...Christ the King...

HOW GREAT God's love to fallen man,
Has been revealed in His wise plan;
When, as a babe in Bethlehem,
The King of Glory came to reign.

A miracle we must concede,
The Holy Ghost did Him conceive
A spotless virgin e'en he chose
To bear the blessed Son of God.

The prophets wrote of him, we read
He was to be of David's seed;
Wonderful, Counsellor, Prince of Peace,
Whose rule and reign would never cease.

The angel, on that wond'rous night,
Surrounded by the hosts of light,
Announced to shepherds, then, the song
All praise to God, for Christ was born.

'Twas peace on earth, good-will toward men,
The shepherds, startled at the strain
Aroused, to Bethlehem they came,
And in a manger found Him lain.

The East to wise men gave a star,
It's magic drew them from afar,
And gold, frankincense, myrrh, they bring
A present to the King of Kings.

So let us worship this our Lord,
The ever blessed Son of God;
Who lived on earth, it's just as plain
That soon He will return again.
