CONCERNING RELIGION

No sciences are better attested than is the religion of the Bible.—Isaac Newton.

Religion is the best armor in the world, but the worst cloak.—J. Newton.

What a lovely bridge between old age and childhood is religion.—Bulwer.

If we make religion our business, God will make it our blessedness.—Adam.

WHICH FOR YOU?

Which position do you occupy in the church?

An attender or an absenter?

A pillar or a sleeper?

A wing or a weight?

A power or a problem?

A promoter or a provoker?

A giver or a getter?

A goer or a gadder?

A booster or a buckler?

A supporter or a sponger?

A soldier or a sulker?

A server or a sorehead?

A worker or a worry?

A friend or a fault-finder?

A helper or a hinderer?

There with the goods or off with an excuse?

Can the minister count on you?—Exchange.

It is a fatal mistake to suppose that we cannot be holy except on the condition of a situation and circumstances in life such as shall suit ourselves. It is one of the first principles of holiness to leave our times and our places, our going out and our coming in, our wasted and our godly heritage entirely with the Lord.—T. C. Upham.

—Herald of Holiness.

Have you ceased to say "Can God?" Have you learned to say "God can?" Then rejoice, for your deliverance is at hand!

—The Pentecostal Herald.

"God will fulfill the desire of them that fear him; he also will hear their cry, and will save them." (Psalm 145:19).
