

CORRESPONDENCE

Greys Mills, Kings Co., N. B.

Editor Highway:

Just a line from the Greys Mills Church at this time. At the close of the Quarterly Meetings held here June 7 and over 10th the president Rev. P. J. Trafton felt lead by the promptings of the Spirit—to remain with us for a few special services and was also requested to do so by the church. He therefore remained preaching the word from night to night through the week and over the Sabbath of the 17th inst. The preaching was in the demonstration of the Spirit of the Master in tenderness and love and with the Holy Ghost sent down from Heaven, God surely put His seal upon the preached word and upon His servant, resulting in the out-pouring of His Spirit upon the Church and community in a wonderful God sent revival. God's Spirit wonderfully worked on the hearts of men and women, boys and girls. One whole family, father, mother, son and daughter, also a young man living in the same home, a boy of about 10 years visiting at the same home, all six were gloriously saved; also seven other young folk, five young women and one young man were saved. Some others were sanctified wholly, the brethren and sisters of the church were wonderfully helped and encouraged. We praise God for such wonderful manifestation of His Spirit, and for the help sent us through His servant. We feel that Brother Trafton should be in the Home Missionary Work, he could be mightily used of God in reviving the work among our churches—and such work is much needed in these days of formality and sin.

On Sunday morning the 17th inst Mr. Trafton baptized 5 persons, on Monday evening the 18th he baptized two persons, on Sunday evening five persons were received into membership of the church and several others have expressed their desire to receive the right hand of fellowship in the near future.

As ever, your Brother,

S. H. BRADLEY

Brookline, Mass.

Dear Brother Trafton:

I am sending you my renewal for the Highway. It is a grand little paper and has many good things in it. I had the privilege of going to Cambridge two Sundays to hear Brother Smith preach in his Church. I tell you they were two wonderful sermons. He is surely a godly man. And it did me good to be with God's people once more again, and this is my testimony that "Jesus is precious to me." His precious blood cleanses us from all sin, and I am so glad that it cleanses me. Amazing grace! 'tis Heaven below, to feel the blood applied. My Jesus, only Jesus know, My Jesus crucified. Amen.

Your Sister in Holy Faith

Dear sir:

Please find, enclosed, postal note for renewal of the Highway. Truly, it is a splendid paper and is full of good things, which are a feast for the soul. It gets better all the time. May the good work go on, to the honor and glory of God and the feeding of His sheep.

Yours truly,

MRS. R. ALEXANDER BLANEY

Prairie, Wash.

Dear Bro. Trafton:

Enclosed you will find cheque for subscription to the Highway.

How I would love to meet with you all at Beau-lah once more, twenty-four years ago this meeting I was there, and shall never forget how God came to my soul with what some call fire, but I call it Heaven. The St. John river sparkled like a big field of diamonds, the very earth was changed, it was about half way from the Tabernacle to the dormitory when Jesus came in His mighty power and I wanted to lift both arms in the air and shout God's praises. The devil was right there and said never mind making any fuss just go home and live it, what a deceiver! I didn't let God have His way so went home just as I came there.

How I wish I could send a warning that would help people not to listen to the enemy, but let God have His precious way. He has never come in the same way again, but I had to step out by faith and claim His cleansing blood, and am rejoicing in Him today. Last winter I was very bad with high blood pressure and a very bad heart, and He came and touched my body and healed it. Praise His name forever.

Not quite two years ago my husband was saved. What a wonderful Saviour is Jesus the Lord. He hears and answers prayers. I feel so unworthy when I look back over my life and see how good God has been to me. I am His just now.

Well I didn't expect to write all this when I started. I believe it is of the Lord.

Yours in Christian love

MRS. ALEX JOHNSTON

Dear Sir:

Enclosed find money for the renewal for the Highway for another year. I praise my God for a full salvation that saves and keeps me rejoicing in my blessed Saviour. I thank God the comforter has come to abide in my soul. Bless His dear name forever.

Yours in Christian fellowship

OBITUARY

Mrs. Byron Wilcox

On Friday evening June 8th, at the home of her brother, Mr. Calvin Benson, of Seal Cove, Grand Manan, Mrs. Byron Wilcox passed away to be with Jesus. Deceased was in her forty-ninth year. Her illness was of long duration, and her patience under suffering was remarkable; she attributed it to the abiding presence of the Holy Spirit, whom she had definitely received as her sanctifier some time ago, and her expressed wish was to "depart and be with Christ." She leaves her mother, Mrs. Alice Benson, three daughters, Mrs. Harleigh Cronk of Seal Cove, Mrs. Ray Cross of Lubec Me., and Miss Evelyn at home. Two sons, Earl of Lubec, Me., and Nolen of St. John N. B. Her husband being away, she was tenderly cared for at the home of her brother, Calvin Benson, from whose home funeral services were conducted by the writer, assisted by Lic. Eugene Kierstead, thence to the Reformed Baptist Church, where a large congregation had assembled. Interment was at the Seal Cove cemetery.

Medford, Mass.

of his life. He was twice married, his last wife being, Mrs. Harriet Shaw, who predeceased him several years. He was converted shortly after his first marriage, and united with the Baptist church of Jacksontown. When the experience of entire sanctification, was preached years ago in Woodstock, he sought and obtained the experience. Shortly after the Reformed Baptist church was organized in Woodstock, N. B. he united with it, and has been a faithful member, holding the office of deacon, of which he had been the senior for a number of years at the time of his death.

The funeral service was held in the home, his pastor, Rev. E. W. Lester officiating, assisted by Rev. H. S. Dow, of Hartland, N. B. and Rev. T. D. Bell U.B., Jacksonville, N. B. Members of the Woodstock R. B. Choir sang selections requested by the family, which was highly appreciated by all. Interment was in the family lot near by. We extend our sympathy to those who mourn; Another of the father's has been removed; He looked for a city whose builder and maker is God.

Mrs Hannah Colpitts

The death of Mrs. Hannah Colpitts took place at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Howe, East St. John, on Monday, June 11th, at the advanced age of 90. She was the wife of George E. Colpitts who predeceased her many years. The deceased had made her home with her daughter for many years, where she was faithfully cared for. The last few years she had been practically helpless and was a great care. She was a Reformed Baptist in religion, and had been a follower of the Lord since young in life. She was a member of the Mercer Settlement church. Two sons and two daughters survive her. The sons are Willard W. Colpitts, and Samuel J. Colpitts. The daughters, Mrs. W. W. Howe, widow of the late Rev. W. W. Howe, and Mrs. G. W. Howes.

The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon and was conducted by the writer assisted by Rev. G. B. Trafton. Interment was made in the Methodist cemetery at East St. John.

Don't let the margin between you and evil grow too narrow. Stay as far from sin as possible. It is not a sign of strength, but of weakness, to dally with temptation.—Heart and Life.

Today is the day of salvation. This is true dispensationally and personally. This is the ray toward which former dispensations looked forward and it is the one upon which future dispensations depend. And further, the personal neglect of salvation until death means that there is no salvation for such a one at all; for death ends probation.
