MARRIED

Watson, the double ring service being used. The church was very prettily decorated for the occasion by friends of the bride. The bride has been a popular and successful teacher in the local schools. Mr. and Mrs. Kelly will reside at Beals.

Beal-Dunning

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Annie Beal, Beals, Me., was the scene of a very pretty wedding on July 1st, when their son, Uriah, was united in marriage to Miss Thelma Dunning, daughter of Mrs. Geo. Lowell, of Prospect, Me. The ceremony was performed under a very pretty arch in the drawing room by the Rev. F. A. Watson, the double ring service being used. The young couple were supported by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph White, of Harrington. Delicate refreshments were served after the ceremony.

Urquhart-Hooper

At the Reformed Baptist parsonage, North Head, N. B., on July 25th, 1928, by Rev. H. C. Archer, Lyman E. Urquhart, of North Head, and Miss Lottie G. Hooper, of Back Bay, N. B.

One mark of steadfast spirituality is an ever-increasing love for the Bible, and we may take our spiritual temperature by noting whether or not the Bible is as precious as it used to be to us.

SENTENCE SERMONS

By Heny Bell

To do the right thing in the wrong way or the wrong thing in the right way is to fail, but to do the right thing in the right way at the right time is to succeed.

God may lay a preacher on the shelf for a time, but woe to him who lays himself there.

You can back out of a mudhole when you cannot go straight ahead with your car, and it is often better to back humbly out of a bad mess you got yourself into than to try to keep going ahead.

An old dog could learn new tricks if he wanted to, but like a lot of human beings, he is "fixed."

When a church does not vote a pastor back another year, he should say, "I congratulate you on your good judgment."

People who fight tenaciously for that passage "Adorn not yourself with silver and gold" should also defend the rest of the verse, "Put on a meek and quiet spirit."

People who wonder why so many humbugs like to hang around holiness churches should remember that the more an electric light shines the more bugs gather around.

Whenever you agree with a man, he has a higher opinion of you. Whenever you disagree with a man, he either thinks your judgment or his judgment is right—and you can guess what his decision will be.

You may not wish to agree with everyone, but you can at least be agreeable.—Herald of Holiness.
