The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. J. Sears of Havelock, N. S., in the presence of a number of invited guests. The bridal couple stood under an arch made for the occasion, attended by Minnie Flemming, sister of the bride and Victor N. Rushton. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Roy Langille of Oxford Junction. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Lorne of Belmont. The bride was gowned in white satin with accessories and wore the conventional veil. After the ceremony the happy couple with guests were served to a buffet lunch served by Misses Helen and Jean Doyle, Hazel Webb.

The bride's going away suit was of brown jersey with shoes and stockings to match.

The newly wedded couple will reside in Nantucket where the groom holds a position as book-keeper. The wedding presents were numerous and lovely. The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque for a thousand dollars. Their many friends join in wishing them much happiness.
