ALLIANCE AND CAMP MEETING.

The Alliance and Camp Meeting of 1928 have passed into history. The Alliance has passed its fortieth birthday. There was no special celebration of the anniversary during the Alliance, but such a celebration will be held at Woodstock, N. B., where the Alliance was organized Nov. 3rd, 1888. The Camp Meeting was begun at Beulah 35 years ago and those that were then present review with varied emotions the great changes which have taken place.

The business of the Alliance this year was carried through with dispatch and beautiful harmony. There was not a discordant note in all the proceedings. The editor of The King's Highway was elected as President, and Rev. G. R. Hagerman Vice-President. Rev. H. C. Archer remains the Secretary; Rev. I. F. Kierstead is assistant; Rev. H. S. Dow is the Treasurer; Rev. E. W. Lester, assistant treasurer; Rev. H. E. Mullen is the Corresponding Secretary, and Rev. H. C. Mullen the Auditor.

The workers for the Camp Meeting arrived on Thursday, June 28, Revs. Thos. and Gilbert Laite, of Somerville Mass.; Rev. W. E. Smith, of W. Somerville. Rev. Thomas Laite is presiding Elder of the New England District of the Evangelical Church. Mrs. Thomas Laite accompanied her husband. The preaching and teaching was very much to the point, and the two works of grace were especially stressed. The crowd was good throughout the entire camp, and although we had added another dormitory of 25 rooms, every place was filled to capacity. How wonderful it all is, as we have faith to increase our facilities, the Lord answers us in sending the people. The pressure of the Spirit of God was much manifest in all our services. There was a large number of young people in attendance and they seemed full of determination to follow the Lord, and our hearts were made to rejoice to see young men and women offering themselves to the work of the Lord.

The public missionary meeting on Saturday night, June 30th, was very largely attended. This was an especially interesting time, for at the close of this service Rev. Daniel M. MacDonald and Miss Faith Sanders were united in marriage. There was a large congregation present, and everything passed off beautifully.

The Camp Meeting was one of the best held in a number of years; the people came until the last Sunday found a great crowd of people assembled, and the most orderly that could be. The preaching was of a high order and in demonstration of the spirit and in power. Numbers were at the altar seeking to be saved or sanctified. It was the regret of all that Rev. Gilbert Laite was indisposed during the latter part of the meeting. Revs. H. V. Miller, District Superintendent of the New England District of the Church of the Nazarene, and R. Wayne Gardner, Prof. of Mathematics and Science of E.N.C., arrived on Friday, July 6. They brought the greetings from the Nazarene assembly. The singing was of a high order, and the special selections, consisting of solos, duets, mixed and male quartettes, were blessed of God and finely rendered.

The finances never came easier; the spiritual tide ran high at times. The last Sunday of the Love Feast 145 people testified in 45 minutes, and as many more wished to do so. The meeting closed Sunday night, July 8, at 11.30, after a grand altar service, march around the Tabernacle with songs and shouts of joy. Mr. J. F. Bullock presided at the organ, and Mrs. S. H. Clark at the piano. There was wonderful and blessed harmony, and all were united in their opinion that the Camp Meeting at Beulah, 1928, had been one of the best in our history.

The hotel committee rendered very efficient service, the grounds committee did their work cheerfully, and the rooms committee were untiring in their efforts for the comfort of the roomers. Time would fail us to give a full detailed account. We praise God for His goodness, the people for their willingness, and the Holy Spirit for His faithfulness; He will care for His own cause, but He needs faithful stewards.

WORDS OF WISDOM

There is a bigger fool than the man who juggles funds to cover a delinquency: that is a church that tries to eat itself rich at an oyster supper.

"The man who has done his best has done everything. The man who has done less than his best has done nothing."

BEULAH-ON-THE-SAINT-JOHN

This picturesque camp ground which has become noted as the most beautiful one on the continent, still bears the imprint and favor of God. The very atmosphere is sacred—where God not only comes in the cool of the day, but where His irresistible presence is felt continually, calling forth praise and adoration from the hearts of His children.

The Camp Meeting of 1928 which has just passed has been the best from many viewpoints, we believe, for several years. The sweet spiritual fellowship which prevailed during all the business sessions and throughout the ten days services was very marked. Three evangelists (whom we learned to love for their work's sake) and brethren brought grand messages which fed the saints, brought conviction by the Holy Spirit to the unsaved, and unsanctified, resulting in much victory, as souls wept their way to Calvary or tarried at the fountain of cleansing, an unmistakable evidence that God is still on the throne and that the precious blood of Jesus is just as efficacious today as ever in the past.

The early morning prayer meetings were well attended, a very precious time of communion with their best and dearest Friend. This gave new strength and refreshment for the services that followed.

The social or "people's meeting" from 9 to 10.30 a. m. were really love feasts. Testimonies from children, young people and from those long on the way who had proven the power of God to save and wholly sanctify, had a glad ring of victory. The attendance was all that could be desired. Thousands were on the grounds each Sunday and were quiet and respectful—a fine class of people. Brother J. F. Bullock and Sister S. H. Clark, who presided at the organ and piano, faithfully discharged their labor of love, which was greatly appreciated. The singing was good and the special songs grand, rendered by duets, ladies' quartettes, male and mixed quartettes, and were greatly enjoyed.

The various committees discharged their duties faithfully and well. All appreciated the efficiency and courtesy shown by the Hotel committee and co-workers, especially for the delicious supper arranged so beautifully for the missionary wedding party. The table and dining room were beautifully decorated with ferns, wild flowers and flags. The cakes were surely a work of art and most delicious.

The yearly missionary meeting was attended by hundreds of people. The reports were interesting and encouraging. An offering of $100.00 (one hundred dollars) was taken for the foreign work.

This was followed by the wedding, when Sister Faith Sanders was united in marriage to Brother Daniel MacDonald, our outgoing missionaries, notice of which will be seen in another column.

We believe the people have gone to their homes with a new vision of their responsibilities and possibilities through Christ.

We praise the Lord for the wonderful privilege we have enjoyed, and for all that was accomplished by the Holy Spirit. We give Him praise and glory, and are determined to live closer to Jesus, pray more with increasing faith, and be of greater service by His help.
