

CORRESPONDENCE

Cliffondale Mass.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Greetings in the precious name of Jesus, whose we are, and whom we serve. Please find enclosed money order for our Highway to date. We enjoy the paper very much and try to pass it on to others.

Glad to say we are still under the saving and keeping power of the precious Blood. Hallelujah! God's blessing is on the work here and we are keeping busy for Him. His work grows dearer and souls more precious, as the years come and go. God bless every member of the Highway family.

REV. AND MRS. L. J. ALLEY

North Greenville, N. S.

To the King's Highway:

Dear Friends: I think it my duty to write a few lines telling you of our campaign in North Greenville and how the devil was so gloriously defeated. For one week and a half the battle raged, the siege was strong. We had a meeting every night and we attacked all the haunts and devices of the enemy of man's soul, with the old time gospel. We were about giving up when the enemy's ranks began to break up, and we rejoiced with the angels in heaven. The altar was filled two nights with weeping and seeking souls. Eight claimed salvation and three were baptized in water Sunday Sept. 16th. Praise the Lord. Keep on praying; God is on the giving hand and will hear our cry, so let us be of one accord and the very foundation of hell will be shaken.

Yours in the love of God,

HOWARD G. GRACE

Sandford, Yarmouth, N. S.

October 2nd, 1928.

Bro. Trafton: You will find report of Quarterly as follows:

The 29th session of Quarterly Meeting of this district convened with the church at Sandford from Sept. 20 to the evening of the 23rd. Thursday evening Bro. Dow preached from the text found in Matthew, 3rd chapter and 3rd verse. He explained the different kinds of "preparation" a soul needs to meet God's conditions.

Friday evening Bro. Dow again brought the message found in John's Gospel, 15-8. Man's chief business is to glorify God. A man is known by his company or "fruits." "By their fruits ye shall know them."

Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock the business meeting opened with singing. Scripture was read by the president and prayer by Rev. H. E. Mullen. Roll call found the following pastors and delegates present: Rev. L. J. Sears, Rev. H. S. Dow and wife, Rev. H. E. Mullen, Mrs. Warren Sollows, Mr Fred Sollows, Port Maitland; Mrs. Rebecca Cann, Brazil Lake; Annie Green, New Tusket; Mrs. Edmund Churchill and Aaron Churchill, Sandford.

Election of officers: President, Mrs. Edmund Churchill; secretary, George Landers; treasurer, Edmund Churchill; Highway Agent, Rev. H. S. Dow. Devotional Committee: Rev. H. E. Mullen, Aaron Churchill, Mrs. Clayton Churchill, Fred Sollows.

Reports of Churches

Port Maitland—Glad to be able to say "spiritual" condition of our church is good. Rev. H. E. Mullen preaches a full gospel. Good interest shown in all our meetings.

New Tusket—We have our regular pastor this year. Bro. Mullen preaches every other Sunday afternoon. Sister Hazel Mullen supplies when he is not here. God is greatly blessing us. Our services are all well attended. We expect victory ahead.

Sandford—Bro. H. E. Mullen preaches the gospel to us with favor. Interest in all meetings good. Four young men have been added to our number since last Quarterly. We praise the Lord for this, and believe if we walk in the light His grace and peace will be multiplied unto us.

Bro. Mullen gave a verbal report of his work at Brazil Lake and New Tusket.

Bro. Dow gave a helpful talk along temperance lines.

A vote of thanks was given Sandford church for hospitality in entertaining delegates and visiting friends.

Moved we correspond with secretary of Saint John district relative to our sending delegates to their next Quarterly.

Saturday evening—Sunday school convention was held. Reports and constitution read by Sec. L. J. Sears.

Sunday morning—Love Feast led by L. J. Sears. Scripture read from 1st chap. Ephesians. At 10.30 Bro. H. E. Mullen preached from the text found in 1st chapter St. John, 23rd verse, theme being "Voice of another and cost of same." We must "decrease," but God "increase" cost John "imprisonment," his life, but it paid in the end.

