

nice donation of groceries, and we would not forget the splendid ice cream and cake. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed. For these tokens of friendship and appreciation we feel very thankful, and trust and pray that we may be a spiritual blessing in return.

Dear Brother Trafton: I am late getting in my report of the missionary meeting of Nov. 19, but will send it now. We had about eighty present. There would have been more, but it was a very stormy night. After the opening exercises, Naomi Farnham and Agalia Hillman sang a duet, "'Tis so sweet to be with my Saviour." Then the meeting was given over to Sister Faith Sanders. She gave us a very interesting address, telling us of the different members of the family, the Sterritt sisters, the native workers and their experiences and tests. We were very much interested in the native workers. How much it must mean to them to break with their old heathen customs. And yet how much it means to them to have a living Christ and Saviour in place of their dumb idols. The curios she had with her were interesting, too. Most of us felt as though we would enjoy another hour, had she had the strength to have talked to us that long. We felt well paid for going in the storm to be there. The attention was good; offering, $10.00. We enjoyed having her with us again Sunday a. m., Nov. 21st, and will be glad to have her back with us again.

Dear Highway Readers: Just a few gleanings from this part of the Lord's vineyard. The first half of the church year is gone, leaving little incidents in its wake.

God seems to smile favorably upon us as a corner of His cause. The work in general is real encouraging, both here at the church and outposts. The spiritual thermometer is rising, we believe, in spite of winter storms that have hindered somewhat. Those that gather always bring along a coal for the fire, which helps to warm up the services. There is a small union church at Weaver Settlement, in which services have always been held by pastors of this field. We are continuing these with God's help. The interest here is on the increase, as the last few services a number of the young people have attended and manifested an interest in their souls' welfare. While this is a small place, there is a chance to do a great work, as the need is great, and no other services held, giving us a fine privilege to work. Our other outpost at Easton, where we hold forth in the school-house, are real seasons of blessings. We have a few real genuine saved and sanctified young people that make the meetings real feasts.

We have been and are greatly hindered in our work this winter, which has tended to a loss of interest. My throat troubled me greatly until after the operation, when it seemed to improve for a while, but lately it is rapidly growing worse again, so much so that some Sundays I am unable to preach at all. We cannot understand the why and wherefore of these things, but God knows best, and I am talking to Him about it. Unless God takes a hand in the near future, I will have to lay by a few months. We ask your prayers.

There are a few more items I wish to mention without taking too much space. We are taking this way to thank all that have made our stay thus far a pleasant one. The church and friends came to our help and defrayed our hospital expenses, and not only this, but remembered us with their offerings while we were absent.

We would not want to forget to thank the Port Maitland and Sandford people for the nice parlor stove donated to the parsonage. The parsonage is now equipped with two stoves. It is greatly appreciated by pastor and people.

With a thank you to our parishioners and friends for the best Xmas yet, we are,

Yours for the old-fashioned holiness,
L. J. SEARS.

Dear Highway: It has been a long time since I have sent you my testimony. It is wonderful how the Lord has blessed my soul and given me victory over the devil and every opposing element, the world, the flesh, and brought me through to perfect victory. I am enjoying His grace and love in my heart. I am so glad I am saved through and through and cleansed from all sin, and have the blessing in my life. Praise His name! Since coming to Detroit to live, I have found a blessed, good people that know the Lord and zealous for His cause, the C. M. Allison Tabernacle church. Thank the Lord for these people, and the first church of the Nazarene. God has given great victory to these churches, souls are being saved in every meeting. Pastor H. W. Jerrett, of the Nazarene, said last Sunday night since July he has had 100 souls at the altar and every one most got through to victory. Praise the Lord forever. I am going through.

A. S. PARLEE.

Port Maitland, York Co., N. S.

