HINTS TO MINISTERS

A few hints to ministers are given by Bishop Hay, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Texas, U. S. A. The following included: Don't preach all day; long sermons mean empty pews. Don't pray all day, long prayers have made people cease to kneel at prayer. Don't preach science; the average minister knows nothing about science. Don't spend more than your salary; save enough to move on.

Mrs. Bagley was born at Millville and was converted at the age of eight years, and was baptized three years later by Rev. G. B. Trafton and joined the R. B. Church at Millville. Her parents moved to Maine shortly after. She has been in the work of the Lord almost continuously, and her labours have been blessed of God. She is a niece of Rev. S. H. Clark.

TO THE HOME BEYOND.

Bishop W. A. Quayle related the story of a little child who was tripping light-heartedly through a graveyard at dusk. Some one asked her if she was not afraid. "Oh, no, I only cross it to get home," was the answer.—From Herald and Presbyter.

"What is the solution of the bootlegging problem?" "Simple! It can be given in a sentence."

It is the still pond, not the running stream, that freezes the quickest.

QUARTERLY MEETING DISTRICT NO. 1

Brother Rogers' preaching. Sunday school attended, average about forty-five."

Suggestion was made that in the future a Sunday school convention be held in connection with the Quarterly Meeting. A vote of thanks was tendered to the people of Belvidere for their very kind treatment of those in attendance at the meeting. An invitation was extended to the Quarterly Meeting to meet with the church at Millville, Nov. 29 - Dec. 2. Accepted. Meeting adjourned.

Saturday evening M. Ella Slipp gave the message. Text, Mark 8:34-35.

The love feast on Sunday morning was led by Sister H. S. Mullen, who gave a helpful talk from the twenty-third Psalm. At 11.00 Lic. Hollis Kimball preached from Mat. 3:11. His message was clear and convincing. Communion service was held at the close of this meeting. The afternoon service was in charge of Rev. L. T. Sabine, who preached from Mat. 7:21. This was a strong message. The closing service was in charge of Rev. H. S. Mullen. His text was Gen. 3:4, "And the serpent said to the woman, Ye shall not surely die." Strong conviction was on the meeting. Seven souls bowed at the altar and sought God. During the different services fifteen seekers came to the altar for pardon or purity. All agreed that this was a very profitable meeting, as the presence of God was in our midst. We are glad to meet the brothers and sisters of this part of God's vineyard.

M. ELLA SLIPP, Secretary.

MARRIED

At the Reformed Baptist parsonage, North Head, N. B., on July 28th, 1928, by Rev. H. C. Archer, Wilfred W. Lahey, of North Head, and Miss Hazel R. Ingersoll, of Woodward's Cove, N. B.

At the Reformed Baptist Parsonage, North Head, N. B., on Sept. 1st, 1928, Beverly C. Wilson, of Mack Hill, N. B., and Miss Gladys A. Wilcox, of Wood Island, N. B., were united in marriage by Rev. H. C. Archer.

Rogers-Marr

At the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Royalton, N. B., a very pretty wedding was solemnized when Mr. Barent S. Rogers was married to Miss Florence B. Marr. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few immediate friends of the bride and groom by Rev. H. S. Mullen. A reception was held at the home of the bride the same evening.

We wish this happy couple every success.

"I am like a bird escaping from its cage," were the joyous last words of Fletcher of Madeley. "Hallelujah! I am sweeping through the gates," cried Dr. Cookman. "The battle is fought, the victory won," said Edward Payson. "Be of good comfort; we shall sup with Christ to-night," said martyr John Bradford. "I feel no ecstasy, but a profound joy," said John Nelson Darby. "Nothing now but heaven," were Melancthon's parting words; and Edward Perronet yielded up his breath on this lofty note of triumph; "Glory to God in the height of His divinity! Glory to God in the depth of His humanity! Glory to God in His all-sufficiency! Into His hands I commend my spirit."—Heart and Life.

A strong and faithful pulpit is no mean safeguard of a nation's life.—John Hall.
