EDITORIAL

We are sorry to record in this issue the passing of another of our number, in the death of Rev. T. W. Moses, at Lisbon Falls, Maine, where he has been living with his daughter for over two years past. Many will indeed regret his passing, for he had a great many friends, having been used of God, in a very marked degree, in the ministry of intercession, for the help of the soul, and the healing of the body. No one ever doubted his sincerity and faith in God. He was on intimate terms with his Lord, and talked with Him as friend to friend. They are passing one by one. We miss them here, but they are banding over there, just beside the golden landing, waiting to receive we who are on the way, if we will be true and faithful. We trust that his mantle will fall on some other, to carry on his work of faith, and labour of love.

Servant of God, well done!

Thy glorious warfare's past;

The battle's fought, the race is won,

And thou art crowned at last.

P. J. T.

Another great warrior has fallen by the hand of death. Will H. Huff of Sioux City, Iowa. He was one of the outstanding preachers in the National Holiness Association. He has led a strenuous life in his evangelistic career in North and South America, and has been signally blessed of God. We never listened to a more fervent preacher of the gospel of full salvation. He rests from his labours. Our sympathy and prayers ascend to God in behalf of his wife and family so suddenly bereaved.

P. J. T.

We are thankful for the response that is being made, from the many sources, to the passage fund and we trust this will continue, for we will need at least three (3) thousand dollars before the next meeting of Alliance. Rev. and Mrs. D. M. MacDonald, will be sailing early in the new year and Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Sanders and family expect to reach home before the next Alliance. Our people will need to make some sacrifice, so that the Mission Board will not have to borrow to supply this fund. Our people and friends have always responded, when the need was placed fairly before them. We have nothing to cover up in the distribution of our funds. We seek only the glory of God and the salvation of precious never dying souls. We thank all who have nobly responded and we trust you will see clearly to double your offering.

We are very much in sympathy with the Christian forces in the United States who are calling for a day of Fasting and Prayer, Nov. 4th that the cause of righteousness shall triumph on the 6th day of November when the masses will go to the polls to elect a President. We do believe that God in the past has undertaken in such matters, for his glory, in answer to the heart cry of his people. It would be a calamity for the world, if a man in favor of booze should be elected at this time. May Nov. 4th be a day of mighty prayer on the part of God's children everywhere, then let every God fearing man and good citizen in the United States vote for Hoover. Every holiness man or woman is a prohibitionist of course, they cannot be anything else and retain the favor of God.

CORRESPONDENCE

Dear Brother Trafton:

Enclose find my renewal to the King's Highway. The Lord is precious to me these days and I am still determined to press the battle for Him.
Yours in His service

Dear Editor:

We wish to send greetings to all the readers of the Highway scattered abroad.

We have just closed a very successful campaign here in our church. Rev. Gilbert Laite of Everett Mass. was the Evangelist and Sister Hazel Mullen our special singer. Each of these workers were much appreciated by the Pastor and people. Brother Laite is a fine preacher and a wise, sane, worker. As far as I know he won the hearts of all who came to hear him. Our congregations were very good, and the presence of the Holy Spirit was with us from the beginning. A number were restored from a backsliden state, and the church in general was much strengthened. Several were converted and some professed sanctification. We believe many were deeply convicted who did not yield. We are praying and expecting that the revival spirit may continue and that many others may yield to the gracious influence of the Holy Spirit.

We feel that this has been the most successful campaign we have had since coming to Fredericton. Praise the Lord. We are expecting to have a baptism in the near future.

Continue to pray for us beloved that the good work may go on.

Last night a backslider was reclaimed in our Band meeting. The Lord is giving us victory in our own souls. The precious blood cleanseth and the Holy Spirit abides with us. Praise His name.

Yours in the work

I. F. KEIRSTEAD

Dear Highway:—

A few lines from this part of the Vineyard to report our special services which began on Sept. 14th with Rev. G. M. Laite as evangelist. From the beginning the battle was hard, owing to the difficult situation—the enemy using every available agency. But in spite of all we saw some real victory, we had some good cases of conversion, some reclaimed and others claimed sanctification. We pray that every one thus helped shall continue to progress in divine things and prove the promises to save and keep.

Brother Laite concluded his services on Sept. 30th, but Rev. H. S. Mullen and wife came with us on Wednesday, Oct. 3rd, and were with us over Sunday and were blessed of the Lord in their ministry with us.

On Saturday Sept. 22nd, Sister Hazel Mullen of Hassett, N. S., came with us and remained throughout. Her messages in song were inspiring and encouraging to one's faith.

On Sunday the 14th of Oct. we held a baptismal service when two candidates followed in that beautiful ordinance. We expect to have another baptismal service soon.

The church at Millville and people from surrounding country were much helped and encouraged. We appreciate all who contributed in any way to make the meeting the success it was. Especially did we appreciate the faithful, sacrificing ministry of Rev. G. M. Laite who endeared himself to all who sat under his preaching. The Lord bless him. To God be all the glory for all accomplished and may He keep us all faithful to the end.

In Christian love,

L. T. SABINE

Dear Brother Trafton:

"Sister Mary" and I follow the reports of your work as a denomination with unflagging interest, for through the kindness of Dear Mother Aaron Hartt we are privileged to see at least a major portion of the "King's Highway" issues.

We of course naturally look always for the names of those whom we once knew, and are often paid for our trouble. We recently came across the name of Thomas Whitten. How the years have flown since we last set eyes on this dear man of God. What a blessing he was to me as a young Methodist preacher in Caribou, Maine, way back in ninety-four and five. And his sainted wife and sister, Sarah.

We sometimes while away a pleasant hour in discussing the project of going the rounds of our old-time friends once more before life's sun sinks too low, and, whether we ever get started or not, it is very comforting to at least talk about it. But it will not be long before we shall meet where there are no separations. I enclose a few lines of appreciation of the "Highway."

In His blessed service,

D. RAND PIERCE.

THE SAFE PATH

Young men make a sad mistake when they think it necessary that they should have a personal acquaintance with the dark and seamy side of life. Many a man who has peered into the abyss "just to see what it was like," has lost his balance and fallen almost hopelessly. A young man was talking to a pilot on one of our big steamers. "How long," he asked, "have you been a pilot on these waters?" The old man replied, "Twenty-five years; and I came up and down many times before I was pilot." "Then," said the young man, "I should think you must know every rock and sandbank on the river." The old man smiled at the youth's simplicity and replied, "Oh, no, I don't; but I know where the deep water is." That is what we want—to know the safe path and keep it.