Sunday afternoon—Prayer by L. J. Sears. Scripture by H. S. Dow from 3rd Epistles, John 1st chapter and part of 2nd. Text, 3rd chapter, St. John, 19th verse. We need to be "born again" in order to see or judge Spiritual things. Man's biggest sin is his rejection of light, which causes so much hardness and indifference.

Sunday night—Opening prayer, Rev. H. E. Mullen. Scripture, Rev. H. S. Dow, read from 1st chapter of 2nd Peter, and preached from the text found in the 22nd verse of Jude. "Keep yourselves in the love of God." Some grand instruction was given, showing us how to build Christian character.

This Quarterly has been of great help and benefit to the church and all who attended. The services were largely attended all day Sunday. The messages all through the Quarterly were grand and inspiring. Hoping we are all spared to meet in another session.

GEORGE LANDERS, Sec'y.

Wood Island, N. B.,

October 8, 1928.

Dear Highway: I wish to make a little report of our Wood Island Temperance Sunday meeting. Our very efficient school teacher took hold of the work, and a good program of temperance readings, recitations, exercises and songs was well carried out, which we trust made a favorable impression on all present. There were about forty of the under-age class on the stage to sing:

When we are old enough to vote,
There'll be a great commotion;
We'll sweep the land of whiskey clear
From ocean unto ocean.

It sounded good, and as if they meant it, too. Much credit is due the teacher, Miss Titus, for marshalling the young folk and getting them in form, and managing so successfully. God bless her.

EUGENE WILCOX,
Temperance Supt.

Pembroke, N. S.

Dear Brother Trafton: Enclosed find renewal to the King's Highway, the extra you can place where you think best. I get pleasure in reading the Highway, to learn that God's work is progressing. My full trust is in him, and He keeps me each day. Yours in Jesus,

MRS. CHARLOTTE SIONELL.

Beals, Maine.

Dear Bro. Trafton: I am enclosing my renewal for the King's Highway. I enjoy reading its pages so much. We would not want to do without it in our home. Jesus is precious to me. I enjoy attending His house of worship, and do what He would have me do.

Yours for the Master,

MRS. ALTON URQUHART.

Meductic.

Dear Bro. Trafton: Enclosed find my renewal for the King's Highway. I do love to read its clean pages; it seems like getting letters from the dear brothers and sisters. I don't know what I would do without the dear Lord these days, feeling quite shut in and no pastor, but this I do know, that the dear Lord is very precious to me these days. His precious blood cleanses and satisfies my soul. We are trusting God to send us someone in His own good time to keep up our prayer meetings. Your sister in Christ,

MRS. T. DICKINSON.

South Ohio, N. S.

Dear Bro. Trafton: Please find enclosed renewal for my Highway for another year. I read every word in it and would not do without it, as it is food to my soul, there are so many good things in it. I hope the money will come in to bring Dr. and Mrs. Sanders home, as they must need a change.

Yours still trusting in Jesus,

MRS. MANNING MULLEN.

Everett, Mass.

Dear Brother Trafton:

Enclosed please find money order for the Highway. Am so glad when the paper comes, to hear from the brothers, and sisters and learn how the cause of holiness is prospering in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. I expect by the help of the Lord to be true until Jesus comes, to resist the devil in the strength of the Lord, to keep close to Jesus, to take time to be holy in spite of the hurry and worry the world is in. These are days we need to get away alone with Jesus more than ever, and read and digest the Book of books, that teaches us the good and right way. I thank God for the secret place of the Most High, where we can live the hidden life. It means a lot to keep there. Prayer and intercession often is what does it. Oh, to keep the mind of Jesus. We are praying for a revival in our Church. We had a week of prayer. Pastor and wife and quite a few met morning and night to pray. We shall never forget it; we were all drawn nearer to Jesus, and now we meet every Wednesday morning to pray. Of course revivals begin in our hearts; we are believing soul travail will come upon some of us until sinners will be born into the Kingdom. The Lord bless you.

MRS. J. H. SABEAN

A pure heart may not improve our eyes, but it helps our angle of vision. To see God is a great honor; but heaven distributes its honors on the basis of our separation from sin and not according to our talent or popularity with the voters. Matthew 5:8—Christian Witness.