

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

The 40th anniversary at Woodstock, N. B., Nov. 1 to 4, was a wonderful season. Next issue will give full details.

Rev. H. S. Mullen has been engaged in revival services at Gordonsville, N.B., and many souls have been helped. He has been assisted by Rev. and Mrs. D. M. MacDonald.

Rev. H. C. Archer held a special Armistice day service on Nov. 11th at North Head, N.B. They also had a Thanksgiving service, the church being beautifully decorated for the occasion.

We were sorry to learn of Bro. Kierstead's car accident on his way home from Woodstock Saturday evening, Nov. 3rd.

Rev. H. S. Dow began special revival services at Hartland, N.B. Monday, Nov. 12th, with an all day meeting. Rev. and Mrs. H. S. Mullen, Rev. and Mrs. D. M. MacDonald were present to assist. The services will be continued for two or three weeks and Rev. H. E. Mullen, of Port Maitland, N. S., will be the special evangelist.

Rev. L. T. Sabine baptized two candidates at Millville Sunday, Oct. 28. Recently two persons were received into the fellowship of the church at Millville.

The church building at Upper Hainesville has been new-roofed this fall.

The church building at Lower Hainesville has been painted on the outside, including the roof.

Rev. L. T. Sabine wishes to express his thanks to the folk at Lower Hainesville, N.B., for the table offering given him Sunday evening, Nov. 11th.

Rev. I. F. Kierstead baptized nine persons Sunday evening, Nov. 11. Others will go forward later.

Rev. George Rogers is engaged in revival services at Crystal, Me. He is being assisted by Lic. and Mrs. Hollis Kimball.

Lic. Hollis Kimball preached in the Evangelical Church at Cambridge Sunday evening, Oct. 28, for Rev. W. E. Smith.

Let us make special prayer for the special meetings being held in the different sections.

NOTES

The next issue will be the 40th anniversary number. We were not able to get all the material together for this issue. Friends who would like extra copies please order at once from the Editor, so we will know how many extras to print. They will cost 3 cents per copy.

The poem, "Mount Abram," in last issue, should have had affixed the signature of Rev. W. Edmund Smith.

Let us boost "The King's Highway." Send us your renewals and new subscriptions.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The Reformed Baptist Church at Perth, N. B., wish to acknowledge, through the King's Highway, the kindness of Miss E. MacNaughton, of Brown's Flats, N. B., in donating them a nice organ for the church; to J. F. Bullock and Rev. S. H. Clark for their assistance in connection with same. May God richly bless all concerned.

On behalf of the Church,

MRS. ROBERT MacCREA

PERSONALS

Brother and Sister Abner Sharpe, of Millville, have gone to West Saint John, to spend the winter with their daughter, Mrs. W. B. Johnson.

Mrs. Ottis Ames, of Fort Fairfield, Me., has been operated on for appendicitis at Community Hospital. She is progressing favorably.

Mrs. H. S. Dow and daughter, Grace, Mr. and Mrs. D. Beam spent the week-end and Thanksgiving in Fredericton, N. B.

Elden Terrell, of Bridgewater, Me., was accidentally fatally shot recently. Deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Terrill, and a nephew of Sister Sarah Fawcett, of Norton-dale, N. B.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Perry, Edward and Dorothy Perry, of Port Maitland, N. S., who have been on an auto trip for the past four weeks through different parts of N. S., N. B. and Me., returned home after spending a few days with Rev. and Mrs. P. J. Trafton at Moncton. Edward Perry had an attack of tonsillitis while at the latter place.

Jasper Harris expects to return to Chicago next week.

Mrs. A. K. MacCallum was to River Glade Sanatorium on Monday, Nov. 12, for examination. She returned the same day.

Norman Sharp, of Fredericton, spent a few days in Moncton recently.

Harold Ingersoll, of Saint John, N. B., has been laid up with a sprained knee.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Grass, of Moncton, spent the week-end and Thanksgiving with friends.

A. G. Good, of Moncton, was in Saint John, for a short time recently.

The following from the Pasadena Star-News will be of interest to many of the Highway readers:

At a beautiful luncheon given Monday, Oct. 15th, by Miss Gayla Smith, at her home 1481 Atchison St., Miss Marion Trafton announced her approaching marriage to Mr. Harold Goss, of Pennsylvania. The wedding to take place in December. Covers were laid for eighteen. Decorations for the occasion were pink roses and sweet peas.

Both Miss Trafton and Mr. Goss are graduates of the University of Southern California. Miss Trafton leaves in a couple of weeks for Kansas to visit for several weeks with her parents.

THE KING'S HIGHWAY

By D. Rand Pierce.

Beautiful messenger of the King!

Bearing upon thy wings of light,

Tidings that make the sad hearts sing;

Sunshine that banishes all their night!

Welcome! thrice welcome! our glad hearts say,

When, to our home, comes "The King's Highway!"

Beautiful messenger of the King!

Bearing His tidings through all the years—

What hallowed mem'ries about thee cling;

What scenes of triumph; of fast falling tears!

Welcome! thrice welcome! the fond, looked-for day,

When, to our home, comes "The King's Highway!"

Beautiful messenger of the King!

Flitting thy way o'er the land and sea;

Food for the hungering hearts to bring;

Letters of love from "My Ain Countrie"—

Welcome! thrice welcome! still come while we stay

Here a trice longer, dear "King's Highway!"
