NOTICE

The Quarterly Meeting of District No. 3, will convene with the church at Jonesport, Maine, Nov. 8-11 inclusive. Let the clerk of each church, as it was moved and adopted in our last meeting, send a written report to the secretary; addressing it in care of the pastor where the convention will meet. Let each church send a good delegation. Let us pray that God will give us a great meeting.

REV. C. R. HAGERMAN, Sec'y.

READ THIS!

A holiness convention continuing for one month will be held in the Reformed Baptist Church, Saint John, N. B. beginning Nov. 11. Several preachers have been engaged including Revs. F. A. Dunlop, S. A. Mullen, G. R. Hagerman. There will be special music, Miss Hazel Mullen is expected, a male quartette etc. Let the people pray for this meeting and plan to attend. We trust that this will be a great convention. We can make it such. Write Rev. H. C. Mullen, 350 Charlotte St., West Saint John, or Emery Cosman, No. 1 Carleton St., Saint John, N. B.

ATTENTION

We trust that the different churches are planning to be fully represented, and that all the pastors will be present at the 40th Anniversary at Woodstock, Nov. 1 to 4. It would be well for all the members of the Mission Board to be present as we will probably have a meeting at that time. Other phases of the work will be considered. Come praying and willing to let the Lord have His way.

P. J. TRAFTON

doubt thought of the suffering of his Lord and Savior, and when his tormentors asked if he would serve the gods they served he still answered, "I will not deny Christ. There is no other God but one, and Jesus Christ is the Redeemer of the world. He loved me and died for me, and I love him with all my heart."

The poor child fainted beneath the repeated strokes, and they cast the torn and bleeding body into the mother's arms, saying, supposing that he was dead, "See now what the love of Christ has done for your Christian boy." As the mother gently pressed him to her crushed heart, she answered, "That love will take him from the wrath of man to the peace of heaven where God shall wipe away all tears."

But the boy had not yet passed over the river. Opening his eyes, he said, "Mother, can I have a drop of water from our cool well?" As he closed his eyes again the mother said, "Already, dearest, thou hast tasted of the well that springeth up into everlasting life. Farewell; thy Savior calls for thee."

To the surprise of all, after they thought he had breathed his last, he raised his eyes, and looking to where the elder martyr was, he said, in almost a whisper, "There is but one God, and Jesus Christ whom He hath sent."

With these words upon his parched lips he passed into God's presence, where is fulness or joy, and to His right hand, where are pleasures forever more.—Edward Payson Hammond.

My Dear Brother Trafton:

I have just arrived in Boston from a five weeks meeting in N. B. I would like to give the readers of the Highway a report of the same. My first meeting was with Rev. L. T. Sabine at Millville. For the first week there was a tremendous battle on, all the combined forces of earth and hell appeared to be engaged against the success of the meeting. We felt led to call the saints to a time of special prayer and fasting, until the blessing of God came upon the meeting and apparent defeat was turned into victory and a few souls found their way to God, for Pardon and Purity, for which we bless and praise Him. We had to close our meeting on the third Sunday night because of other engagements, but Brother Sabine was fortunate to be able to secure Rev. Hallett Mullen and his good wife, so they continued the meeting another week. Rev. L. T. Sabine is a splendid fellow to work with, and he is optimistic regarding a greater future for Millville. He is blessed with a good wife that knows how to pray the glory down.

From Millville I went to Fredericton with Rev. I. F. Kierstead; this meeting was one of victory from the very beginning. Cottage prayer meetings were held every morning, and in the afternoon at the church. Thank God for the good people of Fredericton that really know how to prevail with God.

A large number of seekers were at the altar for two weeks of grace, and we prophecy a great future for the Reformed Baptist people of Fredericton. God bless them and keep them true to the fundamental doctrine of full salvation is my prayer. Rev. I. F. Kierstead and his consecrated wife were the most agreeable folk that I have ever labored with. It was a great blessing to me to be in their home for two weeks.

Miss Hazel Mullen rendered special music at both campaigns, and with her sweet spirit, and her gospel message, she sang her way into the hearts of the people. She also prays with a passion for the souls of lost men.

God bless the Reformed Baptist Church of Canada; may she ever be true to the old time Gospel of Full Salvation, for it is the only thing that is adequate to meet the needs of a world that is wrecked with sin.

Yours in Christ, GILBERT M. LAITE
