EDITORIAL

The King's Highway wishes all its readers A Happy New Year.

Ere this issue reaches you another year will have passed, and we will have crossed the threshold of the New Year. We naturally ask ourselves, what will this year bring? How little we know in many respects what the future holds. One thing we can assure ourselves of however, and that is God will not fail in any one of the promises He has made.

It may be that there has been failure along some lines and because of this the enemy would seek to becloud the vision and have one give up. The Apostle Paul said, "Forgetting those things that are behind, I press toward the mark of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." Let us enter the New Year with faith in God, cleanness of hands and a pure heart. O that God's people everywhere were living in readiness for the coming of Jesus; all bickerings would cease, non-essentials would largely disappear and the glory of God would be upon us. Let us see to it that this year sees a return to the old paths and a walking therein. The church is drifting, we fear and the end of the age is nigh, even at the doors. The folk that are spiritual will need to become more spiritual to stem the awful tide that is sweeping in on the world. God is still on the throne, and he still answers prayer. This can be the best year yet in our lives if we so desire. The best gifts are for us, the more excellent way before us and all things are possible to him that believeth. Praise the Lord.

We appreciate very much the interest taken and help given by the holy brethren, of our own and other bodies. May the Lord bless you all dear Brethern and Sisters. We trust that you will continue to remember us with your letters and articles. We also wish to express our appreciation to our foreign Missionaries who have not failed to keep our readers informed about the work in Africa. Surely we have much to praise God for as a people. Our success in the future will depend on our willingness to walk the humble way with the lowly Christ.

Dear Brother Trafton:

I wish to say that the Historical Number of the King's Highway was excellent. I have read it with great interest. Your fathers in the Maritimes have put up a fight similar to ours that the glorious cause of Scriptural Holiness might not perish from the earth. It now remains for us to maintain not only the standard of doctrine for which they so sacrificially fought but also the standard of character. Growth and wealth are encouraging but sometimes tend to cause our rising generation to tone down. May they ever keep the heaven-born convictions of the fathers.

I am looking forward sometime to be able to visit Beulah Camp and bring the greetings of the prairies to the brethren who are holding up the standard in the East. God bless you all.

Yours in the Lord,

R. H. HAMILTON

Note.—Rev. R. H. Hamilton is the Editor of The Canadian Free Methodist. I am sure he would receive a hearty welcome at Beulah.—Editor.

CORRESPONDENCE

Haverhill, Mass.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Enclosed find P. O. order for Highway. I am leaving for Prairie, Washington, where I will make my home with my sister, Mrs. Alex Johnston. Not enjoying good health yet, I praise the Lord I feel good in my soul. I praise Him for forgiveness of sins, for the blood that cleanses and the Holy Spirit that fills my heart with His love. My only desire is to serve Him and at all times be able to say, Thy will be done.

Yours in The Faith

Dear Highway Friends:

Just a few lines at this time saying I am enjoying full salvation as well as enjoying working for the Master in this part of His Vineyard.

When I left Beulah, last July, I left with the thought in mind of taking a six month's rest, but at the close of the second month, I felt so well and strong again, that I was anxious to get into the work.

In September a call came to assist Brothers Sabine and Laite in the Campaign at Millville. From there we went to Fredericton. At that time I had no other meetings in view, so accepted work with Brother Laite in a few meetings in Massachusetts. From the very first I felt that I was in the Will of God. It has been a pleasure indeed to meet so many of my relatives and friends from home. Last Sunday evening Brother Smith asked all present who were born in the Maritimes and Newfoundland to stand, and fully seven eighths of the congregation arose. It's no wonder that they have such good Holiness churches over here!

Everyone is especially busy, but in spite of the rush, people are finding time to pray, and God is blessing.

I expect to return to Canada the 1st of February, and will be glad to help in the work there wherever there is an opening.

Yours in The Master's Service

Dear Brother Trafton:

Just a few lines by way of sending my testimony to the Highway. Have been intending to write but things have kept me very busy. We have just finished our mid-semester examinations. I feel I passed on all. I am glad to report victory in my soul. Jesus is dearer each step of the way. The Holy Spirit abides, I am His, daily I feel my need of the efficacy of the cleansing blood of Jesus. I feel more at home of late, getting adjusted seemed rather a difficulty at first. I feel sure of having made no mistake by coming to Ashbury. I am praying for God to permit me to stay here until I am instructed in a few things which will help fallen humanity. I am anxiously looking for the year in which I shall be able to go back to N. B. and tell the old story of the blood-stained Calvary. Jesus saves and sanctifies now as he ever did. Trust the Holy Spirit is preparing people for the Appearing of Christ Jesus. I feel that there is no time to waste. Remember me in prayer. Jesus is real to me.

Yours in His Service

Dear Brother in the Lord:

I've heard dear Father Moses call your name and speak of you so often I feel as if I knew you. Often Mr. Moses wanted me to write a line for the Highway.

I thank God for ever permitting such a man of God to live with us. He certainly walked and talked daily with the Lord. I was a backslider when his daughter and I were married, but I don't believe any person could live with such a Christian very long without becoming convicted and eventually a Christian. It certainly was true with me; now and for nearly a year I have enjoyed full salvation for my soul and healing for my body. The Lord gave me wonderful healing about three months ago:

A year ago there came a small pimple on my face near my right temple, and it grew to be so bad. I was advised by an M. D. to have it burnt out by an X-ray treatment, but instead I asked for prayer. Brother Moses prayed for me and asked God to strip that work of the devil off my face and in just one week every trace of it was gone. Glory to God for such a Saviour, one who heals us, soul and body and makes us so happy we want to tell of His wonderful love to others. I feel like running with all my soul to make up all lost time.

Wife and I are trusting we may be able to come to Beulah next summer.

Dear Walter is in very bad shape, has creeping paralysis, unless the Lord does something soon he can't be with us long. Pray for him and all of us.

Dear Highway:

We would like to thank the people of our church and congregation who on the evening of the 20th, of December gathered at our home where a very enjoyable evening was spent together in song and social chat the good sisters served us with a fine lunch and Brother F. T. Wright on behalf of the company with a few choice remarks presented us with a purse of money. We tried to thank them for this and for all their kindness to us since coming here as pastor. We then knelt in prayer and tried to thank our heavenly father who is the giver of all good and perfect gifts and to ask His blessing on His children who are so good to His unworthy servant.

Rev. P. J. Trafton,

Dear Brother: You will find my renewal for The Highway. I love this little paper and often think what efficient writers there are. Please pray for me that I may be able to perform all my duty to God.
