

river was a bit risky over the stones in the way.

The moon was plenty of light for our journey and we arrived home safely by 8 p. m.

Do pray for these I have mentioned by name and many other needy ones too at this place of Entungwini.

Yours in Jesus,

Altona Mission Station,
Transvaal

Dear Homeland Friends:

Christian greetings from far off Africa. You will see by the heading of this letter that I am across the Pongola at Altona Mission Station. I am alone, as my sister is home still waiting for her horse. This is the second time I have been here of late without her. I am only here for a few days this time, but we are expecting, God willing, to soon be able to come here to stay among these needy people. Our hearts rejoice to think of this time, and the people are waiting, even the heathen, with joy, as they are so glad of the prospect of having missionaries to live among them at last. I cannot begin to tell you of the deep joy I have in my heart when I come to this place. The Lord has given me a vision, and I see His leadings this way for which I praise him.

We want to thank all the dear homefolks for your prayers, love and kind support during these seven years which we have spent in Africa. You have never failed us once during these years, and we have every reason to believe that you are doing your part in the homeland. And our prayers are that we will not disappoint you on this side. The years have passed by quickly, and we have ever been glad to be in Africa for the sake of the gospel, and glad to do our part in helping to tell these black people the story of Jesus. God keeps us content and we have never been homesick once, showing the One who called us here has supplied our every need, and today we still love Africa with her grand hills and valleys and the Zulu people are as dear as ever to our hearts. Yes, even dearer as the days go by. We want to thank our dear Heavenly Father for keeping us in good health during the hot and trying summers of these years, and for His constant love and care over us.

We ask your prayers for us during this coming year in our new field of labour at this place. The Lord has given many precious promises to encourage our coming. The promise I got today says: "Be strong and work for I am with you." Hag. 2:4. Many just as wonderful promises have been given us. Praise the Lord!

Our hearts are with you all, as you gather together for these ten precious days at Beulah. May richest blessings be yours all through the coming days.

Yours in Christian love,

HELEN AND ALICE STERRITT
