Dyer-Adams

A very beautiful wedding was solemnized on Friday evening, June 28th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Olen Adams, Crystal, Me., when their eldest daughter, Wavie Almeda Adams, was united in marriage to Harold Riley Dyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oral Dyer, Portland, Me. The house was very beautifully decorated. The bride and groom stood in front of a bank of evergreen, which was covered with white roses. The bride was becomingly attired in a dress of white georgette with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The groom wore a suit of navy blue. They were attended by Miss Hazel Stewart, aunt of the bride, and by Russell Dyer, brother of the groom. Violet and Violetta Adams, twins of five years, and sisters of the bride, were ring-bearers. The bride was given away by her father. Luna Thorne, Belvidere, Me., played the wedding march, and Rev. G. A. Rogers, Crystal, Me., performed the ceremony. A reception was given immediately after the ceremony. Many relatives and friends attended the reception. There were many beautiful presents.

SOCIAL REFORM

We, your committee on Social Reform, beg leave to report as follows:

We regret that we have seen very little that is encouraging in the present situation. Vice and immorality are prevalent, it would seem, to a greater degree than ever before, and we feel that this is due in no small part to the lack of prohibition legislation in regard to the use of alcoholic beverages in this country.

We deplore the indulgence in strong drink and tobacco by the people in general, and especially the increasing widespread use of wines and cigarettes by women and young girls, in view of the menace which such habits are to future generations.

We commend the action of certain women's organizations in protesting against the publication of cigarette advertisements in women's magazines, and we congratulate them on their success in securing the removal of some such advertisements.

The use of profane and indecent language is too commonly heard, especially in public places. We wish to protest against this and to urge upon our people the avoidance of slang terms, and in this connection would call to mind Matthew 5:37.

In conclusion, we would urge upon our churches, and each individual member, the necessity of leading lives which are pure and blameless before God and before the world, remembering the command of our Master: "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven."

MEMORIAL SERVICE

A memorial service was held at Beulah Camp, Tuesday, July 2nd, at 2.30 p.m., in memory of Rev. T. W. Moses, several deacons and members of our churches, also Mrs. Joseph Bullock, who has been associated with the camp ground at Beulah from its beginning. The President and charge of the service and the following had a place on the programme. The meeting opened with the singing of the hymn, "Rock of Ages." The Scripture reading was by Rev. H. C. Sanders, after which prayer was offered by Rev. G. B. Trafton. Hymn, "There's Not a Friend Like the Lowly Jesus," was followed by short addresses by Revs. E. W. Lester and F. A. Watson, and Mrs. H. C. Sanders, in reference to Rev. T. W. Moses, the deacons and church members were beautifully spoken of by Rev. H. C. Mullen. During the singing of a hymn, "Blessed Assurance," memorial cards of Mrs. Joseph Bullock were passed to the congregation, after which Rev. H. C. Archer gave an address, referring to the Christian life and activities of our departed sister. This was followed by addresses by Rev. H. E. Thomas, D.D., U.C., and Ensign Ellis, of the S. A., and then her son, John, spoke feelingly of his mother. At the close of his speech he announced that he was giving ($2,000) two thousand dollars, to help the widows of deceased ministers. Two young ladies of the Salvation Army from Saint John sang the hymn, "Jesus is Calling," and then followed an altar service, and the benediction. This was indeed a profitable service.
