BEULAH CAMP MEETING

We were delighted to be at Beulah this year. Never have we seen the place more beautiful to the outward eye and the inner spirit. The weather was delightful, the attendance good, the spiritual results encouraging. The old-time gospel has still a great hold upon the hearts of men. We were blessed under the ministry of the brethren who preached and felt great inspiration when it was our privilege to speak.

We were glad to be present at the marriage of Miss Faith Sanders, of Natal, South Africa, to Rev. Daniel McDonald, a recent graduate of Eastern Nazarene College, Wollaston, Mass. The former needs no words of commendation from me, and she has found a most worthy companion in Brother McDonald, who made an enviable reputation for himself in college and in the Nazarene Church in Somerville, Mass., where he held his membership. Mr. McDonald has the qualities to make a most successful missionary; good physical health, a pleasing personality, a creditable mental equipment, and above all else a stable Christian character. He has grace, grit and gumption. Brought up on a farm in P. E. I., he knows a good deal about agriculture. He has had considerable experience in nursing, and saw service in France. He is by trade a carpenter, all of which will add to his efficiency in the foreign field. We predict for Rev. and Mrs. MacDonald a career of great usefulness in South Africa, and congratulate the Reformed Baptist denomination on sending such missionaries to the field. I understand that as soon as Brother and Sister McDonald reach South Africa, Dr. and Mrs. Sanders, who have been there seventeen years without furlough, will return home, and that the adjustment will be determined by the matter of raising the passage money. I do not wish to intrude, but I sincerely hope the money may be raised speedily. Some prosperous Reformed Baptists ought to head the subscription with one hundred dollars or more. I will be glad to fall in with the seventy-five dollar subscribers. I am sure that friends outside the denomination will respond. Beloved, let us make good and practical the enthusiasm displayed at Beulah Camp, and send this splendid couple as speedily as possible to the field.

Yours for the spread of Holiness,

W. EDMUND SMITH

ONE GLIMPSE OF BEULAH, 1928,

Beulah Camp, beautiful as it always is, never looked so beautiful to me as on the afternoon of July 3rd, 1928, with all its beautiful walks and buildings, and the tabernacle standing on the hill with its ensign of glory, that always reminds me of "The Camp of Israel" that had halted and the "Glory of God" was resting upon it. So on this afternoon Beulah and all its surroundings lie there in all its splendor, bathed in the glorious sunlight. Methinks one would not have to be very visionary to see "The Camp" halted and the "Glory of God" resting in benediction on the scene.

Dinner is over and from the tabernacle comes the sound of praise, and people come from all directions, young as well as old, for at Beulah the worship of God is the heart's desire of all. In the afternoon the happy crowd assembled for another meeting. After the singing of many beautiful hymns with Brother Bullock at the organ, and a special selection by Brother and Sister Watson, a powerful sermon was preached by Evangelist Rev. Gilbert M. Laite on "The Power of God in our Lives." At the close of this wonderful service a short time was given in congratulations to the aged sister, Mrs. Joseph Bullock, on the occasion of her birthday, a few days before. A poem was read by Rev. W. E. Smith of his own composition in memory of his own mother. Then the President of the Alliance, P. J. Trafton, opened the Ordination Service by calling all the ordained preachers to the platform, together with candidates for ordination. Daniel M. McDonald and George A. Rogers. The hymn, "Faith of our Fathers," was sung. The question to the candidates was asked by Rev. H. C. Archer. There was the laying on of hands by all the preachers and the ordination prayer was offered by Rev. G. B. Trafton, who seemed to pray the very heavens down or the power thereof. A very solemn talk on the duties of the pastors and churches was given by Rev. H. C. Mullen. The charge was given to the newly ordained preachers in his own earnest, solemn way by Rev. H. Smith Dow. Singing, "A Charge to Keep I Have." Benediction was pronounced by Rev. D. M. MacDonald. Then a joyous time was spent in congratulating the newly ordained preachers.

Rev. Daniel MacDonald will soon go to the foreign field. Rev. George A. Rogers is pastor of the churches at Belvidere and Crystal, Me. Both of our young preachers graduated at Eastern Nazarene College in Wollaston, Mass., at the closing of June, 1928.

And now with the closing of this one beautiful scene of Beulah Camp, 1928, I will say farewell to all the readers of the Highway, and pray that God's richest blessing will rest on and follow our newly ordained preachers, and that they may be mighty soul-winners for the Kingdom of our God and His dear Son.
