EDITORIAL

Much importance is attached to the success or failure of our Camp Meetings. We should all be very much engaged that the meetings should be a success. We engage a special evangelist to lead the host, while many of our own ministers, probably all of them, will be on the ground, some of course are on committees, so that their time is almost wholly taken up with the necessary work entailed in a big camp meeting, to provide for the comfort of the attending crowds; those that are not thus engaged should shoulder the responsibility of the spiritual end of the camps. It seems only reasonable that those who have not the secular cares of the camp should take themselves to specially wait on God for a great outpouring. All must pull together and strongly if the enemy of all righteousness is signally defeated. May we all humble ourselves before God, to see how mightily he will undertake for us. Let us go not to criticize and find fault, but to pray, praise and encourage. The battle is the Lord's, but he wants men and women filled with the Holy Spirit, to uphold the leaders in the camp. Let us be like Aaron and Hur, who help up the hands of Moses, and Israel prevailed. We must do it for the camp meetings of this season. God grant it shall be so.

CORRESPONDENCE

Seal Cove, N. B.

Dear Highway:

It is not very often that we send any report to your columns, but feel led to do so today.

The Lord has been wonderfully blessing souls the last few weeks, and he is very precious to me just now. Praise His name.

I promised to go to N. S. to help Brother H. E. Mullen in special meetings, but was delayed a few days with an attack of appendicitis, but through prayer and faith in God, I was able to go the 17th, but while I was with Brother Mullen the devil troubled me in my body, but we read where he troubled Job; but whether boils or appendicitis, God is able for the situation. Praise His Name!

While at N. S. I met with some of God's dear people, and enjoyed being in their presence very much. Bless God we don't have to take a back seat for the devil these days, for we as God's children have fellowship with the best people on earth. Glory be to God.

We had a good time in the Lord at Brazil Lake, the meetings were seasons of blessing, and God was there in mighty power. Praise His dear name. We saw a few souls saved from the hands of the enemy, for which we praise God.

Brethren, let us unite our prayers for these souls that they may be established in the things of God, and be a blessing to other lost souls, and that the Church may be strong and powerful as in the days gone by.

Brother Mullen is giving his people the old rugged truth, may the Lord bless him and give him souls for his labor. We enjoyed Brother and Sister Mullen's fellowship, and the stay in their home.

I stopped over two days to the Quarterly Meeting at Sandford and both meetings were blessed of God. It looked as if it would be a wonderful quarterly.

I expect to go with Brother Dunlap after Beulah Camp Meeting (D. V.) May God bless our little band of people and keep us on the firing line.

Your brother in Him,

RUE N. INGALLS.

Fort Fairfield, Me.

Dear Highway:

Following is the report of our last missionary meeting held June 3. Meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. F. T. Wright, singing We'll work till Jesus comes. Scripture reading St. John 10. Prayer by Mrs. Ames, Rev. F. T. Wright and Mrs. Wright. Song, Ready, after which the report was read and freewill offering taken, which amounted to $7.32.

Election of Officers for coming year were as follows: President, Ella Slipp; Vice President, Ruby White; Secretary and Treasurer, Annie Higgins; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Otis Ames.

The president then gave the meeting over to Mr. Wright, who made some helpful remarks on the Scripture read, and opened the service for testimony. The meeting closed with prayer by Mr. Wright.

Rev. P. J. Trafton:

Enclosed find money order for renewal for Highway. I enjoy the Highway. It is a good paper.

MRS. J. H. ROBERTS

Keene, N. H.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Please find enclosed my pledge toward the new dormitory fund. I wish we could give more, but we are under a great obligation—four hustling boys to bring up and educate. Pray the dear Lord to give us the wisdom to train them in the fear and admonition of Jesus Christ. What responsibility is left on parents in this age of fast living, and when they are even taught in the schools that there is no God. Oh, the Lord help us who profess his precious name to be on fire for Him at all times, holding high the blood-stained banner of the cross.

If it is the dear Lord's will, we are aiming to attend Beulah Camp Meetings this year, and meet the dear saints there, and enjoy their fellowship and also have a season of refreshing.

The Lord has seen fit to take my dear father out of his suffering, since last camp-meeting time, and I believe he has gone home in Heaven, although it was an eleventh hour prayer. Jesus has said, Whosoever will may come. Praise His holy name, and I believe he heard that death-bed prayer. He has been a sufferer for ten years from a shock, but God had to take him through that refining fire to bring him to himself, or in other words to humble him.

Jesus is very precious to me, helping over the rough places and gives me such sweet peace and joy in serving him. I have determined to be at my best for Him each day to show the poor sinner what a kind, loving Saviour we have ready to forgive the vilest of men. Praise Him!

Yours for full salvation,

MRS. V. H. BECKWITH

Fredericton, N. B.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Please find enclosed postal note for my renewal to The King's Highway for another year. I enjoy reading it very much especially the letters from South Africa. I am very glad that I ever became a reader of the Highway, and receive much spiritual help from it. I am glad that I can truly say, I have victory over sin. The past has been victorious, the present glorious, Jesus is very precious to me and by his grace I mean to prove true to the end.

Yours truly,

MRS. FREDERICK LYONS.

OBITUARY

About two weeks ago the home of Eugene Ingersoll of this place was suddenly made very sad when a telegram brought the sad news that their daughter, Zelma, had suddenly died in a hospital in Boston. A later communication stated that the cause was influenza. The deceased was only 19 years of age and was married only last fall. One distressing feature was the fact that the parents were expecting her home in a week or two to make them a visit, she not having been home since leaving for the U. S., about three years ago. Much sympathy has been felt for the sorrowing family.
