

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

Rev. H. E. Mullen began special meetings at Port Maitland, N. S., on Sunday, Jan. 9th. He is being assisted by Miss Hazel Mullen.

Rev. H. C. Mullen has postponed his special meetings at Seal Cove until the month of March, when Rev. E. E. Curtis of Lowville, N. Y., will be the evangelist.

Rev. F. A. and Mrs. Dunlop are on a wedding trip through Maine and Massachusetts. They will make their home at Perth, N. B.

Rev. H. S. Dow spent the week, Jan. 3-8, with his family in Fredericton, N. B.

The Church at Jonesport held services for prayer for one week beginning New Year's Day. They report services good but not largely attended.

PERSONALS

Robert Harding, of Woodstock, who was rushed to the Fisher Memorial Hospital during the first week of the new year, and was operated on for appendicitis, is improving.

Mrs. R. L. Allingham, of Woodstock, is in poor health, being confined to her bed for several weeks.

Isaac Carlin, of West Saint John, is in failing health. He is now confined to his bed.

A. J. Marsten, of Woodstock, has been confined to his home for several weeks.

O. R. Estey, of Woodstock continues to improve.

Robert Allingham, of Welshpool, Campobello, N. B., spent the week between Christmas and New Year's with his sister, Mrs. H. K. Ingersoll, Saint John.

Mrs. Moses Hillman, who has been visiting in Lowell, Mass., and vicinity, has returned to her home in Hartland, N. B.

W. R. Carson, of Norton, is holding meetings each Sunday night at Mercer Settlement, Kings Co. Thank the Lord for laymen who have the work on their hearts.

NOTES.

We thank all those who have sent their renewals, but we want many more.

We should have many more new subscribers; let every reader send us a new subscriber, beginning at once.

NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS,

That you will stand for the essentials.
That you will give liberty in the non-essentials.

That you will have charity toward all.
That you will renew your subscription immediately.

That you will live holiness and in that way preach it everywhere you go.

That you will pray continually for a mighty outpouring of the spirit upon yourself and others.—P. J. T.

HELD OVER.

In order to publish all our correspondence, other articles crowded out will appear in the next issue of The Highway.

Note.—We are now paying out two hundred dollars a quarter for the support of native evangelists but are not receiving near that much for that purpose. Also Dr. Sanders informs me that the work is spreading so several more native helpers are needed. Are there not several more individuals who would like to preach to the Africans by Proxy? One hundred dollars a year supports a native the whole of his time. More native workers are available as soon as the money is on hand for their support. Let us do our level best to send them into the great harvest field before the harvest time is past.—I. F. K.

REQUEST FOR PRAYER

My wife suffered a complete breakdown early in the fall and has not yet regained her usual health. She continues in a delicate condition and needs help. Will the whole Highway Family please join in prayer that God may touch her. Breathe a short prayer just now as you read this, lest you forget.

H. C. MULLEN.

Seal Cove, Grand Manan, N. B.

MARRIED

Palmer-Smith

At the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Jonesport, Wednesday, Dec. 22nd, 1926, Ernest S. Palmer, of Patten, Maine, and Kathleen E., youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Smith, of West Jonesport, were united in marriage by the writer. We extend to the young people our best wishes.

M. ELLA SLIPP.

Dunlop-Graham

On the evening of Dec. 25th the Christmas festivities were added to at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Patrick Graham, Maple Ridge, when her youngest daughter, Ethel Margaret, became the wife of Rev. F. A. Dunlop.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. T. Sabine under a beautiful arch and witnessed by immediate relatives only. The large variety shower of silver, china, linen, cash and cheques tendered Miss Graham on Dec. 17th served to show the esteem in which she was held by her many friends. After a trip through Maine and Massachusetts, Rev. and Mrs. Dunlop will reside at Perth, N. B.

CHRISTMAS TREE AND SPECIAL OFFERING FOR THE FOREIGN MISSIONS—EXCELLENT MUSIC BY THE CHOIR

The Missionary and Christmas entertainment at the Reformed Baptist Church Dec. 29th was a grand success. There was a splendid program consisting of special music by the choir, "Joy to the World," "O Come All Ye Faithful," "The Christmas Song" and "Angels from the Realms of Glory" were sung by the choir. Miss Lois Goodspeed, organist. Junior girls sang "Away in the Manger" and "The First Noel."

There were recitations by Ruth Morrell, Mavis Cameron, Ruth Peterson, Elsie Hagerman, Evelyn Sinnott, Iva Hagerman, Edith Lamson, Phyllis Lamson, James Bartlett and Evelyn Lamson.

Gifts of money were hung on the tree by the children and others. There also was a generous offering taken for Foreign Missions.

A very pleasing part of the proceedings was the presentation of a number of gifts to well known officials of the church. The pastor, Rev. I. F. Kierstead, and Mrs. Kierstead received a substantial purse from members of the congregation. Mrs. W. B. Wiggins received a large box of chocolates from her class. George DeLong was presented with a valuable pencil by members of his class and Miss Lois Goodspeed, the organist, received a fountain pen from members of the congregation.—Daily Mail, Fredericton, N. B.

Here we begin to learn to do that which we shall continue and complete above.—Duquet.

"Yet, now, if Thou wilt forgive their sin—; and if not, blot me, I pray Thee out of Thy book."—Moses.

"I long for the conversion of souls more sensibly than for anything besides."—Dodderidge.
