKeen, lost his life at the age of eleven years eleven months.

Ewart was a bright manly boy of good habits—a favourite of the family, well thought of by his companions at school and spoken of by neighbors as a boy who would attract attention by his strong personality. He leaves to mourn besides his parents four brothers, E. Earl, G. Clyde, Norman E. and Hiram M., and three sisters, Ina D., Grace H. and Reta B.

An impressive funeral was held at the home by Rev. I. F. Keirstead, assisted by Rev. D. G. Kaine. The service was largely attended by friends who met to pay their last tribute of respect. The floral tokens were numerous and most beautiful.

We extend to the bereaved family our prayers and deep sympathy.

Sarah Jane Tower

One of the oldest residents of Moncton passed away on Monday morning, May 2nd, 1927, at 7.30 o'clock. Sister Tower had been in failing health for a long time. She had been confined to her bed for a week with near pneumonia. The writer called on her Sunday afternoon, May 1st, and found her clear in her mind, and triumphant in her soul. There was no fear of death and she longed to be with her Lord. She was 89 years of age and had been associated with the Reformed Baptist Church in Moncton from its organization. She was held in high esteem by all who knew her. The funeral was held on Tuesday from her late home at 2.30 p. m., the writer officiating. Interment was in the cemetery at Sunny Brae. She leaves one son, John, of Moncton, N. B.; two sisters, Mrs. John Robbins of Winthrop, Me., Mrs. Mary Clark, of Moncton, N. B., a number of grandchildren. Her casket was covered with flowers. We rejoice with these old saints who have reached the heavenly shore.