Dear Brother Trafton: We would like to express through the columns of The Highway our thanks to the many friends who so kindly remembered us at Christmas time. This was indeed a merry Christmas to us, and we are very grateful to our Heavenly Father and to all the cheerful givers who helped to make Christmas so pleasant for us, and who remembered us so kindly with their gifts and kindness. We say "thank you" to all. May's God blessing be upon you.

The Lord is blessing on this field of labor. We find our time quite well occupied with preaching two or three times every Sunday. We have cottage meetings and Bible class Monday and Tuesday evenings; prayer meetings on Wednesday and Thursday evenings. The young people seem anxious to learn of God, and we feel like pressing on. Of course holy living along with radical holiness preaching does not suit the carnal nature on this field any better than anywhere else; so we are not surprised to find there are those who at every opportunity oppose the work. But best of all, God is with us. "If God be for us, who can be against us?"

We are beginning revival meetings at Port Maitland, Sunday, Jan. 9th, assisted by Sister Hazel Mullen. We covet the prayers of The Highway readers.

Yours in the faith,
HARTLEY MULLEN.

OBITUARY

Mr. Nehemiah Finnemore

Mr. Nehemiah Finnemore departed this life on Dec. 24th as the result of an accident received in the lumber woods, a limb falling caused a fracture of the skull and death followed in about ten hours.

Mr. Finnemore was formerly of Forest Glen, Victoria Co., N. B., but had made his residence at Fort Fairfield, Maine, for the past twenty years. He leaves to mourn their loss, his widow and three sons, Herbert and Roy, at home, and Basil in Wyoming; also four brothers, James, of Caribou, Me., and Whitfield, John and George, of Forest Glen, N. B. He also left two sisters, Mrs. Raymond Searway, of Fort Fairfield and Mrs. Augustus Perkins, of Hodgdon, Me. The service was held in the United Baptist Church at Forest Glen and interment was made in the cemetery near the church, Rev. F. T. Wright officiating.

Mrs. Maude A. Gardiner

Funeral services held at the Armstrong funeral home on Tuesday afternoon for the late Mrs. Maude A. Gardiner were attended by a large number of friends to pay their last respects. The Rev. Roy F. Smee and Rev. Chas. Thompson, of the Nazarene Church, conducted the services, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Burnsland cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Grobe sang a duet, "No disappointment in Heaven," and a quartette, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Grobe, Mrs. Jamieson and Mr. Bartram, rendered "The Pearly White City." The quartette also sang "The Eastern Gate" before and after the graveside services. Mrs. Gardiner had been ill only a few weeks and passed away at the family residence, 1202 Fourteenth avenue west, on Saturday evening. She was born in Waterville, N. B., and came west with her husband, Harry E. Gardiner, in 1910, to Vancouver, and the following year arriving in Calgary.

She was well known for her bright and happy disposition and for the interest she took in church work, particularly along musical lines. She was organist for the Nazarene church for the past number of years and played for the large interdenominational meeting held in the old Regent theatre a short time ago, and for the annual Nazarene camp meeting held at Red Deer last summer. Besides her husband she leaves to mourn their loss, her mother, Mrs. Bertha Kimball; a brother, Wendell Kimball, and a daughter, Pauline, to whom she had not only been a mother, but a pal and companion as well. The pallbearers were: Dr. Elmer Wright, H. V. Grainger, S. S. Toppin and J. F. Anderl.

Floral tributes were received from the following: Husband and daughter, mother and brother, Rev. and Mrs. Roy F. Smee, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Storey, Mr. and H. Poothe, Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Henricks and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gowans, Mr. and Mrs. A. Grobe, J. H. Windsor, John F. Anderl and family, the boys at the shop, the Royal barber shop, Barbers' Union, Nazarene Church and Sunday school, George Crum, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and the Master Barbers.—Calgary Paper.

Mrs. Harry Gardiner who died at Calgary on Nov. 6th will be remembered by the friends at Hartland, where she was a member of the Reformed Baptist Church before going to the west. We extend to the husband and daughter and other relatives our sincere and deepest sympathy.
