

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

Rev. I. F. Kierstead was called to Saint John on Saturday, April 2nd, on account of the death of his sister-in-law. He had charge of the funeral service at the home in West Saint John Sunday afternoon and accompanied the body to Hampton on Monday for burial.

The interior of the church building at Fredericton has been repainted and varnished, and new linoleum on the aisles gives it a very neat appearance.

Miss Hazel Mullen will assist in a meeting at Wood Island and then to Island Falls, Me.

Rev. Mrs. I. M. Kierstead is suffering greatly from neuritis.

We are glad of the report of the success in the meetings at Marysville and also at Seal Cove.

Rev. M. Ella Slipp is still in West Somerville, Mass. She will take up work again as soon as her condition warrants it.

Miss Faith Sanders has returned to Fredericton. She will visit Beals, Me., for the 24th. She will visit Grand Manan early in May and expects to visit all the Churches where she has not already been, before Alliance. We trust she will be given rousing receptions everywhere. We trust our people are praying for revivals and that they will begin to pray for the greatest camp meetings we have ever had, in the mighty outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon us.

Brethren, let us not forget our young people who are preparing themselves to preach the gospel of our precious Lord. Not much has been coming in to the fund of late. Perhaps some of them may be needing just the amount of money which God told you to send, but which you have either refused or neglected to give. Let us lay up our treasure in heaven and become rich toward God by investing our money in His name with love and prayer.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Arthur L. Baird, who departed this life April 13th, 1926:

One year has passed, my heart's still sore;
As time goes on, I miss him more.

HIS WIFE, BERTHA L. BAIRD.

MARRIED

Parlee-Ramseyer

A very pleasant event took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Ramseyer, Fort Wayne, Ind., when their youngest daughter, Rosina Mary, became the wife of Carl I. Parlee, Saturday, April 2nd, 1927. The ceremony was performed in the presence of relatives and friends of the contracting parties. After the ceremony a sumptuous luncheon was partaken of and the happy couple left for a short wedding trip to Chicago. They will be at home 3820 Arlington Ave., Fort Wayne, Ind., after April 10th.

"Say not my Soul." From whence can God relieve thy care?

Remember omnipotence hath servants everywhere.

His methods are supreme; His ways sublimely grand.

God never is before His time and never is behind.

Here we begin to learn to do that which we shall continue and complete above.—Duquet.

A TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF DEACON BAIRD

Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness sake for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you and persecute you and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely for my sake.

Blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

Blessed is he that endureth temptation, for when he is tried he shall receive the crown of life which the Lord has promised to them that love Him.

Blessed is he that readeth and they that hear the words of this prophecy and keep those things which are written therein.

Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection, on such the second death hath no power.

Blessed are they that do His commandments that they may have right to the tree of life and may enter in through the gate into the city.

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? Or who shall stand in his holy place?

He that hath clean hands and a pure heart, who hath not lifted up his soul into vanity, nor sworn deceitfully. He shall receive the blessing from the Lord and righteousness from the God of his salvation. Ps. 24:3-4-5. Mark the perfect man and behold the upright for the end of that man is peace.—Ps. 37:37.

The following are a few of the many last thoughts penned by Brother Baird a few days before his passing:

"Abounding More and More"

Since God shed His love abroad in my heart
I've been abounding more and more,
His exceeding compassion has been my delight,

Where Satan has oft pressed me sore.

Since the Spirit in His fullness came into my heart

With abounding love more than before
My soul gets a vision of infinite heights
And abounds exceedingly more.

There is no boundary line to the love of God.
Press on, oh, my soul ever more.

Thou canst not touch the limits of love divine
But abound yet abundantly more.

Then with all the rest of the blood-washed Saints

We will meet on the golden shore.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Please find enclosed my renewal for the Highway. I like it fine, for I do believe just what it teaches. Praise the Lord for salvation that satisfies the longing of the soul; the precious blood cleanses my heart just now, and I have blessed victory.

Yours in Christ,

J. S. RICHARDSON.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Please find enclosed my renewal to the King's Highway. I could not do without it. It always seems like the coming of an old friend. I wish more of the old friends would write for it.
