

CORRESPONDENCE

McKee's Mills, N. B.

Dear Brother Trafton:

I am so glad that I am enjoying salvation as the days come and go. God saved me from sin, and he keeps me amidst the testings, and trials of life, and I mean to go through with him.

Yours in His service,
MILDRED BLANCHE McDONALD

Dear Brother Trafton:

I am sending my renewal to The King's Highway, which I enjoy so much. My soul is always blessed as I read the testimonies of the different ones, and the articles on true holiness. I am trusting in the God of the ages, he who would have us "Do justly, love mercy and walk humbly before him." The blood covers my soul. Praise his precious name.

Dear Brother Trafton:

I am sending my renewal for The King's Highway for another year. The paper is very dear to me. I am not able to get to many quarterly meetings, and it is hard for me to read fine print. Trusting that you will have many blessings at this Christmas season I am,

Dear Brother:

Please find my renewal to the Highway. It is a wonderful paper, so inspiring for good. Remember us in your prayers.

Dear Highway:

It has been sometime since you heard from this part of the vineyard. A few lines would not be amiss. With the Apostle we can say, "That our Redeemer liveth." Praise His name.

We have been without a pastor for several months until the coming of Brother Henderson recently. He is an earnest worker and seems filled with the spirit. We praise the Lord for men who are not afraid to stand before a dying world, to sound out the gospel and declare all the counsel of God. Brother Henderson is doing much good outside of his Church. We have four meetings a week in the Church and Sunday School, also two meetings a week at North Greenville and Sunday School. God has been blessing the work in that locality and souls are being saved, for which we praise the Lord. Pray for us, brethren, that souls may be saved and the name of Jesus glorified. God in his wonderful love and mercy will deliver his own. Thanks be unto God.

Yours in the faith.

LOVE!

Love stood in the fiery furnace,
Love saved Daniel in the lion's den,
Love directed David's sling shot,
Love it guided David's pen.
Love has been the ruling factor all down through the ages and keeps this universe from destruction. Jesus gave commandment to his disciples, that they love one another as I have loved you. Much could be said on this subject; one thing is sure, where there is love there is unity. Oh, for that unity that shook the walls of Jericho, and filled the upper room and the more abundant life was manifested, and heaven became a reality to the children of God.

With the world and the lukewarm professors of religion united to defeat the very thing Jesus died for, it behooves the holiness people to earnestly contend for the faith once delivered to the saints.

It is written that wicked men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived, and this is being fulfilled before our very eyes. Many people of today are so wrapped up in the fads and fashions of the world, that God is forgotten entirely. The family altars have been broken down and hence the children do not hear prayer in the home and go out into life's battles alone, no mother's prayers to follow them, and they go down in sin. The children in the day schools are largely denied the privilege of hearing the word of God read as it used to be; influences have been to work which would overthrow evangelical religion. The Lord help us as holiness people. May we arouse ourselves and keep the Holy Ghost fire burning even if we may be called fanatics. Let us be against sin and for God to the last man. Let us remember that we reap what we sow. Prayer changes things, and we see things that need changing. Pray for us.

Dear Highway:

Just a few lines from this part of the vineyard. I have just arrived home from my little evangelistic trip in N. S. You have already noticed my being down there, assisting Brother H. E. Mullen in special meetings. I sure did have one good time in every sense of the word, especially in the Spiritual sense. Truly the fellowship with the saints of God is precious. The poet hath said, "If fellowship here is so precious, O who can conceive the delight, when eye to eye we shall behold Him, when faith shall be merged into sight."

We surely have some good people down there in Port Maitland, and Sandford, so faithful in standing by the work. I was two and a half weeks at each place and some folks attended just about every meeting in both places. I know by the way they stood by the evangelist that they do the same by their pastor. Its great to preach to a bunch of holiness people that really want holiness. I never enjoyed preaching any more than I did with these dear people. Then the pastor, God bless him, he is some man to work with. He did not sit behind you and look at some story book, or go to sleep on the job, no, Sir; he would just sit there and inspire you to do your best preaching. Every time you'd look around his eyes would be snapping, and looked like he was saying, go to it, brother, your doing fine. He never looked once as though he was afraid you would knock some of his people off the Christmas tree. Well, praise the Lord, I know I tried to help him all I could, and I felt he tried to do the same towards me. I enjoyed his fellowship both at the Church and in the home. He has one dear, good wife and four fine children. May God richly bless them all.

We want to thank God for the way He undertook for us both physically and spiritually. God was with us from the beginning to the end. If He had not have been, our efforts would have been in vain.

We did not have large crowds at the services, but good crowds, neither was there a so-called big meeting, but we felt the meetings were good ones. There were just a very few services, but what there were were from one to ten at the altar either for conversion, reclamation or sanctification.

We prayed God to give us a revival of holiness. Holiness is no more popular today than it ever was, and we feel that the great need of the holiness movement everywhere is for more people to get through where they have become established in holiness. A lot of people are established in their preconceived ideas and church creeds, but what we need is to be established in holiness. Holiness is the passport into glory, for Heb. 12:14 says: "Holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord." It is the capchief to our Christian experience. Nowhere in the Bible does it say Holiness and, and, and, as a number of people have us believe no, but just that ye might be established in Holiness. When one turns their back on holiness they either drift back into formalism or out in the wiles of fanaticism. Beloved, let us stick to the essentials of the Word of God, keep on the main trunk line that leads straight from earth to the realms of eternal glory. The only thing that crowded man from the Garden of Eden was sin, and the only thing that will keep us out of Heaven will be the same thing, but remember we must get rid of that without and within, but when that is gone I believe we are just as sure of Heaven as though we were already there. All we have got to do after this takes place in our life is to add II. Peter 1:1-12, read please. And we shall never fall. Amen! He saves and sanctifies just now. Hallelujah. Pray for us.

Yours for salvation,

H. S. MULLEN

I am sending renewal for the King's Highway. Dear Brother:

I am so late in sending it that I will renew for the next year also. I like the paper very much and don't want to be without it.
